CADAVERS IN SECTIONS.

Grewsome Relics of the Human Form That Will Not Down.

Dismembered Limbs Which Found Their Way to the Crematory.

The mystery of the lake remains a mystery, although the Coroner's office feels reasonably sure that the body was placed in the lake by medical students. The finding of a human leg in the lake by William Rowe was printed in last evening's Tribune. Later Louis Price found part of the trunk not far from where the leg was found. When Deputy Coroner Quellen went for the portion of the trunk found by Price he discovered a third piece near by. The body was that of a man and had been in the water at least a couple of weeks.

Coroner Baldwin is investigating the matter and the Police Department is giving the affair some attention, but the opinion prevails that nothing more than the dissection and subsequent sinking of a body has taken place.

"I think the body was dissected by some doctor or medical students," said Police Captain Wilson today, "and the parts thrown in the lake as the easiest means to dispose of them. They may have been thrown outside and washed in by the tide."

Another part of the body was found today and taken to the Morgue. It was the upper portion of the trunk and a part of the arm.

There are many wild stories going the rounds of dismembered portions of human bodies having been found on the platform of the crematory at Twenty-fourth and Peralta. One story is to the effect that a human heart had been picked up on the platform by a scavenger and another is that the foot of a negro was found.

The crematory people say that the only thing of the kind which has been reported to them was that there had been found three toes in a vial of alcohol, having come presumably from the laboratory of some physician.

RESTS IN MOUNTAIN VIEW

Honored in Life, Bartlett Morgan Is Mourned In Death.

Simple Obsequies of the Late Supervisor of Alameda County.

A county mourned for its honored dead today. The late ex-Supervisor Bartlett Morgan was buried from the family residence, 763 Eighth street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. County officials, prominent politicians and business men, together with many old personal friends, mourned for one who was well liked both in public and private life. During his lifetime he made many friends, and they united today in honoring the dead.

According to the wishes of the deceased, the funeral services were very simple. The simplicity added to the impressiveness of the scene.

The casket containing the remains of the deceased was placed in the library. It was open, permitting a view of the features of the dead man. Death had not marred the calm repose of the face, which was wonderfully lifelike.

The somber covering of the casket was concealed beneath a profusion of flowers. Lilies were placed on all sides, while the casket itself was buried in the midst of roses. At the foot of the casket stood a vacant chair of flowers, roses and smilax, the mournful token of the sorrow of Mr. and Mrs. Mullen, the nephew and niece of the deceased.

From the County Auditor's office came an exquisite wreath of yellow roses and ferns.

Mrs. Eddy sent a sickle of wheat and roses. Mrs. Allison sent a sheaf of wheat and bouquet of cut flowers. An exquisite casket spray of St. Joseph's lilies were placed on the casket by I. Tobriner. A broken pillar of violets was sent by Mrs. Wade, while Miss Gay sent a sheaf of wheat tied with broad purple satin ribbons.

There was no singing during the services. Rev. C. H. Hobart of the First Baptist Church offered a prayer for peace and comfort for the bereaved and then read selections from the Scriptures.

Mr. Hobart spoke of the life of the deceased, of his many kindnesses, his charity, and noble heartedness, pointing out how his life had been a source of joy and happiness to many.

The remains were taken to Mountain View Cemetery for interment at the conclusion of the services.

Prior to the commencement of the services, the Supervisors of Alameda County arrived in a body and paid a last tribute of respect to one who had shared their duties during his lifetime.

The pall bearers were: D. W. Standeford, Rod Church, J. J. Hamlin Sr., Robert Gay, P. A. Cox and Joseph E. Johnston.

Among the many present at the services were: Mr. and Mrs. Van Voorhes, S. J. Alden, Placerville; Katie Masten, Dixon; Miss Lucy Finnegan, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. James Cary, Joseph Johnston, Mrs. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Tobriner, Mrs. Davis, W. F. Ryan, Orren Mullen, Mrs. Dunlap, Wm. Merriman, Richard Potts, J. Elliott, Harry Denison, J. T. Bailey, Joe Marsh, B. M. Hines, B. Houghton, John Wade, Mrs. A. Allison, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Mulcahey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lynch, D. C. Brown, W. E. Dargie, A. H. Burnham, J. J. Hamlin, W. S. Palouze, J. R. Talcott, W. H. Church, J. W. Mitchell, Chas. Roeth, N. G. Sturtevant.

BEGGS ARRESTED.

R. C. Beggs, superintendent of the Contra Costa Laundry, was arrested today by Constable Koch on complaint of W. H. Mahoney on a charge of threatening his life. Mr. Beggs discharged Mahoney this morning and the superintendent asserts that Mahoney has caused his arrest for spite.

The trouble arose, it is alleged, over Beggs' having heard that Mahoney had circulated some stories of a serious nature about him which Mahoney denied.

Without a License.

Antone Ward, an East Oakland bartender, was arrested for selling liquor without a license. He is out of jail on a $100 bond.

The case against Lee Wing for selling Chinese lottery tickets, went over till Monday to allow the filing of a complaint.

Grazed on the Lawn.

Orvil Bennett, a free market peddler, was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Kate Meredith today and charged with allowing his horse to graze on her lawn on Ninth street, between Webster and Harrison.

SIMPLY SUSPENDED

The Smith Case Heard and Decided by the Commission.

FAIR'S CHARGES DISPOSED OF.

Testimony as to the Article Published in the "Tribune."

DISMISSAL IS DECLINED.

The Chemical Foreman Will Be Out for Ten More Days.

A municipal court-martial attracted a large attendance to the rooms of the Police and Fire Commissioners at 10 o'clock this morning. The occasion was the trial of Foreman W. B. Smith of the Fire Department for "insubordination by causing the publication of an article in the Evening Tribune of this city issued to the public on the evening of March 31st of this year, which article was detrimental to the discipline and welfare of the Fire Department of this city.

The charges were filed by Chief Fair a few days ago, so as to substantiate his action in suspending Smith on April 1st, the day after the article complained of in the Tribune.

In order to watch the effect of the struggle between the two aspirants for the head of the Fire service, a number of members of the department, some Councilmen and a sprinkling of politicians assembled today and awaited anxiously the commencement of the proceedings. Chief Fair was on hand in uniform, while Smith, who was in plain clothes, was accompanied by his attorneys, Emil Nusbaumer and Mortimer Smith.

Commissioners Clement and Thomas were first on the scene and took chairs at the table awaiting the arrival of City Attorney Dow, the president of the Board. Mr. Dow threw a bombshell into the camp directly he took his seat, for he announced that it had been decided that the Board would conduct all such cases in the Mayor's office, and that only members of the Board, such Councilmen as might be present, the attorneys in the case and members of the press could participate. This threw a damper on the lobby, for the Board immediately retired to an inner chamber.

When the Commissioners got ready for business the only persons present outside of the immediate participants were Councilmen Rowe and Heitmann. The charges had been read in the outer chamber, so there was no occasion for delay and Attorney Emil Nusbaumer set the ball rolling by moving that the charges be dismissed. He said that there was no testimony on which the Board could act as the article in the Tribune was not prima facie evidence. "If this matter is reprehensible for Smith it is the more so for Fair, as the head of the department," he said. "I am sorry that this matter has come up, for it is detrimental to the city. These troubles, of course, always exist. Firemen have their jealousies and passions the same as attorneys, but they should not be on the surface."

As there was no apparent inclination on the part of the Commissioners to make the dismissal desired, every one settled down to work. Mayor Thomas had a suggestion to offer. He insisted that the investigation should be strictly confined to the charges made. The Mayor also lamented that the matter should have got into print and remarked that it was impossible to get along without discipline.

Secretary Thomas now read the article in the Tribune complained of by Chief Fair and G. F. Hatton was the first witness called.

Hatton, on being sworn, testified that the first information he obtained as to the story published in the Tribune was during a walk up Broadway on the morning of the day it appeared. An article had been printed in the morning papers stating that Mayor Thomas and Commissioner Clement had held an over-night conference and had agreed to appoint Fred A. Campbell chief of the Fire Department. While Hatton was talking with Campbell a man unknown to him stopped and joined in the conversation, after which Hatton was asked if he had heard the story about the row between Chief Fair and Foreman Smith. On his replying in the negative he was told that the two men had quarreled and that during the row personal recriminations ensued and that there was a good story in it.

Hatton further testified that he had then in an endeavor to corroborate the story, called on Smith at the engine house and had obtained from him the story as related in the Tribune. He testified that he knew nothing of the details until he had conversed with Smith but had got some of the incidents in a general way.

Chief Fair asked the witness a few questions, and then cross-examination took place. There was no denial of the Tribune story and the queries brought forth nothing new.

Attorney Nusbaumer now moved again that the charges be dismissed on the ground that it had not been shown that Smith had caused the publication in the Tribune. His appeal was not granted, so he went on a new tack and asked that Chief Fair be sworn.

The questions put to the chief brought forth instant objections from Mr. Dow. Attorney Nusbaumer wanted to know if it was not a fact that the night before the article appeared in the Tribune Chief Fair had been spreading the story and had told it to Messrs. Jordan and Conners of the Examiner.

Dow objected to the questions on the ground that even if Fair had done so it had no bearing on the charge under investigation.

Nusbaumer replied that if permitted, he would show that Fair had preferred the charges against Smith through special malice and spite. Furthermore, that Fair had said he would "break" Smith and also that Fair had brought the charges so as to injure and nullify Smith's prospects of becoming the head of the Fire Department.

Dow, however, still refused to accept on his part, this line of testimony and when his ruling was announced Nusbaumer told him plainly, "I don't think it is fair."

Mayor Thomas now expressed himself. "If I were a foreman," he said, "and a chief made threats to break me I would prefer charges and present them to the Commissioners. In this case there was a storm brewing and it broke out."

Commissioner Clement said that as far as he was concerned he would like to hear all the testimony in the case.

Hatton was now asked whether if Smith had not given him the story it would have appeared in the Tribune. He replied that it would, for if he had not been able to obtain corroboration in that direction he would have endeavored to do so in other ways.

Attorney Nusbaumer now made some additional efforts to give evidence showing that the story had been spread about town by Chief Fair long before it had been given by Smith to the Tribune man, but President Dow said that that line of evidence would not figure anyhow, as the only thing to be decided was whether or not Smith had been guilty of insubordination.

Nusbaumer urged that as a matter of self-defense his client had the right to make statements in response to those circulated by Chief Fair, but as his argument still failed to reach Dow's heart he abandoned it. He then said that under the conditions it was impossible to present any more of the case in response to Fair's charges, and he therefore would simply state that it had not been shown in any way that Smith had "caused the publication in the Tribune."

"It would doubtless have been better for Smith to have told the reporters 'I have nothing to say,'" continued Mr. Nusbaumer, "but that was simply an error of judgment."

This ended the proceedings. John Rohan and John Fernando Conners, who had been subpoenaed were in attendance but were not required in view of the rulings by President Dow so the three Commissioners looked at each other and then announced that the case was taken under advisement.

THE DECISION.

The Commissioners then retired and deliberated for about twenty minutes, after which they went into session again and disposed of the case by suspending Smith for twenty days dating from April 1st.

THOMAS WINS THE SEAT

He Has a Plurality Over Davie of 87 Votes.

Futile Attempt to Have the Vote of Whole Precincts Thrown Out.

Ex-Mayor Davie's recount has fallen flat. Last night the ballots were practically all counted. Davie's grand total is 2,950 against 2,962 by the official returns—a loss of twelve votes; Thomas is given 3,018 as against 3,071 by the official figures, a loss of fifty-five votes. There yet remains in the reserve fifty-five ballots all for Thomas. These are being acted upon today.

The twelve reserved Davie ballots were thrown out this morning when Judge Hall sustained the objections of Attorney W. R. Davis. Of forty-three Thomas ballots disputed, twenty-two were allowed and twenty-one barred. There yet remain a few ballots to decide upon and testimony will be required from the election officers in the second and fourth precincts of the second ward, the first, second and third of the third ward; the second of the fifth and all of the seventh ward.

Late this afternoon it was announced that the corrected recount gave Davie 2,948 and Thomas 3,035, a plurality for the latter of 87.

This gave Thomas the seat.

Attorney De Golia then moved to have the vote in the ten precincts enumerated thrown out on the ground that the officers who had acted in them were not on the last assessment roll.

The court refused to grant the motion.

Mr. De Golia then moved to amend his motion, but counsel for the defendant objected, and the objection was sustained.

Mr. De Golia then sought to have the vote of two precincts of the Seventh Ward thrown out on the ground that the election officers had not opened them at the legal hour in the morning.

"SYCAMORE" IS DEAD.

Ex-Senator D. W. Voorhees of Indiana Expires in Washington.

END OF A SUCCESSFUL LIFE.

The Law-Maker Falls Weak and Helpless in His Son's Arms.

TAKEN OFF BY HEART DISEASE.

The Deceased at One Time Was a Great Democratic Leader.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Daniel Walsh Voorhees ex-United States Senator from the State of Indiana, died at 5 o'clock this morning at his home in this city.

The Senator had been in poor health for several years, and for at least two years past had taken little part in the proceedings in the Senate. He had been a constant sufferer from rheumatism of the heart and his friends therefore had come to expect that they might hear of his death suddenly.

The last reports of him, however, were that he was showing some signs of improvement, and his death therefore, while not entirely unexpected, came with the suddenness of a shock. At the time of his retirement from the Senate the "Tall Sycamore of the Wabash," as he was affectionately called by his followers in the Hoosier State, was the ranking Democrat on the Finance Committee, and by virtue of his position, the nominal leader at least of his party on the floor of the Senate on the tariff and financial questions.

He was not very active, however, owing to his ill health, in the work of the Wilson tariff bill.

In the repeal of the Sherman silver law the Hoosier Senator, however, took a very prominent part. It was his last important work in the Senate.

Voorhees' death was caused by an attack of angina pectoris. The Senator's health was so poor during the recent political campaign that he could not participate in it, but after his return to Washington in November he seemed to improve in health.

Two weeks ago his old rheumatic troubles returned, and three days ago he became more alarmingly ill, but the Senator did not confine himself to bed and his family felt no immediate alarm.

It was not, indeed, until half an hour before the final summons came that any one realized that death was near.

The Senator's son, Rees N. Voorhees, had remained in the room with his father during the night and was awakened about 4 o'clock this morning by his father, who was suffering great pain in the region of his heart.

He refused, however, to allow a physician to be called, saying that the pain would pass away.

Half an hour later he appeared much better and got out of bed to walk to the bath room, the son being with him.

When they reached the hallway, the Senator was attacked by a more severe spasm than he had yet experienced and fell in a semi-conscious condition into his son's arms.

The latter carried the dying man back to the bed and summoned Dr. Shoup. It was too late, however, for the ex-Senator soon passed away without regaining full consciousness.

His only son, Rees, his daughter, Miss Hallie Voorhees, and the physician were present when he died.

The remains will be taken to Terre Haute, Indiana, the Senator's home, for many years, for interment.

(Daniel W. Voorhees, the American jurist and statesman, was born in Butler County, Ohio, September 26, 1827, and in 1849 was graduated at what has, during later years, been known as "De Pauw University."

Upon his admission to the bar in 1851 he began the practice of law at Covington, Indiana, and soon established a reputation as a public speaker.

In 1858 he was appointed United States Attorney of Indiana, and during his official career proceeded to Harper's Ferry and appeared as counsel for John E. Cook, one of the John Brown band.

He was a member of Congress from 1861 to 1866, and again from 1869 to 1872, serving as a member of the more important committees.

In November, 1877, he became United States Senator from Indiana, vice Oliver P. Morton, deceased, and was elected to that body in 1879 and again in 1885. He enjoyed a national reputation as an orator and legislator.

He served later in the Senate, remaining in that body until about two years ago.

The deceased was well fixed in a financial sense, a competency being left to his family.)

THE EBELL ELECTION.

The retiring officers of the Ebell Society gave a luncheon yesterday to the members on the occasion of the annual election and business meeting. The following ladies were elected directors: Miss M. R. Babson, Mrs. J. C. Hays Jr., Mrs. G. W. Bunnell, Mrs. G. H. Burdick, Miss Jennie Huff, Mrs. Murrey L. Johnson, Mrs. Paul Lohse, Mrs. E. W. Owen and Mrs. H. B. Pinney. Of these Mrs. Hays, Miss Huff, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Lohse and Mrs. Pinney have never served before, and they will fill the vacancies caused by the retirement of Mesdames H. O. Trowbridge, R. P. Gleason, M. Matthews and L. G. Judd.

The directors will meet Monday to choose their officers. Mrs. Bunnell will probably be re-elected president and Miss Babson general curator.

THE DECREE OF JUDGE BAHRS

All Dilatory Motions Set Aside by the Court.

TO BE HANGED AT SAN QUENTIN

Steamboat Rates to Eureka and an Old Conductor Is Mangled.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—For the second time William Henry Theodore Durrant was this morning sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Blanche Lamont at the Emmanuel Church two years ago this month.

The sentence of death was pronounced by Superior Judge Bahrs in the presence of a crowd of spectators who packed the largest court room in the City Hall, many being unable to obtain admission.

The court sentenced Durrant to be hanged at San Quentin prison on June 11th.

The condemned man will be taken across the bay this afternoon by Sheriff Whelan, who will be glad to be relieved of the responsibility of guarding Durrant further.

He fears that Durrant will try to commit suicide when all hope of a new trial finally leaves him.

Attorney Deuprey for the defense moved to strike out from the court's order all reference to his (Durrant's) confinement in San Quentin.

The motion was denied.

Deuprey then filed a notice of his appeal from the order of the court and asked for a certificate of probable cause, which was denied.

Deuprey then asked for a delay of four hours that he might bring his application for a certificate of probable cause before the Supreme Court.

This also was denied.

Durrant was taken to San Quentin this afternoon.

CHEAP RATES TO EUREKA.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—Steamship competition has effected a decrease in the passenger rates between this city and Eureka. The opposition has been in operation only one month but the fight for business is now in earnest.

The original company in the field was Goodall, Perkins & Company, operating the steamer Pomona. The new steamer is the Humboldt. Today rates for the Pomona sailing from here next Wednesday are announced to be $7.50 for the upper deck, a reduction from $10. The salon deck rate is reduced to $5 from $7.50 and the steerage to $2.50 reduced from $5. It remains to be seen if the Humboldt will meet the cut.

A CONDUCTOR MANGLED.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CARSON, April 10.—A frightful accident happened in the V. & T. R. R. yards this morning. Wm. McCluen, one of the oldest conductors on the road, was crushed beneath the trucks of a car. While hanging down in front of a moving car, attempting to arrange a brake socket, he slipped and was dragged under the truck seventy-five feet. After passing under the truck he clutched two rods under the car and was pulled out. Both legs were amputated, and no hope is entertained of his recovery.

"BYKES" IN GRIEF.

Officer Wood Continues to Make Them Pay for Breaking the Law.

The result of the crusade of arrest against bykers who fail to dismount when passing pedestrians on the sidewalks, for the half day ending at noon, was as follows: M. J. Bowman, J. Nalin, Dr. Selfridge, G. Mau, Dan Conway, John Smith, E. O. Webb, H. H. Kirby, Mrs. A. Moore and Lewis Cast. While arresting the last named, who is a young attorney, Officer Wood was thrown from his wheel and his back was badly sprained.

Cast was going along at a pretty fair rate of speed when the officer dashed up behind him and caught hold of his shoulder. Both officer and attorney took tumbles, but the latter escaped unhurt.

A COUNTER INVASION PLANNED.

The Terrible Turk to Ravage Fair Fields of Greece.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ATHENS, April 10.—A dispatch from Larissa gives the details of the invasion of Macedonia by a force of irregular Greek troops. Three thousand men, it is announced, crossed the frontier on Wednesday. The expedition was commanded by ex-officers of the regular army of Greece and includes a band of Italian volunteers commanded by Colonel Ciprani. All the Greeks were well armed and had been equipped at the expense of Tsbulke Hetairia, the Greek secret society, which has been the root and the branch of the present crisis, practically controlling the country. They were given an enthusiastic send-off by Thessalians and the Greek troops. The latter made no attempt to prevent their departure.

It cannot be claimed that the movement was unknown to the Greek authorities. Two Greek flags were solemnly entrusted to the insurrgents and good arrangements had been made for forwarding food and supplies.

The news of the invasion caused the most intense excitement here. A dispatch from Arta, dated 11 o'clock last night, announces that Admiral Kriesis had assumed command of the Greek squadron in the Gulf of Ambracia.

A telegraph line between here and Janina, the headquarters of the Turkish army stationed to meet if possible the advance of the Greeks from Arta has been cut but the service continues via Monastari.

The Greek irregulars crossed the frontier in the night time and surprised and burned four Turkish outpost stations. The Turkish troops are advancing toward the point of attack from Diskata, Pepilo and Metzovo.

ELASSONA, April 10.—Edhem Pasha, the commander-in-chief of the Turkish army received orders from Constantinople to cross the frontier into Greece with his forces. The ceremony, which was impressive, though very simple, and which was attended only by the two witnesses, was performed by Rev. Dr. R. F. Coyle. Mrs. R. F. Coyle and Thomas F. Sanford officiated as witnesses. The newly married couple departed on the 2:15 o'clock train for Santa Cruz.

Teachers Meet to Profit by the Annuity Act.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM PREVAILS.

Speeches by Profs. Fisher, McClymonds and Others.

ANNUAL ELECTIONS OPPOSED.

Committees to Be Appointed at a Meeting Two Weeks Hence.

The Alameda County Teachers' Benefit Association met this morning in the High School and held an important meeting in relation to the teachers' annuity act recently passed by the State Legislature.

President P. M. Fisher presided. Consideration of the proposed amendments of the constitution of the association was postponed until the next meeting, with one exception, the amendment reducing the annual dues from $2 to 50 cents, which was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The following vote of thanks was tendered to the Alameda County members of the State Legislature:

"Resolved, That the Alameda County Teachers' Benefit Association offer a vote of thanks to Senators Beard, Denison and Stratton, and Assemblymen Wright, Clark, Waymire and Breiling for their valuable assistance in securing the passage of the teachers' annuity act during the last session of the Legislature."

A motion tendering thanks to P. M. Fisher, Miss French and other members of the association who had worked for the successful passage of the bill was enthusiastically passed.

State Senator F. S. Stratton, who was invited to be present and address the teachers on the features of the teachers' annuity bill, was prevented from attending. The following letter was read from him:

STRATTON'S LETTER.

"Oakland, April 9, 1897.—P. M. Fisher, Esq., room 23, O. H. S. building, Oakland. Dear Mr. Fisher: I regret my inability to be present at the meeting of teachers and to address you relative to the Jones annuity law. I gave my cordial support to this measure in the Senate of the State Legislative session just closed, and did so because I deemed the pending bill a most meritorious one, and further for the reason that it had the almost unanimous advocacy of teachers all over California, and particularly from Alameda County. This law was thoroughly debated in both branches of the Legislature and reflects the will of the people. I hope upon all grounds that the teachers for whose benefit it was designed will earnestly co-operate in making its permissive provisions operative, and will, upon their part, embrace fully the opportunities presented by this law. Very truly yours, F. S. STRATTON."

President P. M. Fisher spoke of the advisability of appointing a committee to collect data in regard to teachers' tenure of office.

"We want to make this association a strong one," said he, "and to do so we must stand together and work for the same end. If the association is worth anything it will take action in regard to a statement made recently by a member of the Board of Education, who said that the city charter provides that all teachers be elected annually."

DIRECTOR MISTAKEN.

"The Director who said that is mistaken," declared Secretary McClymonds of the Board of Education. This announcement was received with applause.

"We must, however, see to it that no teacher is dropped without just cause," continued Mr. Fisher. "We have little to fear now, perhaps, as we have one of the best Boards of Education in this city that was ever elected anywhere in the State. Still, it is perhaps advisable to have a committee appointed to look into the question of tenure of office. The present time is propitious for civil service regulation."

A resolution was adopted authorizing the chairman to appoint a committee of seven for this purpose.

T. A. McCarthy, principal of the Washington High School of San Francisco, who was one of the most energetic workers for the passage of the annuity bill, was introduced and explained many of the features of the bill, taking the clauses up one by one.

He stated that in San Francisco 712 teachers had already organized a society in accordance with the provisions of the bill.

Secretary McClymonds was asked to address the teachers in regard to the bill.

McCLYMONDS TALKS.

"I want to say," he said, "that I hope the teachers will take legal advice concerning the provisions of the bill in order to be safe. I think the bill good and drawn up with care, and can be read and interpreted with ease. I do not think it to the interest of teachers to ask the public to contribute to the fund, at least not until it has been thoroughly discussed in the public prints. I think public sentiment is opposed to pensioning teachers. The minute the public pays into the fund, it means a pension, but when we pay, it's an annuity. Under the bill the teacher gets what we pay the substitute. In San Francisco a teacher receives on the average $79 a month, and a substitute, only $40, so the department saves about half the salary by taking advantage of the teachers' misfortune. I should favor that if the department saves anything by a teacher's absence it should go to the annuity fund."

PROF. GARLICK.

Mr. Garlick spoke in favor of the bill, expressing his sympathy with its provisions. He said that he was anxious to have the country teachers notified of the bill, its provisions, etc., and made a motion that a committee of five be appointed, Mr. Fisher to be chairman, to frame an appeal to the country teachers.

Mr. Fisher suggested that another meeting be held two weeks from today, at 10 o'clock, when an organization should be effected under the provisions of the bill.

Prof. McChesney and Miss French made short speeches in regard to various provisions of the measure.

Mr. McCarthy recommended that the organization be by schools, which would prevent confusion, also that duplicates be made of the names of members in each organization. He assured the teachers of the legality of such a method. The motion to appoint a committee was then voted on and carried.

After a vote of thanks had been tendered to Professor McCarthy the meeting adjourned.

Among the 125 teachers present at the meeting were the following: Prof. McChesney of the High School, Secretary McClymonds of the Board of Education, County Superintendent Garlick, P. M. Fisher, Miss Wythe, Principal Dunbar, Miss Frank, County Superintendent Garlick, Principal Young of Alameda, Miss McNeeley, Miss Lisson, Mr. McCarthy of San Francisco, Miss French, Mr. Young, Miss Cooke, Miss Keefer, Miss Duran, Miss Mullen, Miss Hilton, Miss Larkin, Miss Stuart, Mr. Garlick, Mr. Dunbar, Miss Madden, Mr. Garvin, Miss McFarland, Miss Byrod, Mr. Sullivan, Miss Powell, Mrs. Hawkins, Miss Wythe, Miss French, Mrs. Campbell, Miss O'Meara, Miss Leet, Miss Cook, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Washburn, Miss Morris, Miss Gilmore, Miss Fibush, Mr. Gilson, Miss Kimbal, Miss McFeely, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Kingman, Miss Zable, Mr. Young, Miss Bradbury, Mrs. Ellis and Miss Brown.

Captain Wethern Retires From Captaincy of Co. F.

A Position on the Division Staff Causes His Retirement.

Captain Wethern has handed in his resignation as captain of Company F, Fifth Regiment, N. G. C.

The resignation was somewhat of a surprise, and is rendered necessary because of the acceptance of the captain of a commission as major on the Division Staff of the National Guard.

Captain Wethern has been in the service nine years, and has been captain of Company F about half that time.

There is a new fight going on among those who are anxious to succeed him, but no one so far seems to have a sure thing.

The rules of the company permit the election of any one, whether in the regiment or not, who after election can qualify.

Lieutenant Cobbledick and Second Lieutenant Wenk are both anxious to be elected to the vacated place, but there is a strong sentiment in favor of Major Hayes.

It is stated that he could be elected, if he would signify his intention to accept.

EXPENSE TO DECIDE.

Electricity May Be Used on Local Broad-Gauge Lines.

ENGINEERS ARE NOW FIGURING

C.P. Huntington Will Make the Change If Reports Be Favorable.

IS ALREADY ADOPTED EAST.

Would Naturally Change the Status of Seventh Street.

No less an authority than President C. P. Huntington of the Southern Pacific Company states that if the local ferry lines can be operated more cheaply with electricity than by steam the change will be made.

For the past four years the question has been mooted and at various times rumors have been given currency that the change was contemplated, but it is now known that the matter is in the hands of the railroad engineers and that their reports will finally determine the matter one way or the other. There are about 17,000,000 people annually carried over the ferries of the company, and a majority of them are those who travel by the broad gauge line, which has forty miles of track between Oakland and Fruitvale, Alameda and Berkeley. Mr. Huntington is of the opinion that an electric system can be maintained at less cost than the present system.

"We have to keep up with the improvements of the times," said Mr. Huntington yesterday. 'Electricity as a motive power is now a great factor in city and suburban travel, and I think we will find a way soon to use it for the Southern Pacific's suburban passenger travel. When we get ready for electric cars, we will put them on the broad gauge ferry lines. I have had engineers busy for some time past preparing a report on the proposition. When it is ready I can talk more intelligently than at present. If electricity is cheaper than steam the latter will have to take a back seat. Steam is cheaper now for the handling of the general business of the railroads, but I will not be surprised if electricity is eventually used altogether as the motive power for railway transportation.

"As to the economy of using electricity for railroad suburban travel, I am inclined to give a favorable answer as far as I have investigated the subject. Experiments are being repeatedly made in various parts of the country, and the proposition will soon be settled. Getting things down to the lowest minimum of cost is one of the essential conditions for success in the industrial world generally, and this fact is especially true in the successful handling of traffic by railroads. We shall try electric cars on the broad gauge ferry lines one of these days, for our own satisfaction, in determining the cost and efficiency of the service, provided our engineers do not report unfavorably on the proposition."

"The present tracks can be used for electric cars, which, if adopted, would probably be propelled by motors, instead of the overhead trolley system.

"Six, seven or ten electric cars may make a train, the speed of which would depend solely on the strength of the current. It is not proposed to use the electric cars for freight or for aught but ferry traffic."

THE STUDENTS CO-OPERATE

Officers Are Elected by the Organization for Next Year.

How Diamonds Are Manufactured at the University of California.

BERKELEY, April 10.—A large crowd of organized rooters went over to cheer on the representatives of the blue and gold in their first baseball game with Stanford at Central Park. The team as decided on consists of Sykes and Kaarsbub pitcher, Wilson catcher, Hennessey first base, Elston second base, Krug third base, McClaren shortstop, Hoag left field, Kaarsberg center and Hall right. An excellent batting game was promised by both teams.

The Students Co-operative Association of the University met yesterday afternoon and elected officers for next term. Ralph Marshall was re-elected manager, Professor Haskell president and George Clark secretary. The Commercial Bank will have charge of the funds. The Board of Directors consists of Professor Haskell, Professor Plehn, George Clark, Edward T. Clark, Ralph Marshall and William Mein.

The nominations were all made by McWade, '97, and these nominations were immediately closed, with only one candidate for each office. There is a great deal of dissatisfaction, and talk of "slates" in connection with the affair. Some who wished to be candidates were unable to have their names proposed, on account of the high handed way in which the election was carried on. The Occident will have something to say of the matter in its next issue.

Prof. Felix Langfeld of the University of Chicago, who has just spent six months in the laboratory of Moisau, the famous Parisian chemist, lectured before a large audience yesterday in the chemistry building, on the manufacture of diamonds.

Small furnaces of carbon are heated to 3,500 degrees Centigrade by an electric current of low voltage, but of 1,100 amperes. The operation is very dangerous, and one furnace can be used only two or three times. About two pounds of pure iron is put in the furnace, with the same volume of pure carbon, procured by treating sugar with sulphuric acid. The furnace is heated for ten minutes and then allowed to cool, and among the new chemical compounds are found very small diamonds, weighing only a few milligrams. The experiment is dangerous on account of poisonous gases, but is extremely interesting as an experiment.

The graduate, medical and law departments are each entitled to a speaker, and will select them soon. The medallist will be announced during the exercises. So far Miss Grace Cope, Charles Elston and Frank Tade are thought to be leading in the race. Miss Cope is a graduate of the Oakland High School. The exercises will be in charge of President Kellogg, Professor Howison, Professor Setchell and Professor Bradley. Admission will probably be by invitations, distributed by the members of the class.

The recent discovery that only electors may hold office in Berkeley is having more widespread effects than had been imagined. The candidates for Library Trustees on the Prohibition ticket are all ladies, and as such are not eligible to office, and will be dropped from the ballot. The candidates were Mrs. Ruth Armstrong, Mrs. S. Haight, Miss H. M. Conners, Mrs. A. W. Naylor and Mrs. Mary Smith.

The Ecclesia Debating Society of the Berkeley High School has elected the following officers: Miss Nellie Hamlin president, Miss E. Trowbridge vice president, Miss Bertha Vervalin treasurer and Miss H. Frieuler secretary.

Union services were held in the West Berkeley Presbyterian Church last night. Dr. Stratton, Prof. Bailey and B. D. Woods spoke on "Christian Service."

The Oakland High School Debating Society held its final preliminaries yesterday. The speakers who will go against Berkeley, and the order of their speaking, are as follows: Ralph Fisher, Jewett Earle and Ben Reed. Clarence Creed was chosen as substitute.

The residence of M. Cohen of Peralta Park was burned yesterday morning. The damage is estimated at $1,325, covered by insurance.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Oakland District Societies Are to Assemble at Stockton.

The Epworth Leagues of the Oakland District Methodist Episcopal Church will hold their third annual session in the Central M. E. Church, Stockton, April 13th and 14th.

The convention opens at 9 A. M. Tuesday and closes Wednesday at 5 P. M.

An interesting programme has been arranged, discussing the following and other subjects: "Street Meetings," "Relation of the League to the Sunday School," "Books That Influenced Me," "Junior Work," "The Finances," "The Shut-ins," "Conversions," "Missions."

In addition to these subjects, Rev. Joseph F. Berry, D. D., of Chicago, editor of the Epworth Herald, will be present and give round tables on the following subjects: "The Literary Spoke," "Young People and Entertainment," "That President of Ours," "The Devotional Meeting and Its Leader." Dr. Berry will also conduct a question drawer, which in itself will prove interesting and helpful. The convention will close with a Pentecostal service conducted by Mrs. Emily McCargar of this city.

Large delegations are going from the societies of Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley.

These delegates will take the 5 P. M. boat at Clay street wharf, San Francisco, Monday evening, April 12th.

Fare, including berth, for the round trip, $1. Special terms will be made at Stockton's best hotels to those attending the convention.

Members of other young people's societies are cordially invited to accompany them and enjoy both the steamer excursion and the convention.

A ROAD ON THE SUMMIT

The Proposed Route Will Be Looked Into Tomorrow.

Certainty of Another Driveway Over the Contra Costa Hills.

The Merchants' Exchange is determined, if possible, to have a fine boulevard that shall connect the Claremont road with the Thorn hill road and extend into the Moraga valley.

To carry out this project it will be necessary for the new portion of the road to pass through the property of the Adams' estate and it has been stated that an effort will be made to secure a right of way from the estate.

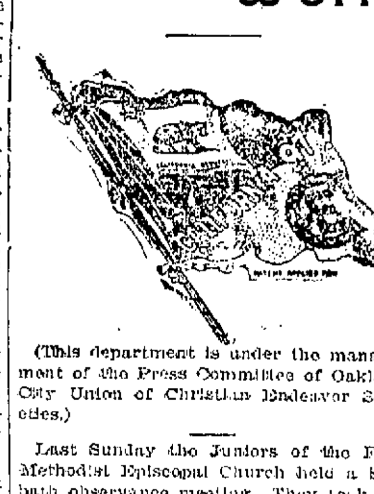

"All I know about the matter is what I have read in the newspapers," said Edson Adams this morning. "I do not, at present understand the proposition, although I have a general idea of the plans. I would like to have the matter placed before me in detail by the men who have the affair in hand. Some years ago a plan was submitted to us and a proposition made but that was not carried out and I cannot tell just now what may be done."

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the Merchants' Exchange will take an excursion from their headquarters over the proposed route. They have sent out many invitations and plenty of carriages will be on hand.

The members of the Exchange are satisfied that Mr. Adams will oppose no obstacle to the running of the road through his property, especially where they will be able to assure him that the road will "run somewhere" instead of stopping abruptly on the side of some hill. It is the intention of the Exchange to make the road "run somewhere." In this respect, they are in accord with Mr. Adams and are confident that they will be able to convince him of the fact.

Christian Endeavor Work.

(This department is under the management of the Press Committee of Oakland City Union of Christian Endeavor Societies.)

Last Sunday the Juniors of the First Methodist Episcopal Church held a Sabbath observance meeting. They took the fourth commandment for the scripture lesson and the meeting was led by one of the Juniors. He read the lesson and then called for other scripture verses about keeping the Sabbath and then asked questions about the abuse of the day. The boys and girls responded without hesitation and were all so interested that when the Superintendent suggested that they elect a Lord's Day committee they immediately elected their officers, with the Vice President for chairman, as their committee.

The meeting closed with a very interesting exercise. Twenty Juniors, twelve boys and eight girls, received little Christian Endeavor pins as rewards for attendance, without one tardiness, at every meeting of the society for three months, unless excused on account of sickness.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Presbyterian Church held its semi-annual election on March 31.

The officers to serve for the coming six months are, President, P. E. Gibson, (re-elected); Vice President, Miss Julia Fraser; Recording Secretary, Mr. W. W. Jenkins; Treasurer, Miss Anna Helmbold (re-elected); and Miss M. E. Raymond is Corresponding Secretary. The office of corresponding secretary is always permanent or as nearly so as possible.

The wideawake '97 committee of the Volunteer Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church has planned to present, on every meeting night for the next three months, some item of interest pertaining to the '97 Convention or the preparation being made for that gathering. Tomorrow evening, the new song, "Golden Poppies," composed for the Convention, will be sung by the Volunteer quartette. Although originally written as a solo, it has been rearranged for this quartette and the arrangement is even more effective than the original.

This society has just completed the first six months of its existence. Starting with a membership of 39, it now numbers nearly 60. It has raised $142 for Christian Endeavor and missionary work since its organization.

Dr. Wilbur F. Crafts, of the Reform Bureau at Washington, writes that California is leading all the States in the number of Lord's Day committees organized, sixty-three being already reported, but that Pennsylvania is likely to more than match its record by the local closing of several postoffices, for each of which one hundred credits is allowed.

Topics for Sunday, April 18.—An Easter lesson. Different kinds of death and the conquest of them. I Cor. 15:50-58.

These thoughts were written by Mr. W. T. Ellis and the questions by A. R. Wells, who write for the host of Endeavorers the world over.

"The death that is called indifference, and that makes men listlessly live their lives without aim or object, should be conquered for the Christian by the serving Lord who has given to every man his work. We cannot be imitators of Christ without having our lives filled with a tremendous and overmastering purpose.

To sin is death. Transgression earns the grave. The sinner is condemned. But, matchless grace! over this death, this grave, this condemnation, Jesus Christ has got the victory, and has given full and free life to him who merited nothing but destruction. Through Christ and in him we live, having passed from death unto life.

Unbelief died at the resurrection. Because Christ has risen, then is our hope not in vain. That open tomb and living Lord incontestably declare to all men in all ages that Jesus is the very Son of God." WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

LEACH AT WASHINGTON.

He Declares That His Visit Is Regardless of Politics.

A dispatch from Washington dated last evening says:

"Frank A. Leach arrived in the city tonight with his wife, and was the guest of Congressman Hilborn, who today returned from Boston, where he had gone to witness the trial trip of the new battleship Iowa. Mr. Leach said his visit was entirely on private business, and had no relation whatever to politics. Members of the California delegation say there is no possible reason to believe the delegation will alter its action in regard to its endorsement of Mr. Leach for Superintendent of the Mint. None of them have received any information of the reported visit of Eli Denison, who is also after the place.

"Congressman Hilborn denies that he is making any effort whatever to secure the District Judgeship, or that he would accept the position if offered to him.

FIGHTING DISEASE.

Why All Physicians Should Report on Malignant Ailments.

A NEW ORDINANCE PROPOSED.

How an Epidemic of Smallpox Was Happily Averted.

CHINESE CLOTHES SPRAYING.

A Variety of Subjects Before the Board of Health.

"Many cases are mistaken for chicken pox, when they are something else. Not three weeks ago, I was called to Temescal to treat a child with the chicken pox. It was only through the intervention of the Lord that the whole community was not stricken, for the child was suffering with the most malignant form of that dread disease, small pox. I found the child covered with the black scabs of small pox and yet, the poor family thought it was but an ordinary case of chicken pox."

Thus spoke Dr. Small at the meeting of the Board of Health last evening and his words caused his listeners to shudder.

It was while the Board was considering an ordinance to be recommended to the Council amending the ordinance requiring the reporting of cases of sickness to the Board of Health.

The ordinance is as follows, the amendment being the addition of the names of diseases—mumps, measles and chicken pox:

"Every physician in the city of Oakland shall immediately report to the health office in writing, every patient he shall have sick of typhus, or ship fever, yellow fever, Asiatic cholera, small pox, diphtheria, scarlatina, typhoid fever, malarial fever, mumps, or measles and chicken pox and shall report to the health office every death from such disease immediately after it shall have occurred.

"Every householder in the city of Oakland shall forwith report in writing to the health office the name of every inmate of his or her house, whom he or she shall have reason to believe sick of typhus or ship fever, yellow fever, Asiatic cholera, small pox, diphtheria, scarlatina, typhoid fever or malaria fever, mumps or measles, chicken pox and any death occuring at his or her house from such disease."

An objection had been made to the amendment that the minor terms were useless.

POPULAR MISTAKE.

"I'll never agree with the popular idea that everyone must have the measles," said Dr. Chamberlain. "People seem to think that as long as we must have measles some time it is better to have them while young. I think by making a strong effort measles could eventually be eradicated."

The ordinance will be recommended to the Council.

The meeting lasted for over two hours and a half and was one of the most important ones held this year. Dr. Mrs. Shuey was in the chair and there were present, Drs Small, Chamberlain and Larkey. Secretary Schaffer read the minutes of the previous meeting and then Health Officer Bradley read his quarterly report. It was as follows:

DR. BRADLEY'S REPORT.

"The nuisance complained of on the lot of J. C. Quinn was abated a few days ago by pumping out the stagnant water. Since then the pond has again filled nearly up to where it was before and no doubt will soon have to be abated again.

"The nuisance complained of on the Clement property (or Tompkins pond, so called,) has not yet been abated, but we still hope to accomplish its abatement although we were beaten in our first attempt in court.

"The Dameron property, consisting of the pickle factory and the Chinese lodging house have been put in fair condition.

"Numbers 357, 352½ and 353 Eighth street have been put in fair condition.

"Our resolution asking the Board of Education to make a rule that each teacher keep a record of children absent on account of sickness, the kind of sickness and report to the health officer in his quarterly inspection was denied.

"The engine house, No. 4, has been repaired and put into good sanitary condition. Manhattan Engine House, No. 5, has been put into fair sanitary condition.

"The city prison has been quite thoroughly overhauled and repaired and is in good condition except as to coldness and dampness.

"Some repairs have been made in hose company house, No 3, and everything put into good condition except as to the roof water.

"The West Oakland free reading room has had a new tank put in since my last inspection.

"A new house has been built for engine company, No 2, and hook and ladder No. 1, on Sixth street and it seems to be all right inside as to sanitary conditions, but is not yet occupied.

"There has been considerable satisfactory plumbing done in the county jail within the last two months and more is being done. The condemned cell is in good condition The United States corridor is now in pretty good condition. The condition of the grand jury corridor has been improved The dark closet in Chabot Observatory has been ventilated.

"I recommend that this honorable Board ask the City Council to empower the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners to make the following repairs and improvements To repair the connections in the sink in engine house No. 1, to conform to the sanitary rules of this city and to place the drains of the horsestalls in such condition that they may be safely flushed, and to provide a means by which storm water may be prevented from running through the grates in the alley into the basement of this engine house, to supply the sink in hook and ladder house No. 3, with a proper wastepipe and connections and to do proper plumbing in engine house No. 3, and to close the sewer in the rear of this house; to arrange so that no roof water shall hereafter run under hose company house No 3, either from its own roof or that of the houses next to it; to vent the trap of the plumbing in Engine house No. 6 and to fix the water trough by giving its waste pipe proper connections; to provide the hoppers outside of chemical engine house No 3, with suitable bell traps and repair two open rain water leaders and fix the wash at the back of the building so that the water shall run into the sewer instead of under the building, to replace the old, defective closet of chemical engine house No. 1 and to put in proper trap and hopper at the back of the building

"I recommend that the Board of Free Library Trustees be requested to make repairs and improvements as follows To vent the trap of the wash basin in the back room of the first floor of the library building, because said trap is a constant source of danger

"I recommend that the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County, be requested to make repairs and improvements as follows To see that the trap under the kitchen sink of the Receiving Hospital is put into a proper sanitary condition as to its connection and that the trap of basin in the operating room is fixed so that it will not leak and that the rain water leaders outside of said hospital have their joints made tight; to have the sanitary condition of the Hall of Records be improved; to have the hopper between the old and new buildings kept clean so that they may convey the storm water, if possible, during severe storms, to the sewer, to have the old foul, disease-breeding matting removed from the floor of the jury room of department 4 of the County Court House and from the hall between court room and jury room of department 3; place properly vented traps under the wash basin in department 3; to repair the joints of rain water leaders in the Court House."

The report then calls attention to the Smead system of heating and recommends that the Board of Education insist that the persons responsible for the heaters shall have them so regulated as to give a uniform amount of heat. The report criticises the Smead heater and refers to the dissatisfaction felt toward that system by other cities.

Dr. Shuey recommended that the windows of the free reading rooms be thrown open daily and the rooms aired.

Dr. Small recommended that the Health Officer be empowered to placard the premises at 830 Webster street, and it was so ordered.

Dr. Bradley reported that a house at Twelfth and Alice streets had a cellar which was half full of seepage water, but no action was taken in the matter

"I never saw a cellar here filled with water," remarked Dr. Larkey.

"I've seen them filled with something stronger than water," said Dr. Small

The following proposed ordinance was recommended to the Council for passage:

ORDINANCES ON DISEASES.

"Whenever any case of small pox, diphtheria, scarlatina, Asiatic cholera or other contagious disease has existed in any building or other place within the city of Oakland, it shall be the duty of the householder or proprietor of such place, or, if such place has ceased to be occupied, then of the owner thereof to immediately and thoroughly fumigate and disinfect said premises in the manner and to such extent as the health department may direct"

Sanitary Inspector Smith's report was then read, the same as has already been printed in these columns.

CHINESE SPRAYING OF CLOTHES.

Dr Chamberlain brought up the matter of the Chinese method of spraying clothes with their mouths. He moved that the necessary prohibitory ordinance be drawn and presented to the City Attorney for legal examination and be recommended to the Council for passage.

Dr. Larkey wished to have embodied in the ordinance a clause regulating the care of laundries. He said he had seen Chinamen in laundry houses sleeping upon the laundered clothes. "If any of you will visit the Chinese laundries," he said, "you will see the same thing. They take an especial delight in sleeping upon the ironed sheets. I think our Health Officer should draw up such an ordinance"

"I'm not in the habit of visiting Chinese houses, myself," remarked Dr. Small.

"Wouldn't it be well," asked Dr. Shuey, "to designate what the proper care of a laundry is?"

"You ought first to know just what you want," said Dr. Bradley before I commence to draw up the ordinance. If I'd been getting up the spit ordinance it would not have suited Dr. Larkey"

"I think the Health Officer should make a special inspection of all the Chinese houses," said Dr. Bradley, "and then put in the ordinance what he considered necessary."

"Yes, correct any abuses he may find," added Dr Small.

Dr Bradley looked disheartened but kept his own counsel for the time being.

"I think we ought to have a report on the question, anyway, said Dr. Larkey.

"Well, if the doctor feels fresh," said Dr. Bradley, "there are twenty or thirty pages of my quarterly report which I left out, but which I would just as soon read"

No one seemed anxious to hear the unread pages, however

"This is really a very serious question," said Dr. Chamberlain. "I understand that certain constitutional diseases are prevalent among the class of Chinese we have here and this is a very easy way to transmit disease, as you will all admit. A great many of our families will send their clothes to Chinese laundries. It is horrible to think of subjecting innocent little children to this disease, and I think some action should be taken. The best thing to do would be to run them out of town, of course, but we can hardly do that This is more serious than we might imagine. I have seen them spraying clothes with their mouths."

"Spray bread sometimes that way," casually remarked Dr Larkey

MOVE THEM FROM TOWN.

"Look here," said Health Officer Bradley, "I have an idea of my own in this matter They ought not to be allowed in the center of the city. They should have a quarter of their own. Those foul rookeries in the heart of the city are a blot that should be removed. It is a good thing to be brought to the attention of the Council."

"The regulation of the laundry," said Dr Small, "is one of the most important things the city of Oakland will have to do. Two-thirds of our washing is done by Celestials and we know that constitutional diseases are prevalent among them."

"I have in mind a case," said Dr. Shuey, "that could be traced to no other source. It was a very serious one, indeed"

Health Officer Bradley will draw up an ordinance touching the measure,

An ordinance was recommended for passage to the Council, which requires the connection of stables, public or private, with the sewers.

City Veterinarian Pierce reported in regard to Jacob Weil the free market butcher, who was lately arrested for selling diseased meat The terribly diseased condition of the meat was described and a portion showing unmistakable signs of tuberculosis was exhibited Dr. Pierce explained that he had had Weil arrested time out of mind, but that it had no effect on him, as he did not seem to care about paying a fine. The Judge and attorneys, he said, and public at large thought he was persecuting the old fellow

Dr. Small said the veterinarian must do his duty in spite of public opinion and Dr Pierce said he had no idea of doing otherwise. Dr. Shuey thought Weil sold the meat so low that the poor bought, disease or no disease and she thought the fellow ought to be advertised. It was explained to her that Weil had had a great deal of advertising

City Veterinarian Pierce also reported that he had inspected twelve dairies with a total of 413 cows, three of which were suffering from tuberculosis and were killed. Of sixteen samples of milk gathered from wagons all were above the required standard.

Assistant Sanitary Inspector Ott reported Premises inspected as nuisances, 10; re-inspections made, 7; nuisances, 5, nuisances in course of abatement, 5; complaints without cause; number of feet of side sewers inspected 2,410.

Dr. Larkey introduced the matter of interment of remains. He said that deceased bodies might be kept in Oakland indefinitely and he thought some ordinance should be enacted as is in effect in San Francisco, compelling remains to be buried within five days after death.

The secretary was directed to look the matter up to see if in San Francisco there was no provision for dissecting clubs.

TUBERCULIN TEST.

The following letter, prepared by City Veterinarian Pierce, was ordered sent to the various Health Boards and Health Officers in the county:

"Knowing as we do that tuberculosis is an infectious disease and can so easily be transmitted to the human being through the medium of our milk and meat supply, and that it exists to an alarming extent in our dairy cows, and believing that the tuberculin test is the only reliable and practical method whereby we can absolutely rid the country from bovine tuberculosis, and realizing that our respective cities are depending upon our Boards of Health to regulate and control all measures regarding sanitation, we believe that it becomes our duty to demand that all dairy cows be subjected to the tuberculin test and all those found to be suffering with tuberculosis killed, and that it be made a general law of Alameda County as it is being done in several counties of the State. For instance Santa Clara County has already tested nearly 4,000 cows, Monterey 2,000 and Sacramento 2,000"

Dr Shuey announced that it was the last meeting of her presidency as her year expired on May 1st. She thanked the Board for its courtesy toward her and said she felt assured that if the Board could have accomplished what it had tried to accomplish Oakland would be the most healthful city in the world.

Dr. Small thanked Dr. Shuey for her courtesy toward the members of the Board and for her just rulings during the year and the meeting was adjourned.

A new president will be elected at the next meeting, the second Friday in May.

More "coals from Newcastle." New Orleans has just imported a cargo of 3,100 tons of sugar from Egypt.

The gobble song ought to be an appropriate melody for the concert of the Powers, especially as Turkey is interested.

It looks as if Hunter will get the Kentucky Senatorship after all. He was within one vote of it at yesterday's ballot.

Sutro is having bad luck with his street car line. Another accident yesterday has piled up a lot more damage suits on his hands.

The play of "Much Ado About Nothing" has just been enacted at the Court House. Ex-Mayor Davie only gained five votes on the recount.

A young woman has sold her middle finger to a surgeon for $1,000. The price of humanity has evidently advanced far beyond being worth one's weight in gold.

Portland, Oregon, is progressing backwards. It has returned to redwood sidewalks. After the record of the Salem Legislature anything would be in order.

Married men always keep in touch with the penitential close of Lent. They are abnormally sad this year. Easter hats are unusually high both as to inches and price.

A wildcat was seen on the streets of Pomona the other day, almost in the heart of the city. Pomona is a prohibition town, but in our opinion snakes are preferable to wildcats.

Last evening's papers contained a story of a wreck, and it was headed "Struck an Iceberg." About 50,000 people on this side of the bay wished they had been passengers on that ship.

They are going to pray all day for rain in Australia on April 16th. If Butler knew of it, he would doubtless chip in and pray for the rain to come so hard that the deluge would be repeated.

A new way of becoming a millionaire is to insure your life for that amount. Mrs. Stanford has just established a precedent. It only costs $170,000 a year for premiums, so no one should hesitate about following suit.

Col. Finigan is doing his best to popularize prison life, and if half he says about his experiences in the San Rafael Jail are true, the institution should have a good summer patronage this season. The hotels will have to look to their laurels.

Who said San Francisco had any get up about her? At the eleventh hour she has abandoned her proposed carnival. Now is Oakland's chance to jump in and hold it instead. It would, under the circumstances, be the biggest card possible for this city.

It has been discovered that the three years' progeny of a pair of rats, under favorable circumstances, will number 1,000. It is to be hoped that conditions on the water front are not favorable, or San Francisco will soon have to change her name to Hamelin.

"That man is in most danger who knows exactly what his constitution will bear, and sins up to it," says an exchange. This sounds like good philosophy, but the danger is that a man don't know how much his constitution will bear till he has sinned past it.

A supposed corpse emulated the celebrated Pat Malone at San Mateo yesterday and "forgot that it was dead." Just as the jury was figuring on what verdict to return, the subject sat up and took a hand in the deliberations. That rather beats the record of going to one's own funeral.

A farmer from way back thinks the funniest joke he has ever read is this. "Select eggs of uniform size for hatching, especially if you use hens for that purpose." He must be of the same type as the Fruitvale rancher who says he has not been further than Haywards in twenty-five years.

Rev. Miles Grant has discovered how to live on 87½ cents a week. His should be a good church to attend, as it would be wasting money to put liberal donations in the contribution box. His parishioners, though, must be very careful to furnish the exact amount, as by omitting even the half cent he might starve to death.

The Livermore Creamery in Alameda County last week shipped 10,000 pounds of its butter to Oregon, a State that has an average of two months more green grass than California. That does not say much for the industry of Oregon's housewives, does it?—Los Angeles Times.

It may not say much for the Oregon housewives, but it says a good deal for Livermore ranchers.

THE JAPANESE INVASION.

One of the most interesting passages of history during the close of the present century is the wondrous advance of the Japanese race. Thirty or forty years ago they were hemmed in by all the superstitious traditions of an idolatrous religion, and they held themselves aloof from the world so exclusively that it was rarely any of the islanders were seen away from their own kingdom.

Today finds the conditions almost absolutely reversed. There has been a wondrous awakening among the little brown men of the Okhotsk Sea, and, having tasted the sweets of contest during their recent war with their ancient Chinese rival, they are now flooding the Western Hemisphere in a manner that is creating alarm among those who have occasion to fear the invasion of such a peculiarly commercial race. For the Jap is distinctively a destroyer of settled ideas as regards wages and prices. He will labor cheaper and take less for the results of his toil than any other trader in such matters, and as he has a remarkable faculty of imitativeness and is quick to learn he soon becomes a dangerous foe to organized and well paid labor.

The tocsin of alarm over the invasion of this formidable race has already been sounded in this country, though with little effect as yet, and now Hawaii is up in protest on an issue that may possibly bring about a clash of arms between the Sandwich Islanders and the Japanese. Chief Justice Judd of Honolulu summed up the dangers of the situation on his arrival here the other day in the following language: "What we most fear is that the Japanese, when they gain a numerical supremacy, will think they ought to have political supremacy in the islands. According to the census taken in November last there are now in the islands 21 107 Japanese, 21,616 Chinese, 31,019 Hawaiian natives, 8,000 half castes, 6,360 Americans 2 250 British, 1,432 Germans, 501 French, 378 Norwegians, 15,-191 Portuguese, 155 South Sea Islanders and 600 of other nationalities. The Japanese are increasing rapidly, and if they continue to come in at the rate of 1,500 a week as they did one week recently, it will not be long before they have overrun all the islands."

It will be interesting to watch what will be the outcome of the Hawaiian perplexity. A decided stand will have to be taken by the Dole administration against the entry of the foreign horde, and then we will see to what extent Japan thinks she is able to take a hand in the affairs of other nations.

Prince Bismarck is trying to solve a query. He wants to know the motive of the Alabama man who sent him a cage full of live mocking birds on his 82d birthday. Some local politicians should be able to cable a probable reply.

Edison recently said: "Sleep is a damned habit, anyhow," and Tesla has just declared that if a man would sleep eighteen hours a day he could live 200 years. One is probably as correct as the other.

FROM OTHER PENS.

The Cleveland Judge who punished an editor for contempt of court in venturing mildly to criticise the acts of his Honor is now enjoying the spectacle of mass meetings held to denounce his conduct and processions of citizens marching before the newspaper office and cheering the editor, says the Springfield Republican. That paper, as well as other broad-minded sheets throughout the country believes that when the bench attempts to assert its immunity from all public criticism it invites and deserves just such a return.

The Buffalo Express says: "A German servant girl in New York tried to commit suicide because she had become discouraged after eight months' unsuccessful effort to learn the English language. She was new to the country. If she had been here a year, she would have known that it was entirely unnecessary for a servant girl to learn English. The Express man must have had Utah in mind, for he says: "She could have insisted on her mistress learning German."

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature of Kentucky which provides for branding of convicted burglars on each cheek. Kentucky is a State which still permits public executions. Delaware has the whipping-post and nearly every State in the Union has a capital punishment law on its statute books. The above is from the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, which follows with this. "So the country is not wholly given over to what advocates of that sort of thing are fond of calling "sickly sentimentalism."

AS OTHERS SEE US.

The officials of the Valley Road say that they have found a good route into Oakland, one that reaches all of the important Southern towns and is on the way so that a branch line can be built to San Jose. "A floral society meeting but once a month reminds us of the boy who enjoys a long vacation, and is surprised to be reminded, upon return to school, of things long forgotten, yet once gone over thoroughly. Try and have your society meet twice a month, on different days, as many a person cannot come on Tuesday evening every time. There will be hundreds of topics to talk over, flowers to look at, and the more attraction and the more interest, the more frequent it is to express each others' views. The West Oakland Improvement Club is a worthy example of what such clubs can accomplish, and their only sorrow is that they have not organized ere this late hour. Let us Berkeley folk wake up and see attributed to our floral society as that West Oakland Club asserts. We have no Sixteenth street swamps to deal with. But it is far more faulty and far more criminal to ruin the charms of Berkeley the "not beautiful." Our work is made easy, and let it not be said of us that we were blind to such opportunities, and careless of what is to our own interest."—Berkeley Advocate.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS.

Dr. E. Christiansen of Leavenworth, Kansas, wants the Southern States to employ him to deliver stereopticon lectures throughout Europe, with the object of stimulating immigration to the South.

There were fifty-six signers of the Declaration of Independence, and only three had or used a middle name. Robert Treat Paine of Massachusetts, and Richard Henry Lee and Francis Lightfoot Lee of Virginia.

A meeting was held in New Orleans last week to further a project for the erection there of a monument to John J. Audubon, the eminent naturalist, who was born in the vicinity of that city. Mrs. James L. Bradford, who wrote a life of Audubon, is president of the association having the matter in charge.

President McKinley's mother's name is Nancy; so was that of the mother of Abraham Lincoln. Of the other Presidents' mothers' given names there are four Elizabeths, three Marys, two Elizas, two Janes, two Annas, and one each of Susanna, Nelly, Abigail, Sarah, Phoebe, Harriet, Sophia, Malvina and Maria.

It has been decided that the monument to Lord Leighton shall take the form of a recumbent sepulchral figure of the late president of the Royal Academy, to be placed in the nave of St. Paul's Cathedral. To Mr. Brock, R. A., has been intrusted the execution of the work, which will be of an ornate character, and in bronze.

Robert H. Folger, said to be the oldest practicing lawyer in America, has, at his home in Massillon, Ohio, a treasure in the way of a ship's log kept by his father, Captain Mayhew Folger, of the good ship Topaz. While making his last cruise in the Pacific Captain Folger, in February, 1808, discovered the surviving mutineer of the ship Bounty and his colony on Pitcairn Island.

The late Jules Jony, who wrote many of the most famous songs of the Paris streets, was a Parisian of the Parisians, and had been a copious contributor to comic papers ever since he had taught himself to write, for he received the merest elementary education in youth. He first attracted notice by his ballads at the Chat Noir tavern, and subsequently composed many socialistic and political squibs in verse. He was one of the most determined opponents of General Boulanger.

The Mail and Express (New York) makes this timely but repulsive comparison: Kinetoscopic views of the effect produced on the free trade intellect by the passage of the tariff bill would probably show a series of fantastic writhings like those of a mass of angle worms.

W. V. Witcher requested to be relieved from duty owing to the fact that he would be out of town most of the time. After considerable discussion he was relieved and George W. Arper was appointed chairman of the Parade Committee. The committee was enlarged by the addition of P. M. Fisher.

JULY FOURTH.

Lieutenant Vaughn wanted more 4th of July talk in the committee and less of the 15th. He would resign unless a grand Fourth of July celebration was arranged for.

Theo. Gier declared that those interested in the 15th were at work while those favoring the 4th were idle. He favored a Fourth of July celebration that would bring all the county into Oakland. If the committee did not work for the Fourth of July it could not expect the thing to be a success.

W. V. Witcher favored a strictly military Fourth of July parade with no teams or floats. Considerable discussion followed.

Theo. Gier thought that by past experience the committee did not want to pay for floats. Every one would come in and ask for funds. Once they called for $800 for bills which were not paid.

D. Sinclair favored allowing those who would pay for their own float to display one. This met with general approbation and the Parade Committee were instructed to work in accord with this last idea. No one need look for any money for the building of floats.

D. Sinclair moved that no flag but the American flag be allowed in the parade on the Fourth of July and the motion prevailed.

The committee adjourned to meet Friday evening the 23d

Sleep

Induced by the use of coca, opiate or narcotic compounds is bad, decidedly bad. They undermine health and shatter the constitution and the patient is steadily growing into a worse condition—often resulting in the terrible slavery and misery of the cocaine and opium habit. Sleep induced by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla does not perhaps come as quickly, but it comes more surely and more permanently through nature's great restoring and rejuvenating channel—purified, vitalized and enriched blood. This feeds the nerves with life-giving energy and builds up the system and constitution from the very foundation of all health and life—the blood—pure, rich, red blood.

MISS MAY'S LITTLE TALE.

Declares That Frost Was With Her When He Was Beaten.

Her Friend Was the Assailant and He Defies Threats of Arrest.

Miss May Gilligan, the young lady who has figured so conspicuously in the incidents surrounding the peculiar beating of Mr. Frost, manager of the Oakland Lumber Company, has changed her story. She now declares that she was in company with Mr. Frost when he was beaten, and has also produced the little anonymous letter that lead up to the affair. It is as follows:

"Oakland, March 31st.

Miss May Gilligan, 609 Franklin street —Would like to see you this evening at the park on the corner of Sixth and Alice streets at 6:30. ADMIRER."

Miss Gilligan at first denied that she received any letter or was ever near the Ebell on the night that Frost was nearly killed. Last night her memory evidently revived, for she said:

"In response to the letter I received through the mail I kept the engagement. I went to the park at the suggestion of Frank Barbagaleta, a visitor at my home and my friend. It was understood that he should keep near me in order to protect me if I had trouble. My idea was to ascertain the identity of the man who had the assurance to write me such a letter. Mr. Frost lives across the street from me and knows me well. When I arrived at the park he walked up and spoke to me. I asked him if he had written the letter, and he said he had. Then he asked me to walk to the Ebell rooms, and I consented, knowing that Mr. Barbagaleta was shadowing us. When we arrived at the rooms Frost tried to get me to enter, but I refused. Then he attempted to drag me into an alleyway, and I screamed. Just then Mr Barbagaleta came across the street and gave Frost an unmerciful beating. He deserved all he got. Miss Lily Barberi received a letter just like mine a few days before, and she went to the park armed with a horsewhip, but as she had another woman with her the man did not approach her. Now, that is all the mystery there is to the case."

"I thumped this man Frost," said Barbagaleta, "because he insulted my lady friend. I want to say that I gave it to him good and hard. He knows why he was done up, and now he is trying to make a mystery out of the case."

Frost and employer, Mr. Reed, stuck to the story that Frost was measuring a window at the Ebell building, but the police do not believe it.

Picturesque California.

A very entertaining lecture was given by Mrs. Helen Kelleher at the Ebell Society last night, her subject being "Picturesque California." The colored slides were exceptionally fine and took the audience in imagination to all points of beauty and interest in California. It was a journey from San Francisco to the Yosemite in one evening. Miss Kelleher speaks with a certain zest which may be called invigorating, and tells a story to the point. The hall was well filled with an appreciative audience. The speaker was frequently interrupted with applause.

The question is: "Resolved, That a system of direct legislation, such as the initiative and referendum, should be adopted in California." The Oakland boys will support the negative side.

THE HULTMAN CONCERT.

The Scandinavian population turned out in force last night to hear Rev. J. A. Hultman's sacred concert in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. The reverend gentleman is a professor of music in North Park College, Chicago, and is at present on a tour through the country, conducting his concerts somewhat after the manner of the popular Sankey. The hall was crowded with interested listeners, and the familiar hymns, rendered with such powerful voice and skilful accompaniment of organ or piano, were applauded as though they had never been sung or heard before. Exceptionally good were the solos "God So Loved the World" and "Praise Ye the Lord." Rev. Hultman will conduct the services in the Mission Church on Filbert street Sunday night.

An Enlarged Committee to Secure the Valley Road.

A Proposition Which Will Be Satisfactory to the Directors.

The members of the committee of five who met with the Valley Railroad Directors a few days ago held a meeting yesterday evening and decided to increase the membership of the committee and to find out facts concerning a right of way, so a proposition may be submitted to the directors of the road as soon as possible.

At the meeting Mayor Thomas presided, and the members present were Supervisor Talcott, Councilman Pringle, W. V. Witcher and J. P. Taylor.

The following additional members on the committee were appointed: Frank K. Mott, Dr. George C. Pardee, William R. Davis, E. A. Heron, T. C. Sessions, John A. Britton, John F. Towle, M. J. Keller, Robert Smith.

The committee will get down to business immediately, and as they are interested in the undertaking it is not likely that many days will elapse before they will be able to lay before the Valley Road people a most satisfactory proposition.

THE CLOSE OF LENT

One Week More Remains of the Season of Sack-Cloth and Ashes.

THE MEANING OF PALM SUNDAY

How the Festival Will Be Observed in Local Churches.

EASTER DAY PREPARATIONS

Subjects Which Will Inspire Resident Clergy Tomorrow.

Holy week begins tomorrow, Palm Sunday, which opens a series of commemorations that culminate in the joyous festival of Easter.

Palm Sunday is the anniversary of the day the Savior triumphant entered Jerusalem. The Bible says that the multitude strewed their garments in the way and cut down branches from the trees and laid them before him as he rode into the city.

The Tenebrae services begin on Wednesday evening. They are merely the Matins and Lauds which are never omitted at any season in the Catholic Church. Their names are derived from the fact that they were sung in the night as they are still sung by the monastic orders. Their charm of pathos and beautiful simplicity is enhanced by the wonderfully sweet music to which they are attuned. They are the lamentations of Jeremiah, the prophet.

Thursday is the commemoration of the institution of the Blessed Eucharist, observed in Catholic and Episcopal Churches. In the former the altars are stripped and the lights extinguished, the watch being kept in a side chapel.

Then comes Good Friday the anniversary of the day on which, according to Biblical history, the earth trembled, the sun grew dark at mid-day, and the veil of the temple was rent in twain to add emphasis to the crucifixion of the Saviour. All that day the Catholic Church is bare and the altar is left in almost utter darkness.

The California Sunday School Association concluded its thirtieth annual convention Thursday evening in the First Baptist Church of San Francisco. The session was a busy one and occupied three days. Among other important matters considered, Sunday School picnics were regarded as a means of healthful recreation, and religious fellowship and improvement, and the appointment of a Sunday School field worker for the State, to labor under the executive committee, was recommended.

Holy week at St. Francis de Sales Church at Hobart and Grove streets will be conducted on a magnificent scale. Devotions on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday, will begin at 9 o'clock. On Holy Thursday a solemn high mass will be celebrated, followed by a procession of the Most Blessed Sacrament. In the evening the devotions will begin at 7:30 o'clock and will include a sermon on the Blessed Sacrament by Rev. J. J. Cull. On Friday evening there will be the devotion of the Way of the Cross and a sermon on the Passion by Rev. Thomas McSweeney. On Easter Sunday morning the cadets of Company N, L. C. C., will approach Holy Communion in a body in full uniform at the 7 o'clock mass. About sixty-five members will attend. At 10:30 o'clock solemn high mass will be celebrated at which a short instruction will be given by the pastor, Rev. Thomas McSweeney. An augmented choir and full chorus will render Mozart's Twelfth Mass assisted by an orchestra of ten pieces.

The North Temescal Presbyterian Church held its annual congregational meeting last Wednesday evening and much interest was manifested in the proceedings. The society is making great progress and now has 112 members, eighteen of whom joined during the year. The contributions to mission and various boards of the church have been quite liberal, and of the $25 pledged to the '97 convention fund nearly all has been paid. The contributions during the year amounted to $2,003, an average of $21 a church member.

Archbishop Riordan will administer the sacrament of confirmation at St. Mary's College Tuesday, May 4th, the feast of Blessed John Baptist de La Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers.

Doing Away With Bridges.

It is probable that the Board of Supervisors will join with E. R. Lillenthal, representing the Hearst estate and do away with a large portion of the bridges on the upper Dubin road. It is proposed to fill in much of the swamp land with debris excavated from the canal which is being dredged out to the bay. If this is done the question of repairing the big trestles, will be obviated as they can be removed.

The matter will come up for consideration at Monday's meeting of the Board.

Sugrue Infelicity.

Pat Sugrue, the Center-street expressman, was arrested at his home, 729 Center street, last night by Officer Cooney, on complaint of Mrs. Sugrue. The wife has Pat arrested periodically for disturbing her peace, but always relents and refuses to file a complaint. She was not in the Police Court this morning when the case was called and it went over till Monday to see if some means could not be employed to induce her to swear to a complaint.

The Spring Sale of the Jonas Clothing Co.

The handsomest dressed window in Oakland is that of the Jonas Clothing Company, 1065 Broadway, which is attracting considerable attention these pleasant days.

The window contains an assortment of elegantly tailored suits for men and boys, from the famous makers of first class clothing.

Mr. Jonas deserves credit for his intelligent enterprise in catering to first class trade by buying the very best, and he has been fortunate enough to buy at such discounts off the list that he can actually compete with handlers of cheaper and inferior lines of clothing. The nobby dressers of Oakland will go to the Jonas Clothing Company this spring.

SOCIETY NEWS

A Review by the Meddler of the Diversion of the Week.

DOINGS OF THE DINNER CLUB.

Friday Meetings Which Have Caused Considerable Pleasure.

MANY MARITAL HAPPENINGS.

Spicy Gossip as Regards the Swell Set at Home and Abroad.

What with preparations for weddings and a round of dinners and teas, holy week does not look like such a dreary, meditative season of penitence after all. The dinner club which has dined faithfully on fish, fowl and fish on every other Lenten Friday, concludes its series of dinners in a fortnight. They wouldn't dine on good Friday after all. Last night's dinner was at Mr. and Mrs. George McNear's home and the last one will be two weeks hence at the Pierces.

The week has been rather prolific of luncheons and dinners, teas and small affairs. There seems to be rather a hurry to pay up social indebtednesses before the summer exodus.

* * *

Mrs. Barker gave a charming luncheon on Thursday and Mrs. Goodfellow gave a very sumptuous and quite out of the ordinary dinner on Thursday evening. There were thirty guests and the big new house of the Goodfellows, which is the old Ford mansion remodeled, was quite transformed with flowers.

* * *

On Friday evening, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Von Adelung gave a dinner—very pretty it was too. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John L. Howard and the Eastern guests they have lately been entertaining.

* * *

Mrs. Frank Brigham gave a very sweet little tea last Tuesday. About sixty ladies were present and it was a very pretty and informal affair indeed. Mrs. Brigham is just as pretty and as gracious a hostess as ever, though we see so little of her.

* * *

For the 23d of this shiny month of April another big tea is announced. It will be the first opportunity, except for weddings, that we shall have to show our new gowns and newer bonnets. This tea is a sort of symposium composite sort of affair at which Miss Kittredge, Miss Holt and Miss Simmons are to be the hostesses. It will take place at the Holt house and there are to be between 500 and 600 cards.

* * *

Mrs. Judge Waymire gave a luncheon on Wednesday and Miss Edna Waymire followed with one on Thursday. One of the prettiest luncheons of the week was given by Miss Blanche Gregory of Tenth avenue, East Oakland. It was a pink and green luncheon, even as to gowns and took place on Thursday. The drawing room, library and dining room of the Gregory home were decorated with pink flowering almond and waxen strands of smilax. Long streamers of the vine started with the chandeliers and were guided by pink ribbon streamers to the cornice. The pink almond blossoms appeared at intervals. The menu cards were painted in water colors on dainty green tea kettles and the pink and green bonbons were in dainty boxes of the same shades. The menus and bonbons boxes were carried away as souvenirs. Some amusing little verses apropos of the foibles of each guest were laid at the covers. The menu was very nice and the talk so bright that the girl guests lingered until late in the afternoon. The guests' names follow: Miss Blanche Hostoller, Miss Carrie Perry, Miss Grace Williams, Miss Edith Alexander, Miss Theresa Hawley of Michigan, Miss Ida Hammond, Miss Claribel Williams, Miss Eva Margeson, Miss Grace Hostoller, Miss Dolly Sumner, Miss Mabel Daly, Miss Nellie Fearnside, Miss Mabel Thayer.

* * *

On Saturday night Mrs. Hampton of Alice street gives a card party, but I do not know much on the tapis for next week.

* * *

The number of weddings in the air is positively appalling. The engagement is announced of Miss Belle Van Amringe and James Gamble of San Francisco. Miss Van Amringe is one of the East Oakland girls and a very pretty one, too. She has been a teacher since she left school. An elder sister, married, now resides in San Francisco. The Van Amringe wedding will be at the home of the bride's widowed mother, early in May. Mr. Gamble is a very nice young man and successful in business.

It seems to me that most of the weddings are set for April 21st, the first Wednesday after Easter. There is a most charming unanimity of date. Miss Gertrude Peck who has chosen that date for her marriage, will have a very pretty church wedding in Alameda. A choir of young girls will sing the bridal chorus from Lohengrin.

The Kimball wedding at Seminary Park near Mills' College will be an elaborate affair and also on the 21st. The Kimballs are wealthy, have a beautiful home and most charming grounds. The groom is a Honolulu gentleman and also well favored with this world's goods, I am told.

Miss Bledsoe will be the Berkeley bride and the marriage of Miss Minnie O'Neil to Mr. J. J. Baumgartner on April 21st I have already mentioned. The wedding presents will be a terrific drain on our purses. Before we have recovered from the April exodus, the June and fall weddings will follow. A little bird has whispered to me that both Jessie Coleman and Jessie Glascock will be brides before the old year dies. Ella Goodal, Amy McKee and Nellie Chabot are selected for Miss Coleman's bridesmaids and other names to be added. Jessie Glascock will have Marguerite Jolliffe, Lucy and Alice Moffitt and some of the younger girls. There is nothing definite about Miss Whitney's wedding or the more recently announced engagement of little Tom Pheby. They will all follow in good time.

* * *

Miss Allyce Thiller and Albert C. Aiken will be married this spring at the bride's home in West Oakland. Miss Thiller should make an extremely pretty bride.

* * *

The Macdonough was well filled last night in honor of Georgia Cayvan and her play of Squire Kate. It was an extremely even and satisfactory performance. Miss Cayvan's company is all good and she is always the most womanly of women. Every one admires and loves Miss Cayvan for her character as well as her art. I really think she has the most charming neck and shoulders I've ever seen. In her company is a little Miss Jerrold, granddaughter of Douglas Jerrold, the famous English wit. Of course you know all about him—you cultured Athenians. If you don't, go look it up in your histories. Miss Cayvan also plays tonight. There will be another audience quite as large.

* * *

The closing nights of the opera season have attracted many Oaklanders. Every one who had not heard the company rushed to hear. It was a last chance. If I were not such a good little church girl, I'd go to the performance Monday night. It's La Traviata at popular prices and well worth hearing, even if the great Albers does not sing. How well I remember Patti in Traviata but I'll not bore you with reminiscences.

* * *

Mrs. Olive Reed, assisted by Miss Susie Hobart, recently gave a concert and reading at Sunol, which was very largely attended. How beautifully Mrs. Reed sings every one knows. Miss Hobart is a very talented young woman. She reads very well and has a great many pupils. She is a hard worker, too, and most industrious.

* * *

Tuesday evening, the 20th, the bal masque at Reed's Hall comes off. I understand that the secret committee, one of whom, in mask and domino, unlocks the mysterious postoffice box every day, has not received as many acceptances as it would like. The invited public is a little shy. It is hard up or something. Quite a number of San Franciscans have been asked and have accepted, and a number of the old Mardi Gras costumes will do duty again. The patronesses are Mrs. Brown, Mrs. McNutt, Mrs. Orestes Pierce, Mrs. John R. Glascock, Mrs. Mien, and Mrs. Wilson of Berkeley, and Mrs. John B. Mhoon. Tickets are quite expensive and as Easter Tuesday comes so soon after the days when gowns and bonnets must be purchased, many of the belles will go in very simple clothes. A number are preparing dominoes, for which I am sorry. They are not original and not effective. Some of the girls, however, will look quite pretty and I have a gown which I flatter myself will prove a complete disguise. It is, besides, very chic.

* * *

Mrs. John Shaw of New York, Mrs. Isaac L. Requa's sister, has been spending her Saturdays and Sundays at Highlands during her California visit. She leaves for home in a few days. She is stopping at the Palace Hotel.

* * *

I think I have gleaned for you all the small news of the week I know. Society has not been cyclonic, but there have been some good quiet times and a deal of Easter dressmaking and millinery. Some of the girls have such pretty hats; they fairly make your mouth water. What a pity it is that the choir girls of St. Paul's cannot blossom out in church in all the glories of spring millinery. Well, there is one girl who can, and her name is

THE MEDDLER.

RELIANCE LADIES' NIGHT.

The Reliance Camera Club gave a successful entertainment Thursday evening. The audience hall was crowded. The entertainment consisted of a number of stereopticon views reproduced from photographs taken by members of the club. There were capital pictures of the relay riders, the members of the famous Spaghetti Club and a number of jokes on well known club members. Views of Oakland, Blair Park and the Yosemite Valley reproduced from photographs by Dr. Dow, Dr. Clark, Charles Magagnos and others were shown. Dr. Clark displayed the views and B. Y. Morris explained them. During the evening the Reliance Glee Quartette sang several songs very delightfully. The Reliance Club orchestra made its first public appearance and their playing reflected most creditably on the leader, Charles Crist. Other members of the orchestra are Phil Carlton, viola; Wm. Gross and Frank Raynler, cornet; Geo. Lehner, violin; W. E. Millwain and Lovell Langroth, 'cello; Jordan, trombone; Le Noir, flute; Cautin, bass; Boyden, drum. A delightful solo was given by Mr. McBride.

After the formal entertainment there was dancing.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas, Mrs. Thomas Prather, Misses Gage, Miss Hattie Kimber, Mrs. John Britton, Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Wendte, Misses Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. George Nusbaumer, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Metcalf, Col. and Mrs. D. Mynhers, and Mrs. I. Mynhers, Jr., Dr. O. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jerome, Dr. H. P. Carlton, J. Cal Ewing, J. H. Ames, Charles Lovell, R. M. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Conners, Miss Mollie Conners, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Butters, Mrs. Bray, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knight, Miss Josephine Chabot, Abe P. Leach, Charles Deekman, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Eastland, L. H. Carver, P. E. Bowles, A. L. Tubbs, W. R. Berry, W. H. Pearce, P. K. Remillard, John Hackett, Prof. Soule, R. W. Miller, P. W. Coulter.

THE HAVENS DINNER.

Miss Marietta Havens gave a charming dinner this week to a few of her intimate friends at her home on Vernon Heights. The decorations were entirely in pink, pink carnations and maiden hair fern being the flowers used. Among the guests of Miss Havens were the Misses Pauline Fore, Grace Gorrill, Jean Hush, Florence Green, Margaret Cole and the Messrs. Walter Magee, Otto Wedemeyer, Will Schmidt, Bruce Cornwall, Ira Boss and Fred Knight.

LENTEN CLUB.

A Lenten Club is established at Miss Head's school in Berkeley. The clever school journal "Nods and Becks" says of it: "During these Lenten evenings, the older girls meet in Miss Head's room to sew, while she reads to them Wm. Morris' 'News from Nowhere.' The younger girls sew in another room and listen to the 'Jungle Book.' The day pupils all have one bit of underwear which they sew on at home. Many of the alumnae will also have ready one article by the end of Lent and thus enable us to have a sale of two hundred hand made pieces of underwear. The proceeds of our sale will go to a fund for a room in the Children's Hospital to be rented for the time being by Miss Head's girls, and to be owned by them eventually. This will give them the privilege of placing any sick and poor child under the best medical hospital care. The sale will take place the Wednesday before Easter."

LENTEN THIMBLE BEE.

The Lenten thimble bee at Mrs. Robert Watt's house on Madison street held its fourth gathering yesterday afternoon. In spite of the warm weather, the ladies busily plied their needles and accomplished no little amount of work. Miss Chabot and Mrs Coleman delighted the company with several songs, and Mrs. H. P. Livermore rendered a recitation very charmingly.

The ladies present were: Mesdames Albert Miller, Barton, Judge Stanly, Schilling, J. B. Mhoon, H. P. Livermore, Dr. Rucker, Bernham, Kellogg, Henshaw, Bowles, Magee, Percy, Prather, Wheaton, Bugbee, Coleman, F. M. Smith, J. K. L. M. Shepard, Whitney, Fitzgerald, Brown, Moffitt, Colby, Remillard, Dayton, Hyde, Bangs, H. K. Belden, Miss Chabot and Miss Winnie McFarland.

THE BROWN RECEPTION.

A very delightful affair was the informal gathering at Mrs. R. G. Brown's residence, 1389 Jackson street, Wednesday afternoon. About twenty-five ladies of the neighborhood were invited with their fancy work to spend a social afternoon. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Hoadley of New York, mother of Mrs. Kales of this city. Music was enjoyed, and later in the afternoon light refreshments served. When the guests left, each was presented with a tiny bouquet of spring flowers.

Among those present were: Mrs. Kales, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Wheaton, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Bugbee, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Coghill, Mrs. Baily Mrs. Smith of Honolulu, Mrs. Henshaw, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Schilling, Mrs. W. L. Oliver, Mrs. Chas. P. Everts of San Mateo, Mrs. Goodall and others.

THE CHACE PARTY.

The Unity Club was charmingly entertained by Mrs. Lieutenant W. C. Chace at her home on Magnolia street, Tuesday evening. The evening was pleasantly passed passed with euchre, and later, after refreshments had been served, dancing was enjoyed.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Meredith, Miss Curtis, Edmund Reshan, Miss Blanche A. Perkins, Miss Bertha Barthing, Mr. Fletcher and Miss Lucy Fletcher, E. J. Smith, Miss Phoebe Smith, Charles Lowry, N. M. Gleason, E. C. Andrews, Miss Nannie Collins, Miss Augusta Zabel, Miss Rachel Pope, Miss Alice Tripp, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Walker, Miss Shirer, Miss Katherine Potter, F. G. Jacobs, Mr. Dibert, Miss Dibert, Percy W. Hall, A. B. Winter, N. C. Winter, W. C. Wilcox.

THE BRIGHAM PARTY.

A number of young people were entertained by Mrs. Frank Brigham at her home on Oak street Tuesday afternoon. The affair was very informal, and was given in honor of Miss Peck of Milwaukee, who is at present the guest of Mrs. Brigham. Mrs. C. O. Alexander assisted the hostess in receiving the guests, who numbered about fifty. It was a very enjoyable affair.

POWELL—DELANOY.

The engagement is announced of Miss Jessica Hattie Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Powell of Alameda, to F. N. Delanoy. The wedding will be celebrated at the Powell residence the evening of April 24th.

A JOLLY PICNIC

Miss Florence Sloper entertained several of her friends at a small picnic party at Leona Heights last Saturday. The party went out to the pretty resort early in the morning and spent the entire day. A dainty lunch was served at noon. The guests included Misses Evelyn Hussey, Carrie Miller, Geraldine McGraw, Gertie Knot, Isabel Scupham, Ellie McCall, Hattie Fish, Noelle Feymour, Clara and Zoe Wadsleigh.

MILLER—MASTERSON

The engagement is announced of Miss Maude Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Miller of 2110 Santa Clara aenue, Alameda, to Mr. J. H. Masterson, of the wholesale lumber firm of Hickman & Masterson. The wedding will occur in the near future.

EASTER SOCIAL.

The ladies of Lyon Relief Corps will give another of their popular socials next Tuesday evening, April 13th, at Loring Hall, corner of Eleventh and Clay streets. This is to be an Easter social. A good programme will be given, followed by dancing.

HAANSTRA—BINNEWEG.

A pretty little wedding occurred today at high noon when Miss Johanna Haanstra and A. Binnweg were married at the former's home by Rev. R. F. Coyle, D. D. They left on the afternoon train for Monterey and San Jose, where the honeymoon will be spent. Both are well known in this city, where they have many friends. On their return from their wedding trip they will reside in this city.

THE LALLY RECEPTION.

About twenty guests were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lally, corner of Union street and Clinton avenue, the occasion being their twentieth wedding anniversary. The affair was a most enjoyable one and a literary and musical programme served to amuse during the afternoon hours. A game in which answers to intricate questions were written by the guests on dainty sepia cards afforded much amusement. The cards were the handiwork of Mrs. Goggin, the artist. Souvenirs were awarded to those solving the most of thirty questions and Miss Mabel Moore, Mrs. Emma Shattuck and Mrs. Orrett won first, second and third prizes respectively.

Holman, Miss Geneva Peart, the latter using a banjo and the others the piano. The singers were Mrs. C. F. Holman, Miss Geneva Peart, Miss Eva M. Johnstone, Miss Florence Holman, Mrs. Brackenberry. Those present were the following: Mrs. Brackenberry, Miss Brackenberry, Miss Marie Brackenberry of London, England, Mrs. Pudan of Sacramento, Miss Ammina McNaughton of Tempe, Arizona, Miss Geneva Peart of Colusa, Miss Eva M. Topham, Mrs. Debbins, Mrs. Holman Sr., Mrs. Torrey, Miss Murphy, Miss Florence Holman, Mrs. Steele, Messrs. Charles Holman, Arthur Holman, Sullinger, Steele, Eaton, Jenkins.

A MINISTER SURPRISED.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered to Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Jones of the Thirty-fourth Street M. E. Church, last Friday evening. While the minister and Mrs. Jones were at choir practice, a number of their parishioners assembled in the church parlors, where a very enjoyable evening was spent. A purse of gold was presented to the pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Jones were accompanied to their home by their parishioners, who presented them with many handsome and useful gifts.

This is the fourth surprise party given Mr. Jones during his two and a half years' pastorate. He has successfully carried the church through a long siege of hard times and has increased its membership greatly. The parishioners are very much attached to Mr. Jones. The church debt has been decreased one-half since this pastorate began.

THE KIMBALL WEDDING.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Alice Naomi Kimball and Alexander James Campbell, which will take place at the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, April 21st. The ceremony will be performed at high noon by Rev. C. M. Hill. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception will be held at "The Lawns," the beautiful country home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kimball.

YALE—OSBORN.

The wedding of Walter H. Osborn and Miss Ada Yale took place on Saturday evening at the bride's home in East Oakland. The couple left after the ceremony for their new home at Tucson, Arizona.

CLUB OF TWENTY-ONE.

Miss Carrie Ritter was the hostess at this week's meeting of the Club of Twenty-one. The score cards were specially pretty. Dainty refreshments were served.

W. C. T. U. RECEPTION.

There will be a reception at the home of Mrs. Sarah W. Deming in Piedmont next Thursday afternoon by the W. C. T. U. ladies.

A literary and musical programme will be given. Miss Ina Coolbrith, Mrs. John W. Metcalf and others will assist. Mr. Chakurian will appear in Turkish costume and will speak and sing in Turkish and Armenian. There will be spinning, carding and knitting by ladies in old time costume. Refreshments will be served.

BRINKERHOFF—TRAFTON.

William A. Trafton, M. D., and Miss Ida May Brinckerhoff, both of Dixon, were married by Dr. S. B. Morse Tuesday afternoon. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brinckerhoff of Dixon, and was for several years a student in California College, making her home while there with the family of President Morse.

The carriages containing the wedding party left the residence of Dr. Brinckerhoff on Grove and Twenty-eighth streets at 3.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and drove directly to Highland Park to the home of Dr. Morse.

Mrs. Morse, who had been notified by telegram that the party would be there at 4:30 o'clock, had her beautiful home exquisitely decorated with choice plants and flowers, and she and Dr. Morse met their old pupil and her friends with warm hospitality. Without delay the bride and groom took their position beneath a canopy of snow white flowers in the large window of the parlor, and an impressive ceremony was performed by Dr. Morse, which was followed by the hearty congratulations of all present.

The wedding company consisted of Dr. and Mrs. Trafton, Mr. and Mrs. John Brinckerhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Herkinson and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Brinckerhoff, Madame Otto Blankart, Dr. and Mrs. Morse, Miss Maybell Morse, Miss Belle Farmer, Master Paul Morse and Thus Boekenoogen. Refreshments were served in the beautifully decorated dining room after an hour of social chat, recalling old college days and counting up the boys and girls who had entered upon married life, and the company took their departure later. Dr. and Mrs. Trafton will reside in Dixon, where they have a wide circle of friends and relatives. As the carriage whirled away down the avenue, a long string of old shoes were seen dangling from the axle of the bridal carriage, the handiwork of some students who stole a march on the driver while he was waiting for his passengers.

Unscrupulous Manuf'r's

Dishonest Dealers

Blacklegs in every business, you know. Some dealers varnish up piano cases, put in a few new strings and call it a bargain for $400. They employ teachers to help their sales—

Yet for the same money we can give you a new "CONOVER" piano worth a hundred second-hand ruins.

CLARK WISE & Co.

1108 BROADWAY

THE RENNER RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. George Renner celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their wedding at their home, 2421 Eucna Vista avenue, Alameda, last evening.

The parlors of their home were elaborately decorated with flowers and evergreens for the occasion. The floors were canvassed for dancing, which was enjoyed until a late hour. A sumptuous banquet was served during the evening. A notable feature of the table was the anniversary cake, which was ornamented with the figures which graced the original wedding cake.

At least fifty guests were present, of whom some had witnessed the wedding twenty years ago. MISS WILLIAMS' OPENING.

Spring millinery opening March 18th, 19th and 20th. Miss Williams, 1162 Broadway.

A NEW BOOK.

HISTORY OF CALIFORNIA, by Hon. Theo. H. Hittell, in four royal octavo vols., 800 pages each. N. J. Stone & Co., San Francisco, publishers.

It will be gratifying to all lovers of high class literature to know that this eminent author and lawyer has written a complete, up to date history of this most wonderful of all the States. This arduous task is one of no small undertaking. It has required about twenty-five years of the best portion of the author's life. When those who know Mr. Hittell realize this fact, they at once expect to find a work of rare value. In this they are not disappointed. Book making in this progressive age is an art, and requires genius of a high order to produce a work that meets the demands of the thinking and cultured reader. That Mr. Hittell is eminently qualified for such a task no one doubts who knows him. That he has succeeded in weaving together in a most fascinating manner the record of the exciting events of the development from savagery to civilization of our Golden State, his critics as well as his admirers unite in encomiums of well done.

The charm of the book is that the story is told without any effort of rhetorical display. Its composition is simple, yet beautiful, as the story is true. The procession of events that led up to our present attainment of an exalted place in modern civilization is vividly pictured on the mind without wearisome detail.

Mr. Hittell is a gifted legal writer, well known to every lawyer in this State, whose library contains some of his valuable legal writings. When it is known that this eminent author and scholar has spent twenty years of the best of his life in the production of these four volumes, it will be a sufficient guaranty that the history will be one of rare literary merit as well as historical accuracy. The universal opinion of those who have read the first two volumes is that it will become a classic often referred to in the library of every private citizen as well as the public library. A boy of twelve years can read it with enjoyment and profit, for there is no country or State more prolific of romantic love than California. There is a charm in every page of her history. The author's familiarity with Latin, French, German and Spanish peculiarly qualify him to tell the story he has undertaken. Californians have reason to be thankful that one so qualified for the undertaking has been disposed to give up the best part of his life to a work of which they are to reap the greater share of the blessings. The work is sold only by subscription, as all the better class of books are, which ensures their more thorough and early introduction. Publishers sell their choicest and most valuable works through agents who go direct to the individual and show the work thoroughly.

Every Californian, especially every Pioneer and every Native Son, will want this valuable work for reading and reference.

A model periodical is Town Talk, up to date in every department and fearless in the expression of opinion, no matter what the subject.

LEM WILLIAMS

1003 WASHINGTON STREET

Disease makes a man just as helpless as if he were tied with ropes. Weary lassitude makes him clerically useless—sluggish circulation of impure blood fills his brain with useless clogging matter. Effort is distasteful and brings scant results. The trouble usually starts with the digestion. Too much brain work takes needed blood from stomach to head and retards the stomach's work. The body is not fed. The nerves rebel. Sleep becomes a stranger. Loss of appetite is followed by loss of flesh—and all for the want of the right medicine at the right time. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for the man who is losing flesh and vitality. It is for the man whose digestion needs help and whose nerves and brain are overworked. It is the greatest of all tonics. No matter what seems to be your trouble, the "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure it. It cures by making the blood pure, rich and plenty, and by furnishing food for nerves and brain. Nothing has ever been found to equal it, but dishonest druggists sometimes try to make you believe that something more profitable to them is "just as good." Do not be deceived. Get what you ask for.

Consumption if neglected brings with it a train of maladies that unfit the sufferer for either the duties or pleasures of life. Sick and bilious headaches and a multitude of other ills are due to constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation promptly and permanently. Druggists sell them. Nothing else is "just the same."

PARQUET PLEASURES

Miss Cayvan Appears in the Fine Melodrama "Squire Kate."

A VERY HEARTY RECEPTION.

Tonight She Will Render the Role of Mary Pennington.

THE PLAY AT THE OAKLAND.

Strong Attractions Promised at All the Other Theatres.

Miss Georgia Cayvan was given a cordial welcome at the Macdonough Theater last evening when she presented "Squire Kate" after an absence of several years. During the period of enforced idleness, Miss Cayvan has lost none of her admirable art in acting, in fact, she has gained. She acts in the same finished, artistic manner which made her the star in the old New York Lyceum stock company.

"Squire Kate" which was the bill for last evening is a pastoral drama in which Miss Cayvan takes the title role. It is a part which is more dramatic than anything Miss Cayvan has presented before. Miss Cayvan was most excellent in her role and played with the consummated skill which is a characteristic of her art.

Miss Cayvan's support is unusually good and contains many actors and actresses who are familiar to theatergoers. The play moves with a smoothness and ease that indicates study and careful management.

Tonight the company will present "Mary Pennington, Spinster," the play in which Miss Cayvan made her first appearance as a star. It is written by W. R. Walker and is a bright, keen, satire on the new woman. The story deals with a young woman who after completing college decides to enter business life. Her mistakes and the gossiping of the neighbors form the keynote of the comedy. Miss Cayvan has won favor in this role which is admirably adapted to her. Annie Sutherland, Mary Jerrold, George Woodward, Orrin Johnson, Chas. Thropp and other members of the company have excellent roles.

OAKLAND THEATER.

Kiraly's brilliant ballet, with its scores of pretty women and graceful dancers, closes a week's engagement at the Oakland Theater tomorrow night. The spectacular has had a very successful run. The bill for next week is a comedy-melodrama, "New York Day by Day," which will be presented by the Ellerford Company. It is a comedy with plenty of fun and gayety. It is bright and charming, with plenty of comical situations and clever dialogue. The company is an excellent one, and will present the play exceedingly well. It will run for the entire week.

BALDWIN THEATER.

A double bill, "Merchant of Venice" and "Katherine and Petruchio," will be presented by Otis Skinner and his excellent company of players at the Baldwin Theater this evening. Both plays permit of an opportunity for Mr. Skinner to show his versatility. Next week is the last week of Mr. Skinner's engagement. He will present "Richard III" Monday and Saturday evenings, and the "Lady of Lyons" Tuesday evening and Saturday matinee.

CALIFORNIA THEATER.

The engagement of the French Opera Company, which has been so successful, comes to a close tomorrow evening, when "La Traviata" will be presented with a grand ballet. Tonight the bill includes second act "L'Africaine" intermezzo "Cavalleria Rusticana," third act "La Favorita," overture "William Tell" and for the grand farewell to Feodor, Massenet's lyric gem "La Navarraise."

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

"The Stowaway" at Morosco's is attracting excellent houses, and as the cast is exceptionally good, no doubt it will continue to do so. Miss Thompson, the new soubrette, contributes more than her share to the fun of the play in the three characters she takes—the newsboy, Buttons and the cabin boy. Miss Atwood plays the heroine very prettily, and two of the burglars are intensely business like over the safe cracking and hold the audience in breathless suspense.

THE TIVOLI.

The elaborate spectacular "Don Juan At Lib" will be given tonight and tomorrow night at the Tivoli. Next week the bill is the romantic Irish opera "The Lily of Killarney" with new scenery and costumes.

ALCAZAR THEATER.

"Wild Oats," the famous old English comedy, has had a most successful run at the Alcazar Theater this week. It is a charming play and is exceedingly well presented by the stock company at the Alcazar.

THE ORPHEUM.

Titania, the clever toe dancer, is one of the chief attractions at the Orpheum this week. She is one of the most skillful dancers on the stage at present, and is a pretty as well as a graceful woman. The other features of the bill are excellent. Several new attractions are looked for next week.

Kops Cheer. Pure! Non-intoxicating.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

A Chapter on Colds

SIMPLE PRECAUTIONS THAT MAY PREVENT SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES.

The Danger of Neglecting a "Common Cold." Serious and Often Fatal Maladies may Result from Carelessness.

From the News, Harrisonburg, La.

In most instances colds are the result of imprudence or a lack of forethought. Even in cases where a sudden change in the weather or an unavoidable exposure is responsible for the first slight cold, fresh and more severe colds may be avoided by observing a little care. But "a mere cold" is such a common thing and causes so little inconvenience that notwithstanding all previous experiences we neglect to take the most simple precautions, in the way of wearing suitable clothing, the avoidance of draughts, etc.

One should always bear in mind the necessity of exercising a constant vigilance to avoid catching cold. When the temperature in the house is higher than that out of doors, never go out without putting on an additional wrap. Never sit in a cold room even though you do not feel chilly. And it is better to suffer a little discomfort from wearing heavy underclothing than to run the risk of a chill.

The following letter from a lady in Sicily Island, La., graphically illustrates the distressing consequences that are liable to follow a simple cold.

"In February, 1896, I had a severe cold which settled on my lungs, resulting in a serious cough. My appetite failed, and I became so weak that I was scarcely able to walk across the room. I weighed only ninety-four pounds, and had given up all hope of recovery when I happened to read an article in a newspaper describing some cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and concluded to try them.

"I commenced using them, and before I had taken half a box I felt like a new creature. My appetite was restored, my cough grew less, and I was able to sleep soundly at night, which I had been unable to do for months before.

"After taking two boxes of the pills I was weighed again and to my astonishment my weight was 113 pounds, a gain of 19 pounds. Previous to taking the pills I had suffered with cold hands and feet, but now have no trouble whatever from that source.

"I can truly say I am now in better health than I have been for years. The effect of the Pink Pills is wonderful, and I can recommend them in all cases of debility and weakness.

MRS. A. L. STAFFORD."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effect of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100), by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

THE "AUGUSTA."

Around the Bay There Is Not a Trimmer Craft.

In a quiet little berth in the estuary buoyantly floats at anchor the prettiest pleasure launch of its type on this coast. It is the Augusta, which has just been completed for Frank J. Moffitt by George W. Kneass the well-known San Francisco launch builder.

The Augusta is unlike any gasoline launch ever built in many particulars. Her speed is greater, her lines are finer and her engines are the quietest of any that has ever left the builder's hands. The accommodations are more elaborate and comfortable and the space is more cleverly utilized than that of any other similar craft owned on this side of the continent.

In building the launch the designer evidently had in view one object; it was to get as much accommodation into the boat as was possible without having any suggestiveness of being cramped. In the 38½ feet from stem to stern there is contained a remarkable amount of ease and luxury, such as are the great needs of a pleasure yacht.

FROM STEM TO STERN.

The stem of the boat is a work of art. It is headed by an original carved figure and the scroll work from it follows along either side of the bow for many feet, forming a rail to the forward deck.

Immediately abaft the forward bulkhead is a semi-circular pilot house. By a neat little wheel the pilot handles the craft while being enabled to keep a sharp lookout nearly all around the horizon. Just above his head is a little bell handle by which he can communicate with the engineer and also toot the powerful whistle, which will let the people on the bay know that the boat is afloat, and it will be very necessary for the many slow crafts around the bay to take particular notice of her toot, because with her three-bladed propeller making two hundred and forty revolutions a minute, there will not be any time to lose in getting out of her way.

AN ENGINE LIKE A WATCH.

Next to the pilot house on the starboard side is the engine room in which there is a powerful piece of machinery capable of propelling the craft thirteen miles an hour. The beautiful shining mechanism is the work of Mr. Casey the manager and Bob Darby, the designer of the Union Gas Engine Company. A few years ago this company made a specialty of perfecting gasoline engines and each year they have brought out a new pattern. The engine placed in the Augusta is one of the latest patterns of 1897 with all the improvements and perfections suggested by the engineers who have had experience with that model. As a result, the machinery is almost silent. Of course, with such a rapidly revolving shaft the different parts of the machinery must have a rapid action, but there is practically no gearing or cog-wheel attachment such as used to be the terror of old engines and although a powerful looking piece of mechanism the whole thing when in action resembles more the smooth working of a watch than a marine engine.

Several of these engines are now in use on the bay, but Mr. Casey declares that in this one every little suggestion that experience has developed has been carefully taken advantage of and that the result is as near perfection as any gas engine in the world has been brought up to this date.

EASE AND ELEGANCE.

Abreast of the engine room and on the port side is a very completely arranged toilet room, opening off the salon. This latter compartment is as it should be the piece de resistance of the boat. All around are large windows from which guests can receive the full pleasure of the view without any of the unpleasantness of wind or spray. The windows are hung with pretty curtains which are chosen to match the delicately patterned carpet on the floor and the richly corduroy upholstered cushions which are placed on either side. A pretty shade of olive green has been chosen for the upholstery and it presents a charming harmony of color with the richly polished mahogany wainscotting which is used all over not only the salon but every portion of the boat.

To increase the rich effect every portion of the mahogany work which will admit of it is delicately carved with a lily or a leaf or an exquisite piece of scroll work. At the forward end of the salon is a neat little sideboard also polished mahogany, over which is a large mirror. On opening the top drawer the engineer produced a magnificent pair of powerful marine glasses on which were inscribed the words, "W. W. Foote, to my friend, Frank J. Moffitt."

Bright lamps shining like gold are placed where they can be of the most use, and every little detail is arranged so as to be pleasing to the eye and at the same time so that it will add to the comfort of the guests.

In the stern the deck of which is polished till it resembles a wax floor, there is nothing to inconvenience anybody who might desire to be seated there. No clumsy tiller sweeps across it and the space is unbroken except for a neat little brass flagpole socket in the extreme after part.

The idea of comfort is not confined as in many pleasure boats to those who may occupy the salon. The pilot house is just as comfortable and the man who will have the duty of looking out for the safety of those on board is as carefully protected from the elements as the most distinguished guest.

STRENGTH AND BEAUTY.

While within all is suggestive of comfort and ease, without everything is indicative of strength and the Augusta could certainly stand a very heavy stretch of bad weather without in any way doing herself any injury or causing any discomfort to those on board.

D. M. Van Wart the designer, is particularly proud of the success which he has attained with Mr. Moffitt's launch. In laying her lines he departed somewhat from the old conservative models and chose a design which experience has suggested is the best fitted for a pleasure craft. The keel is not parallel with the deck line as is usually the case in gasoline launches. There is a drop toward the stern of about a foot and this gives to the launch all the benefit that is derived by a sailing craft from the use of a center board, and on her trial trip she proved that after meeting a sea she could regain her level at once without any of the unpleasant rolling which is usually experienced in ordinary launches.

PRIDE OF HER DESIGNER.

Mr. Van Wart says that she is without doubt the finest boat of her class on the Pacific Coast, and without doubt much the speediest. It is possible for her engines to attain a maximum speed of two hundred and eighty revolutions, and this means nearly fourteen miles an hour.

George W. Kneass, whose office and works are at 718 Third street, San Francisco, also has a yard where heavier crafts are built at Solano and Illinois street on the Potrero. For twenty-five years he has been engaged in boat building, and many of the most notable crafts on the bay are of his construction. The speedy little Mascot which was built for Mr. Pope, and the pretty Arrow of which Mr. Knight used to be so proud are of Kneass' building. The Hettie B, which is the admiration of sailormen at McNear's Landing in San Pedro, and the big boat Belvedere which is at present in service on San Francisco bay, as well as the large Yolo Belle, which is owned at Sacramento by Mr. Hennessy, are also from the same master constructor.

MR. F. J. MOFFITT'S HANDSOME LAUNCH "AUGUSTA" AND GEORGE W. KNEASS, THE BUILDER.

OTHER SPEEDY MODELS.

There are also the speedy little San Rafael, the Amabel, and many others—all designed and built by the same experienced mind that created the model for Mr Moffitt's boat.

At the present time Mr. Kneass is engaged on a large sixty-five foot auxilliary schooner for Mexico. She will carry one hundred tons and will be fitted with a gasoline engine of fifty horse power. There is also a novelty in the way of marine construction just designed by Mr Kneass. It is a gasoline launch containing two large tanks, which will be used for carrying milk in bulk from Sacramento river ranches to the city. It is stated that this system of transporting milk is the cheapest, speediest and most practical yet devised, and will undoubtedly bring about many changes in that trade. This launch is also provided with sails, and between the speed attained by her twenty horse power engines and the four hundred and eighty square feet of canvass which she will spread, this milk launch promises to be a little wonder.

With all the experience attained during these many years of building, it is not surprising that Mr. Kneass and his designer should have been able to turn out such a perfect craft as the Augusta. Viewed from the wharf, when lying at anchor, this handsome craft is seen to be as pretty on the water line as she is neat and complete in all her appointments. The sharp little stem which spreads out above the water gradually and gracefully enable her to meet any ordinary swell in such a manner as to cause the least discomfort to those on board, while the clean runs along the counters show to the experienced mariner that the craft can leave the water behind with as little drag as any craft yet built.

The exact measurements of the Augusta show that the extreme length is 38 feet 6 inches. The beam is 7 feet 6 and the average depth 4 feet 6 inches. The draught of water owing to the novel line on which the keel is laid, is 2 feet 6 inches forward and 3 feet 8 inches aft.

Recently a trial trip was made with a few experts and friends of the builder for a long distance, and everything was found to be perfect. From the griffin that keeps watch at the stem to the last stitch of the stars and stripes which float from the stern the Augusta reflects credit on her builder and designer to as great a degree as she gives pleasure and satisfaction to her owner.

Successful Concert by the Students of the University.

A MOST VARIED PROGRAMME.

Miss Grace Carroll Will Sing at the Universalist Recital.

FINE EASTER PROGRAMMES.

Eastern Talent Imported for the Coming Y. M. C. A. Entertainments.

A slim audience greeted the University boys' concert at the First Unitarian Church last evening. The audience was largely composed of University students, who were naturally enthusiastic in the welcome they accorded the singers and players. Every number was encored, the typical college songs being especially popular.

Otto F. Wedemeyer certainly carried off the honors of the evening. He has a good voice and managed it very well. His solo work in "Wake Not, But Hear Me, Love," was particularly fine. The Glee Club sang the chorus to the song and it was certainly the best selection given.

C. R. Morse appeared in his comparatively new role, that of a monologue entertainer. He is an exceedingly versatile young man, and his little songs and speeches last night were capital. In fact he is if anything better as a mimic than as a singer. His dialect parts are especially good.

The Mandolin and Banjo Clubs have improved since they were last heard in this city. The Espanita waltzes by the Mandolin Club was an attractive number. The Banjo Club played El Capitan march on their twanging instruments with considerable dash and spirit.

Miss Grace Carroll, contralto, Edna Ritter and Mabel Walker, were among the vocalists on the programme at the Universalist Church Thursday night, when the Y. P. S. C. E. gave an enjoyable entertainment.

Mrs. Carroll-Nicholson gave a pleasing concert last night in Syndicate Hall. Her pupils furnished the talent and made a very creditable showing.

Miles Bacheller will also leave Oakland in the near future to make his home in the East.

Louis Lisser will give a piano recital at Boethoven Hall this afternoon at which Miss Helen Hagar will make her debut. Miss Caroline Little will sing "Should He Upbraid" and "When the Hand Was White With Moonlight."

The Unitarian Sunday School orchestra will give its initial concert on next Thursday evening. Llewellyn A. Hughes is the leader of the orchestra, which numbers thirty practiced musicians. Mrs. C. B. Desler, soprano; Miss Georgia Cope, alto, and Miss Luella Ayers, pianist, will assist.

Huberman, the boy violinist, was recently interviewed for a musical paper. When asked how he liked New York he answered in distinct English, "Very nice," and smiled as though much pleased. "I like much the oyster," he added, voluntarily, "and the terrapin and the soles. We have not oysters at my home. They are very good." And this is the boy who plays 400 different concertos and sonatas and individual compositions from memory.

The paper Von Felszum Meer recently published some of Rubenstein's private memoirs, which the master kept locked in his desk during his lifetime, because he did not want to engage in any controversy by letting his friends see them. Here are some of his opinions: "When musical thoughts are lacking then the lietmotiv comes in handy." "There used to be little concert halls and great artists, now there are great concert halls, but——." "An artist who gives a concert wishes to learn the judgment of the public on his performance. The easiest way would be, instead of charging the public for admission, to ask them at the end for such contributions as they thought he deserved. This would be a test of the applause, and would check the flood of concerts."

The first production of The Goddess of Reason, Johann Strauss' new operetta, has created quite a sensation in Vienna, for on the banks of the Danube all the compositions of the popular master pass for chefs d'oeuvre. Without going quite so far as to believe that, there seems no reason to doubt that Strauss' new operetta, which is running at the Theater an der Wien, is worthy of most of the flattering things that the Vienna press says about it. Strauss was struck with a strange idea, though, when he sought the motive for gay waltzes in the most sombre period of the French Revolution. The action passes in the year 1793, partly in the camp at Chalons, and partly in a pensionnat. The music from one end to the other of The Goddess of Reason is as full of melody as if Strauss was in the vigor of his days, instead of having passed his seventy-second birthday. There was only one shadow on the brightness of the first night's success—Strauss was prevented by illness from attending the performance.

THE MINER'S SOCIETY.

The regular quarterly session of the Alameda County Miners' Association was held last evening in St. Andrew's Hall. Professor S. B. Cristy of the State University occupied the chair and made a short opening address.

Thomas Mein, the well known South African mine owner, described mining in that country. He said that the Miners' Association of South Africa held monthly meetings, which were attended by all the owners and practical workmen. Ideas and methods were exchanged, and great benefit was derived. Most of the successful work in South Africa, said he, was done by Californians. Capital was more abundant because it was treated more honestly.

Don't let that cough hang on any longer; it may make you serious trouble and become constitutional, and possibly lead to pneumonia. You will find that ordinary cough specifics will not reach the seat of trouble; you must take something to build up and reinforce the body. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil will usually do that when every other thing fails, at least that is the verdict of the people as well as the medical profession. It is particularly true of children and all weak, delicate persons.

GREATEST OF ALL PHYSICIANS.

Discoverer of Paine's Celery Compound to Whom Thousands Owe Their Life and Happiness

"Excepting its handful of magnificent statesmen and its military heroes," says the most recent writer upon America, "the people owe more to Dartmouth's physician teacher than to any one man.

"In every walk of life, among the highest office holders at Washington, in the homes of the best people in the large cities, among the every day folks of the country, families in comfortable circumstances, families that 'live from hand to mouth,' and could not, if they wished, afford the services of any but an ordinary physician—everywhere I have met people to whom Paine's celery compound has been a blessing."

The story of the life work of this giant among men has been often told and is familiar to most readers. The likeness above is probably the best portrait of him yet printed.

It was the world-famed discovery by Prof. Phelps of an infallible cure for those fearful ills that result from an impaired nervous system and impure blood which has endeared the great doctor to the world, and made his life an era in the practice of medicine.

Prof. Phelps was born in Connecticut and graduated in medicine at Yale.

His unusual talent soon brought him reputation and prominence among his professional brethren. First he was elected to the professorship of anatomy and surgery in the Vermont University. Next he was appointed lecturer on materia medica and medical botany in Dartmouth College. The next year he was chosen professor of the chair then vacated by Prof. Robby, and occupied the chair, the most important one in the country, at the time when he first formulated his most remarkable prescription.

In view of the overwhelming testimony to the value of Paine's celery compound that has recently appeared from men and women of national reputation, the picture of Prof. Phelps is particularly interesting.

The fact is, Paine's celery compound is not a patent medicine; it is not a sarsaparilla, it is not a mere tonic; it is not an ordinary nervine—it is as far beyond them all as the diamond is superior to cheap glass.

It makes people well. It is the one true specific recognized and prescribed today by eminent practitioners for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system. Prof. Phelps gave to his profession a positive cure for sleeplessness, wasting strength, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, all nervous diseases and kidney troubles. For all such complaints Paine's celery compound has succeeded where all else where everything else has failed.

No remedy was ever so highly recommended, because none ever accomplished so much.

Today Paine's celery compound stands without compeer for feeding exhausted nerves and building up the strength of the body. It cures radically and permanently. The nervous prostration and general debility from which thousands of women suffer so long that it finally gets to be a second nature with them—all this suffering and despondency can be very soon removed by properly feeding the nerves and rejecting the unhealthy blood by a fresher, more highly vitalized fluid. A healthy increase in weight and good spirits follow the use of Paine's celery compound.

Paine's celery compound is the most remarkable medical achievement of the last half of the nineteenth century.

CADAVERS IN SECTIONS.

Grewsome Relics of the Human Form That Will Not Down.

Dismembered Limbs Which Found Their Way to the Crematory.

The mystery of the lake remains a mystery, although the Coroner's office feels reasonably sure that the body was placed in the lake by medical students. The finding of a human leg in the lake by William Rowe was printed in last evening's Tribune Later Louis Price found part of the trunk not far from where the leg was found When Deputy Coroner Quellen went for the portion of the trunk found by Price he discovered a third piece near by. The body was that of a man and had been in the water at least a couple of weeks

Coroner Baldwin is investigating the matter and the Police Department is giving the affair some attention, but the opinion prevails that nothing more than the dissection and subsequent sinking of a body has taken place

"I think the body was dissected by some doctor or medical students," said Police Captain Wilson today, "and the parts thrown in the lake as the easiest means to dispose of them They may have been thrown outside and washed in by the tide"

Another part of the body was found today and taken to the Morgue It was the upper portion of the trunk and a part of the arm

There are many wild stories going the rounds of dismembered portions of human bodies having been found on the platform of the crematory at Twenty fourth and Peralta One story is to the effect that a human heart had been picked up on the platform by a scavenger and another is that the foot of a negro was found

The crematory people say that the only thing of the kind which has been reported to them was that there had been found three toes in a vial of alcohol having come presumably from the laboratory of some physician

SIMPLY SUSPENDED

The Smith Case Heard and Decided by the Commission.

FAIR'S CHARGES DISPOSED OF.

Testimony as to the Article Published in the "Tribune."

DISMISSAL IS DECLINED.

The Chemical Foreman Will Be Out for Ten More Days.

A municipal court-martial attracted a large attendance to the rooms of the Police and Fire Commissioners at 10 o'clock this morning The occasion was the trial of Foreman W B Smith of the Fire Department for 'insubordination by causing the publication of an article in the Evening Tribune of this city issued to the public on the evening of March 31st of this year, which article was detrimental to the discipline and welfare of the Fire Department of this city

The charges were filed by Chief Fair a few days ago so as to substantiate his action in suspending Smith on April 1st, the day after the article complained of in the Tribune

In order to watch the effect of the struggle between the two aspirants for the head of the Fire service, a number of members of the department, some Councilmen and a sprinkling of politicians assembled today and awaited anxiously the commencement of the proceedings Chief Fair was on hand in uniform while Smith who was in plain clothes, was accompanied by his attorneys, Emil Nusbaumer and Mortimer Smith

Commissioners Clement and Thomas were first on the scene and took chairs at the table awaiting the arrival of City Attorney Dow the president of the Board. Mr. Dow threw a bombshell into the camp directly he took his seat, for he announced that it had been decided that the Board would conduct all such cases in the Mayor's office and that only members of the Board, such Councilmen as might be present, the attorneys in the case and members of the press could participate. This threw a damper on the lobby, for the Board immediately retired to an inner chamber

When the Commissioners got ready for business the only persons present outside of the immediate participants were Councilmen Rowe and Heitmann The charges had been read in the outer chamber, so there was no occasion for delay and Attorney Emil Nusbaumer set the ball rolling by moving that the charges be dismissed He said that there was no testimony on which the Board could act as the article in the Tribune was not prima facie evidence. "If this matter is reprehensible for Smith it is the more so for Fair, as the head of the department" he said. "I am sorry that this matter has come up, for it is detrimental to the city. These troubles, of course, always exist. Firemen have their jealousies and passions the same as attorneys, but they should not be on the surface"

As there was no apparent inclination on the part of the Commissioners to make the dismissal desired, every one settled down to work Mayor Thomas had a suggestion to offer. He insisted that the investigation should be strictly confined to the charges made. The Mayor also lamented that the matter should have got into print and remarked that it was impossible to get along without discipline

Secretary Thomas now read the article in the Tribune complained of by Chief Fair and G F. Hatton was the first witness called

Hatton, on being sworn, testified that the first information he obtained as to the story published in the Tribune was during a walk up Broadway on the morning of the day it appeared An article had been printed in the morning papers stating that Mayor Thomas and Commissioner Clement had held an over-night conference and had agreed to appoint Fred A Campbell chief of the Fire Department. While Hatton was talking with Campbell a man unknown to him stopped and joined in the conversation, after which Hatton was asked if he had heard the story about the row between Chief Fair and Foreman Smith On his replying in the negative he was told that the two men had quarreled and that during the row personal recriminations ensued and that there was a good story in it

Hatton further testified that he had then in an endeavor to corroborate the story, called on Smith at the engine house and had obtained from him the story as related in the Tribune He testified that he knew nothing of the details until he had conversed with Smith but had got some of the incidents in a general way.

Chief Fair asked the witness a few questions and then cross-examination took place There was no denial of the Tribune story and the queries brought forth nothing new

Attorney Nusbaumer now moved again that the charges be dismissed on the ground that it had not been shown that Smith had caused the publication in the Tribune His appeal was not granted so he went on a new tack and asked that Chief Fair be sworn.

The questions put to the chief brought forth instant objections from Mr. Dow, Attorney Nusbaumer wanted to know if it was not a fact that the night before the article appeared in the Tribune Chief Fair had been spreading the story and had told it to Messrs Jordan and Conners of the Examiner

Dow objected to the questions on the ground that even if Fair had done so it had no bearing on the charge under investigation

Nusbaumer replied that if permitted, he would show that Fair had preferred the charges against Smith through special malice and spite Furthermore, that Fair had said he would "break Smith and also that Fair had brought the charges so as to injure and nullify Smith's prospects of becoming the head of the Fire Department

Dow, however still refused to accept on his part this line of testimony and when his ruling was announced Nusbaumer told him plainly, "I don't think it is fair"

Mayor Thomas now expressed himself "If I were a foreman" he said, "and a chief made threats to break me I would prefer charges and present them to the Commissioners In this case there was a storm brewing and it broke out"

Commissioner Clement said that as far as he was concerned he would like to hear all the testimony in the case.

Hatton was now asked whether if Smith had not given him the story it would have appeared in the Tribune He replied that it would, for if he had not been able to obtain corroboration in that direction he would have endeavored to do so in other ways

Attorney Nusbaumer now made some additional efforts to give evidence showing that the story had been spread about town by Chief Fair long before it had been given by Smith to the Tribune man, but President Dow said that that line of evidence would not figure anyhow, as the only thing to be decided was whether or not Smith had been guilty of insubordination

Nusbaumer urged that as a matter of self defense his client had the right to make statements in response to those circulated by Chief Fair, but as his argument still failed to reach Dow's heart he abandoned it He then said that under the conditions it was impossible to present any more of the case in response to Fair's charges, and he therefore would simply state that it had not been shown in any way that Smith had 'caused the publication in the Tribune'

It would doubtless have been better for Smith to have told the reporters 'I have nothing to say" continued Mr Nusbaumer but that was simply an error of judgment"

This ended the proceedings John Rohan and John Fernando Conners, who had been subpoenaed were in attendance but were not required in view of the rulings by President Dow so the three Commissioners looked at each other and then announced that the case was taken under advisement

THE DECISION.

The Commissioners then retired and deliberated for about twenty minutes after which they went into session again and disposed of the case by suspending Smith for twenty days dating from April 1st

THOMAS WINS THE SEAT

He Has a Plurality Over Davie of 87 Votes.

Futile Attempt to Have the Vote of Whole Precincts Thrown Out

Ex-Mayor Davie's recount has fallen flat Last night the ballots were practically all counted Davie's grand total is 2 950 against 2 962 by the official returns—a loss of twelve votes, Thomas is given 3 016 as against 3 071 by the official figures, a loss of fifty-five votes There yet remains in the reserve fifty-five ballots all for Thomas. These are being acted upon today.

The twelve reserved Davie ballots were thrown out this morning when Judge Hall sustained the objections of Attorney W R Davis Of forty-three Thomas ballots disputed, twenty-two were allowed and twenty-one barred There yet remain a few ballots to decide upon and testimony will be required from the election officers in the second and fourth precincts of the second ward the first second and third of the third ward the second of the fifth and all of the seventh ward

Late this afternoon it was announced that the corrected recount gave Davie 2 948 and Thomas 3 035, a plurality for the latter of 87

This gave Thomas the seat.

Attorney De Golia then moved to have the vote in the ten precincts enumerated thrown out on the ground that the officers who had acted in them were not on the last assessment roll

The court refused to grant the motion

Mr De Golia then moved to amend his motion but counsel for the defendant objected, and the objection was sustained

Mr De Golia then sought to have the vote of two precincts of the Seventh Ward thrown out on the ground that the election officers had not opened them at the legal hour in the morning

"SYCAMORE" IS DEAD.

Ex-Senator D. W. Voorhees of Indiana Expires in Washington.

END OF A SUCCESSFUL LIFE.

The Law-Maker Falls Weak and Helpless in His Son's Arms.

TAKEN OFF BY HEART DISEASE.

The Deceased at One Time Was a Great Democratic Leader.

By Associated Press to The Tribune

WASHINGTON, April 10—Daniel Walsh Voorhees ex-United States Senator from the State of Indiana, died at 5 o'clock this morning at his home in this city

The Senator had been in poor health for several years and for at least two years past had taken little part in the proceedings in the Senate He had been a constant sufferer from rheumatism of the heart and his friends therefore had come to expect that they might hear of his death suddenly.

The last reports of him, however, were that he was showing some signs of improvement and his death therefore, while not entirely unexpected, came with the suddenness of a shock At the time of his retirement from the Senate the Tall Sycamore of the Wabash" as he was affectionately called by his followers in the Hoosier State, was the ranking Democrat on the Finance Committee, and by virtue of his position the nominal leader at least of his party on the floor of the Senate on the tariff and financial questions

He was not very active however, owing to his ill health, in the work of the Wilson tariff bill

In the repeal of the Sherman silver law the Hoosier Senator, however, took a very prominent part It was his last important work in the Senate

Voorhees death was caused by an attack of angina pectoris The Senator's health was so poor during the recent political campaign that he could not participate in it but after his return to Washington in November he seemed to improve in health

Two weeks ago his old rheumatic troubles returned, and three days ago he became more alarmingly ill, but the Senator did not confine himself to bed and his family felt no immediate alarm

It was not indeed, until half an hour before the final summons came that any one realized that death was near

The Senator's son, Rees N Voorhees, had remained in the room with his father during the night and was awakened about 4 o'clock this morning by his father, who was suffering great pain in the region of his heart

He refused however, to allow a physician to be called, saying that the pain would pass away

Half an hour later he appeared much better and got out of bed to walk to the bath room, the son being with him.

When they reached the hallway, the Senator was attacked by a more severe spasm than he had yet experienced and fell in a semi-conscious condition into his son's arms

The latter carried the dying man back to the bed and summoned Dr Shoup It was too late, however, for the ex-Senator soon passed away without regaining full consciousness

His only son, Rees, his daughter, Miss Hallie Voorhees, and the physician were present when he died

The remains will be taken to Terre Haute, Indiana, the Senator's home, for many years, for interment.

(Daniel W Voorhees, the American jurist and statesman, was born in Butler County, Ohio, September 26 1827, and in 1849 was graduated at what has, during later years, been known as "De Pauw University"

Upon his admission to the bar in 1851 he began the practice of law at Covington, Indiana, and soon established a reputation as a public speaker

In 1858 he was appointed United States Attorney of Indiana, and during his official career proceeded to Harper's Ferry and appeared as counsel for John E Cook, one of the John Brown band

He was a member of Congress from 1861 to 1866, and again from 1869 to 1872, serving as a member of the more important committees

In November, 1877, he became United States Senator from Indiana vice Oliver P Morton, deceased, and was elected to that body in 1879 and again in 1885 He enjoyed a national reputation as an orator and legislator

He served later in the Senate, remaining in that body until about two years ago

The deceased was well fixed in a financial sense, a competency being left to his family)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10—For the second time William Henry Theodore Durrant was this morning sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Blanche Lamont at the Emmanuel Church two years ago this month

The sentence of death was pronounced by Superior Judge Bahrs in the presence of a crowd of spectators who packed the largest court room in the City Hall, many being unable to obtain admission

The court sentenced Durrant to be hanged at San Quentin prison on June 11th

The condemned man will be taken across the bay this afternoon by Sheriff Whelan, who will be glad to be relieved of the responsibility of guarding Durrant further

He fears that Durrant will try to commit suicide when all hope of a new trial finally leaves him.

Attorney Deuprey for the defense moved to strike out from the court's order all reference to his (Durrant's) confinement in San Quentin

The motion was denied

Deuprey then filed a notice of his appeal from the order of the court and asked for a certificate of probable cause which was denied

Deuprey then asked for a delay of four hours that he might bring his application for a certificate of probable cause before the Supreme Court

This also was denied

Teachers Meet to Profit by the Annuity Act.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM PREVAILS.

Speeches by Profs. Fisher, McClymonds and Others.

ANNUAL ELECTIONS OPPOSED.

Committees to Be Appointed at a Meeting Two Weeks Hence.

The Alameda County Teachers' Benefit Association met this morning in the High School and held an important meeting in relation to the teachers' annuity act recently passed by the State Legislature.

President P. M. Fisher presided. Consideration of the proposed amendments of the constitution of the association was postponed until the next meeting, with one exception, the amendment reducing the annual dues from $2 to 50 cents, which was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The following vote of thanks was tendered to the Alameda County members of the State Legislature:

"Resolved, That the Alameda County Teachers' Benefit Association offer a vote of thanks to Senators Beard, Denison and Stratton, and Assemblymen Wright, Clark, Waymire and Breiling for their valuable assistance in securing the passage of the teachers' annuity act during the last session of the Legislature."

A motion tendering thanks to P. M. Fisher, Miss French and other members of the association who had worked for the successful passage of the bill was enthusiastically passed.

State Senator F. S. Stratton, who was invited to be present and address the teachers on the features of the teachers' annuity bill, was prevented from attending. The following letter was read from him:

STRATTON'S LETTER.

"Oakland, April 9, 1897.—P. M. Fisher, Esq., room 23, O. H. S. building, Oakland. Dear Mr. Fisher: I regret my inability to be present at the meeting of teachers and to address you relative to the Jones annuity law. I gave my cordial support to this measure in the Senate of the State Legislative session just closed, and did so because I deemed the pending bill a most meritorious one, and further for the reason that it had the almost unanimous advocacy of teachers all over California, and particularly from Alameda County. This law was thoroughly debated in both branches of the Legislature and reflects the will of the people. I hope upon all grounds that the teachers for whose benefit it was designed will earnestly co-operate in making its permissive provisions operative, and will, upon their part, embrace fully the opportunities presented by this law. Very truly yours, F. S. STRATTON."

President P. M. Fisher spoke of the advisability of appointing a committee to collect data in regard to teachers' tenure of office.

"We want to make this association a strong one," said he, "and to do so we must stand together and work for the same end. If the association is worth anything it will take action in regard to a statement made recently by a member of the Board of Education, who said that the city charter provides that all teachers be elected annually."

DIRECTOR MISTAKEN.

"The Director who said that is mistaken," declared Secretary McClymonds of the Board of Education. This announcement was received with applause.

"We must, however, see to it that no teacher is dropped without just cause," continued Mr. Fisher. "We have little to fear now, perhaps, as we have one of the best Boards of Education in this city that was ever elected anywhere in the State. Still, it is perhaps advisable to have a committee appointed to look into the question of tenure of office. The present time is propituous for civil service regulation."

A resolution was adopted authorizing the chairman to appoint a committee of seven for this purpose.

T. A. McCarthy, principal of the Washington High School of San Francisco, who was one of the most energetic workers for the passage of the annuity bill, was introduced and explained many of the features of the bill, taking the clauses up one by one.

He stated that in San Francisco 712 teachers had already organized a society in accordance with the provisions of the bill.

Secretary McClymonds was asked to address the teachers in regard to the bill.

McCLYMONDS TALKS.

"I want to say," he said, "that I hope the teachers will take legal advice concerning the provisions of the bill in order to be safe. I think the bill good and drawn up with care, and can be read and interpreted with ease. I do not think it to the interest of teachers to ask the public to contribute to the fund, at least not until it has been thoroughly discussed in the public prints. I think public sentiment is opposed to pensioning teachers. The minute the public pays into the fund, it means a pension, but when we pay, it's an annuity. Under the bill the teacher gets what we pay the substitute. In San Francisco a teacher receives on the average $79 a month, and a substitute, only $40, so the department saves about half the salary by taking advantage of the teachers' misfortune. I should favor that if the department saves anything by a teacher's absence it should go to the annuity fund."

PROF. GARLICK.

Mr. Garlick spoke in favor of the bill, expressing his sympathy with its provisions. He said that he was anxious to have the country teachers notified of the bill, its provisions, etc., and made a motion that a committee of five be appointed, Mr. Fisher to be chairman, to frame an appeal to the country teachers.

Mr. Fisher suggested that another meeting be held two weeks from today, at 10 o'clock, when an organization should be effected under the provisions of the bill.

Prof. McChesney and Miss French made short speeches in regard to various provisions of the measure.

Mr. McCarthy recommended that the organization be by schools, which would prevent confusion, also that duplicates be made of the names of members in each organization. He assured the teachers of the legality of such a method. The motion to appoint a committee was then voted on and carried.

After a vote of thanks had been tendered to Professor McCarthy the meeting adjourned.

Among the 125 teachers present at the meeting were the following: Prof. McChesney of the High School, Secretary McClymonds of the Board of Education, County Superintendent Garlick, P. M. Fisher, Miss Wythe, Principal Dunbar, Miss Frank, County Superintendent Garlick, Principal Young of Alameda, Miss McNeeley, Miss Lisson, Mr. McCarthy of San Francisco, Miss French, Mr. Young, Miss Cooke, Miss Keefer, Miss Duran, Miss Mullen, Miss Hilton, Miss Larkin, Miss Stuart, Mr. Garlick, Mr. Dunbar, Miss Madden, Mr. Garvin, Miss McFarland, Miss Byrod, Mr. Sullivan, Miss Powell, Mrs. Hawkins, Miss Wythe, Miss French, Mrs. Campbell, Miss O'Meara, Miss Leet, Miss Cook, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Washburn, Miss Morris, Miss Gilmore, Miss Fibush, Mr. Gilson, Miss Kimbal, Miss McFeely, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Kingman, Miss Zable, Mr. Young, Miss Bradbury, Mrs. Ellis and Miss Brown.

Captain Wethern Retires From Captaincy of Co. F.

A Position on the Division Staff Causes His Retirement.

Captain Wethern has handed in his resignation as captain of Company F, Fifth Regiment, N. G. C.

The resignation was somewhat of a surprise, and is rendered necessary because of the acceptance of the captain of a commission as major on the Division Staff of the National Guard.

Captain Wethern has been in the service nine years, and has been captain of Company F about half that time.

There is a new fight going on among those who are anxious to succeed him, but no one so far seems to have a sure thing.

The rules of the company permit the election of any one, whether in the regiment or not, who after election can qualify.

Lieutenant Cobbledick and Second Lieutenant Wenk are both anxious to be elected to the vacated place, but there is a strong sentiment in favor of Major Hayes.

It is stated that he could be elected, if he would signify his intention to accept.

EXPENSE TO DECIDE.

Electricity May Be Used on Local Broad-Gauge Lines.

ENGINEERS ARE NOW FIGURING

C.P. Huntington Will Make the Change If Reports Be Favorable.

IS ALREADY ADOPTED EAST.

Would Naturally Change the Status of Seventh Street.

No less an authority than President C. P. Huntington of the Southern Pacific Company states that if the local ferry lines can be operated more cheaply with electricity than by steam the change will be made.

For the past four years the question has been mooted and at various times rumors have been given currency that the change was contemplated, but it is now known that the matter is in the hands of the railroad engineers and that their reports will finally determine the matter one way or the other. There are about 17,000,000 people annually carried over the ferries of the company, and a majority of them are those who travel by the broad gauge line, which has forty miles of track between Oakland and Fruitvale, Alameda and Berkeley. Mr. Huntington is of the opinion that an electric system can be maintained at less cost than the present system.

"We have to keep up with the improvements of the times," said Mr. Huntington yesterday. "Electricity as a motive power is now a great factor in city and suburban travel, and I think we will find a way soon to use it for the Southern Pacific's suburban passenger travel. When we get ready for electric cars, we will put them on the broad gauge ferry lines. I have had engineers busy for some time past preparing a report on the proposition. When it is ready I can talk more intelligently than at present. If electricity is cheaper than steam the latter will have to take a back seat. Steam is cheaper now for the handling of the general business of the railroads, but I will not be surprised if electricity is eventually used altogether as the motive power for railway transportation.

"As to the economy of using electricity for railroad suburban travel, I am inclined to give a favorable answer as far as I have investigated the subject. Experiments are being repeatedly made in various parts of the country, and the proposition will soon be settled. Getting things down to the lowest minimum of cost is one of the essential conditions for success in the industrial world generally, and this fact is especially true in the successful handling of traffic by railroads. We shall try electric cars on the broad gauge ferry lines one of these days, for our own satisfaction, in determining the cost and efficiency of the service, provided our engineers do not report unfavorably on the proposition."

"The present tracks can be used for electric cars, which, if adopted, would probably be propelled by motors, instead of the overhead trolley system.

"Six, seven or ten electric cars may make a train, the speed of which would depend solely on the strength of the current. It is not proposed to use the electric cars for freight or for aught but ferry traffic."

THE STUDENTS CO-OPERATE

Officers Are Elected by the Organization for Next Year.

How Diamonds Are Manufactured at the University of California.

BERKELEY, April 10.—A large crowd of organized rooters went over to cheer on the representatives of the blue and gold in their first baseball game with Stanford at Central Park. The team as decided on consists of Sykes and Kaarsbub pitcher, Wilson catcher, Hennessey first base, Elston second base, Krug third base, McClaren shortstop, Hoag left field, Kaarsberg center and Hall right. An excellent batting game was promised by both teams.

The Students Co-operative Association of the University met yesterday afternoon and elected officers for next term. Ralph Marshall was re-elected manager, Professor Haskell president and George Clark secretary. The Commercial Bank will have charge of the funds. The Board of Directors consists of Professor Haskell, Professor Plehn, George Clark, Edward T. Clark, Ralph Marshall and William Mein.

The nominations were all made by McWade, '97, and these nominations were immediately closed, with only one candidate for each office. There is a great deal of dissatisfaction, and talk of "slates" in connection with the affair. Some who wished to be candidates were unable to have their names proposed, on account of the high handed way in which the election was carried on. The Occident will have something to say of the matter in its next issue.

Prof. Felix Langfeld of the University of Chicago, who has just spent six months in the laboratory of Moisau, the famous Parisian chemist, lectured before a large audience yesterday in the chemistry building, on the manufacture of diamonds.

Small furnaces of carbon are heated to 3,500 degrees Centigrade by an electric current of low voltage, but of 1,100 amperes. The operation is very dangerous, and one furnace can be used only two or three times. About two pounds of pure iron is put in the furnace, with the same volume of pure carbon, procured by treating sugar with sulphuric acid. The furnace is heated for ten minutes and then allowed to cool, and among the new chemical compounds are found very small diamonds, weighing only a few milligrams. The experiment is dangerous on account of poisonous gases, but is extremely interesting as an experiment.

It has been decided that the commencement day exercises this term will be held in Harmon gymnasium, beginning at 2 P. M. The date is May 12th. Miss Schwarschild and A. G. Van Gorder have thus far been chosen as speakers. The graduate, medical and law departments are each entitled to a speaker, and will select them soon. The medalist will be announced during the exercises. So far Miss Grace Cope, Charles Elston and Frank Tade are thought to be leading in the race. Miss Cope is a graduate of the Oakland High School. The exercises will be in charge of President Kellogg, Professor Howison, Professor Setchell and Professor Bradley. Admission will probably be by invitations, distributed by the members of the class.

The recent discovery that only electors may hold office in Berkeley is having more widespread effects than had been imagined. The candidates for Library Trustees on the Prohibition ticket are all ladies, and as such are not eligible to office, and will be dropped from the ballot. The candidates were Mrs. Ruth Armstrong, Mrs. S. Haight, Miss H. M. Conners, Mrs. A. W. Naylor and Mrs. Mary Smith.

The Ecclesia Debating Society of the Berkeley High School has elected the following officers: Miss Nellie Hamlin president, Miss E. Trowbridge vice president, Miss Bertha Vorvalin treasurer and Miss H. Frieuler secretary.

Union services were held in the West Berkeley Presbyterian Church last night. Dr. Stratton, Prof. Bailey and B. D. Woods spoke on "Christian Service."

The Oakland High School Debating Society held its final preliminaries yesterday. The speakers who will go against Berkeley, and the order of their speaking, are as follows: Ralph Fisher, Jewett Earle and Ben Reed. Clarence Creed was chosen as substitute.

The residence of M. Cohen of Peralta Park was burned yesterday morning. The damage is estimated at $1,325, covered by insurance.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Oakland District Societies Are to Assemble at Stockton.

The Epworth Leagues of the Oakland District Methodist Episcopal Church will hold their third annual session in the Central M. E. Church, Stockton, April 13th and 14th.

The convention opens at 9 A. M. Tuesday and closes Wednesday at 5 P. M.

An interesting programme has been arranged, discussing the following and other subjects: "Street Meetings," "Relation of the League to the Sunday School," "Books That Influenced Me," "Junior Work," "The Finances," "The Shut-ins," "Conversions," "Missions."

In addition to these subjects, Rev. Joseph F. Berry, D. D., of Chicago, editor of the Epworth Herald, will be present and give round tables on the following subjects: "The Literary Spoke," "Young People and Entertainment," "That President of Ours," "The Devotional Meeting and Its Leader." Dr. Berry will also conduct a question drawer, which in itself will prove interesting and helpful. The convention will close with a Pentecostal service conducted by Mrs. Emily McCargar of this city.

Large delegations are going from the societies of Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley.

These delegates will take the 8 P. M. boat at Clay street wharf, San Francisco, Monday evening, April 12th.

Members of other young people's societies are cordially invited to accompany them and enjoy both the steamer excursion and the convention.

A ROAD ON THE SUMMIT

The Proposed Route Will Be Looked Into Tomorrow.

Certainty of Another Driveway Over the Contra Costa Hills.

The Merchants' Exchange is determined, if possible, to have a fine boulevard that shall connect the Claremont road with the Thorn hill road and extend into the Moraga valley.

To carry out this project it will be necessary for the new portion of the road to pass through the property of the Adams' estate and it has been stated that an effort will be made to secure a right of way from the estate.

"All I know about the matter is what I have read in the newspapers," said Edson Adams this morning. "I do not, at present understand the proposition, although I have a general idea of the plans. I would like to have the matter placed before me in detail by the men who have the affair in hand. Some years ago a plan was submitted to us and a proposition made but that was not carried out and I cannot tell just now what may be done."

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the Merchants' Exchange will take an excursion from their headquarters over the proposed route. They have sent out many invitations and plenty of carriages will be on hand.

The members of the Exchange are satisfied that Mr. Adams will oppose no obstacle to the running of the road through his property, especially where they will be able to assure him that the road will "run somewhere" instead of stopping abruptly on the side of some hill. It is the intention of the Exchange to make the road "run somewhere." In this respect, they are in accord with Mr. Adams and are confident that they will be able to convince him of the fact.

Christian Endeavor Work.

(This department is under the management of the Press Committee of Oakland City Union of Christian Endeavor Societies.)

Last Sunday the Juniors of the First Methodist Episcopal Church held a Sabbath observance meeting. They took the fourth commandment for the scripture lesson and the meeting was led by one of the Juniors. He read the lesson and then called for other scripture verses about keeping the Sabbath and then asked questions about the abuse of the day. The boys and girls responded without hesitation and were all so interested that when the Superintendent suggested that they elect a Lord's Day committee they immediately elected their officers, with the Vice President for chairman, as their committee.

The meeting closed with a very interesting exercise. Twenty Juniors, twelve boys and eight girls, received little Christian Endeavor pins as rewards for attendance, without one tardiness, at every meeting of the society for three months, unless excused on account of sickness.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Presbyterian Church held its semi-annual election on March 31.

The officers to serve for the coming six months are, President, P. E. Gibson, (re-elected); Vice President, Miss Julia Fraser; Recording Secretary, Mr. W. W. Jenkins; Treasurer, Miss Anna Helmbold (re-elected); and Miss M. E. Raymond is Corresponding Secretary. The office of corresponding secretary is always permanent or as nearly so as possible.

The wideawake '97 committee of the Volunteer Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church has planned to present, on every meeting night for the next three months, some item of interest pertaining to the '97 Convention or the preparation being made for that gathering. Tomorrow evening, the new song, "Golden Poppies," composed for the Convention, will be sung by the Volunteer quartette. Although originally written as a solo, it has been rearranged for this quartette and the arrangement is even more effective than the original.

This society has just completed the first six months of its existence. Starting with a membership of 39, it now numbers nearly 60. It has raised $142 for Christian Endeavor and missionary work since its organization.

Dr. Wilbur F. Crafts, of the Reform Bureau at Washington, writes that California is leading all the States in the number of Lord's Day committees organized, sixty-three being already reported, but that Pennsylvania is likely to more than match its record by the local closing of several postoffices, for each of which one hundred credits is allowed.

Topics for Sunday, April 18.—An Easter lesson. Different kinds of death and the conquest of them. I Cor: 1550-58.

These thoughts were written by Mr. W. T. Ellis and the questions by A. R. Wells, who write for the host of Endeavorers the world over.

"The death that is called indifference, and that makes men listlessly live their lives without aim or object, should be conquered for the Christian by the serving Lord who has given to every man his work. We cannot be imitators of Christ without having our lives filled with a tremendous and overmastering purpose.

To sin is death. Transgression earns the grave. The sinner is condemned. But, matchless grace! over this death, this grave, this condemnation, Jesus Christ has got the victory, and has given full and free life to him who merited nothing but destruction. Through Christ and in him we live, having passed from death unto life.

Unbelief died at the resurrection. Because Christ has risen, then is our hope not in vain. That open tomb and living Lord incontestably declare to all men in all ages that Jesus is the very Son of God."

LEACH AT WASHINGTON.

He Declares That His Visit Is Regardless of Politics.

A dispatch from Washington dated last evening says:

"Frank A. Leach arrived in the city tonight with his wife, and was the guest of Congressman Hilborn, who today returned from Boston, where he had gone to witness the trial trip of the new battleship Iowa. Mr. Leach said his visit was entirely on private business, and had no relation whatever to politics. Members of the California delegation say there is no possible reason to believe the delegation will alter its action in regard to the endorsement of Mr. Leach for Superintendent of the Mint. None of them have received any information of the reported visit of Eli Denison, who is also after the place.

"Congressman Hilborn denies that he is making any effort whatever to secure the District Judgeship, or that he would accept the position if offered to him.

FIGHTING DISEASE.

Why All Physicians Should Report on Malignant Ailments.

A NEW ORDINANCE PROPOSED.

How an Epidemic of Smallpox Was Happily Averted.

CHINESE CLOTHES SPRAYING.

A Variety of Subjects Before the Board of Health.

"Many cases are mistaken for chicken pox, when they are something else. Not three weeks ago, I was called to Temescal to treat a child with the chicken pox. It was only through the intervention of the Lord that the whole community was not stricken, for the child was suffering with the most malignant form of that dread disease, small pox I found the child covered with the black scabs of small pox and yet, the poor family thought it was but an ordinary case of chicken pox"

Thus spoke Dr Small at the meeting of the Board of Health last evening and his words caused his listeners to shudder.

It was while the Board was considering an ordinance to be recommended to the Council amending the ordinance requiring the reporting of cases of sickness to the Board of Health.

The ordinance is as follows, the amendment being the addition of the names of diseases—mumps, measles and chicken pox:

"Every physician in the city of Oakland shall immediately report to the health office in writing, every patient he shall have sick of typhus, or ship fever, yellow fever, Asiatic cholera, small pox, diphtheria, scarlatina, typhoid fever, malarial fever, mumps, or measles and chicken pox and shall report to the health office every death from such disease immediately after it shall have occurred.

"Every householder in the city of Oakland shall forwith report in writing to the health office the name of every inmate of his or her house, whom he or she shall have reason to believe sick of typhus or ship fever, yellow fever, Asiatic cholera, small pox, diphtheria, scarlatina, typhoid fever or malaria fever, mumps or measles, chicken pox and any death occuring at his or her house from such disease"

An objection had been made to the amendment that the minor terms were useless.

POPULAR MISTAKE.

"I'll never agree with the popular idea that everyone must have the measles," said Dr. Chamberlain. "People seem to think that as long as we must have measles some time it is better to have them while young. I think by making a strong effort measles could eventually be eradicated"

The ordinance will be recommended to the Council.

The meeting lasted for over two hours and a half and was one of the most important ones held this year Dr Mrs Shuey was in the chair and there were present, Drs Small, Chamberlain and Larkey. Secretary Schaffer read the minutes of the previous meeting and then Health Officer Bradley read his quarterly report. It was as follows.

DR BRADLEY'S REPORT.

"The nuisance complained of on the lot of J C. Quinn was abated a few days ago by pumping out the stagnant water. Since then the pond has again filled nearly up to where it was before and no doubt will soon have to be abated again.

"The nuisance complained of on the Clement property (or Tompkins pond, so called,) has not yet been abated, but we still hope to accomplish its abatement although we were beaten in our first attempt in court.

"The Dameron property, consisting of the pickle factory and the Chinese lodging house have been put in fair condition

"Numbers 357, 352½ and 353 Eighth street have been put in fair condition

"Our resolution asking the Board of Education to make a rule that each teacher keep a record of children absent on account of sickness, the kind of sickness and report to the health officer in his quarterly inspection was denied.

"The engine house, No 4, has been repaired and put into good sanitary condition Manhattan Engine House, No 5, has been put into fair sanitary condition

"The city prison has been quite thoroughly overhauled and repaired and is in good condition except as to coldness and dampness

"Some repairs have been made in hose company house No 3, and everything put into good condition except as to the roof water

"The West Oakland free reading room has had a new tank put in since my last inspection.

"A new house has been built for engine company, No 2, and hook and ladder No 1, on Sixth street and it seems to be all right inside as to sanitary conditions, but is not yet occupied

"There has been considerable satisfactory plumbing done in the county jail within the last two months and more is being done The condemned cell is in good condition The United States corridor is now in pretty good condition The condition of the grand jury corridor has been improved The dark closet in Chabot Observatory has been ventilated

"I recommend that this honorable Board ask the City Council to empower the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners to make the following repairs and improvements To repair the connections in the sink in engine house No 1, to conform to the sanitary rules of this city and to place the drains of the horsestalls in such condition that they may be safely flushed and to provide a means by which storm water may be prevented from running through the grates in the alley into the basement of this engine house, to supply the sink in hook and ladder house No 3, with a proper wastepipe and connections and to do proper plumbing in engine house No 3, and to close the sewer in the rear of this house, to arrange so that no roof water shall hereafter run under hose company house No 3, either from its own roof or that of the houses next to it to vent the trap of the plumbing in Engine house No 6 and to fix the water trough by giving its waste pipe proper connections, to provide the hoppers outside of chemical engine house No 3, with suitable bell traps and repair two open rain water leaders and fix the wash at the back of the building so that the water shall run into the sewer instead of under the building to replace the old, defective closet of chemical engine house No 1 and to put in proper trap and hopper at the back of the building

"I recommend that the Board of Free Library Trustees be requested to make repairs and improvements as follows To vent the trap of the wash basin in the back room of the first floor of the library building, because said trap is a constant source of danger

'I recommend that the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County, be requested to make repairs and improvements as follows To see that the trap under the kitchen sink of the Receiving Hospital is put into a proper sanitary condition as to its connection and that the trap of basin in the operating room is fixed so that it will not leak and that the rain water leaders outside of said hospital have their joints made tight, to have the sanitary condition of the Hall of Records be improved; to have the hopper between the old and new buildings kept clean so that they may convey the storm water, if possible, during severe storms, to the sewer, to have the old foul, disease-breeding matting removed from the floor of the jury room of department 4 of the County Court House and from the hall between court room and jury room of department 3; place properly vented traps under the wash basin in department 3, to repair the joints of rain water leaders in the Court House"

The report then calls attention to the Smead system of heating and recommends that the Board of Education insist that the persons responsible for the heaters shall have them so regulated as to give a uniform amount of heat. The report criticises the Smead heater and refers to the dissatisfaction felt toward that system by other cities.

Dr Shuey recommended that the windows of the free reading rooms be thrown open daily and the rooms aired.

Dr Small recommended that the Health Officer be empowered to placard the premises at 830 Webster street, and it was so ordered

Dr Bradley reported that a house at Twelfth and Alice streets had a cellar which was half full of seepage water, but no action was taken in the matter

'I never saw a cellar here filled with water,' remarked Dr Larkey

"I've seen them filled with something stronger than water" said Dr. Small

The following proposed ordinance was recommended to the Council for passage

ORDINANCES ON DISEASES

"Whenever any case of small pox, diphtheria, scarlatina, Asiatic cholera or other contagious disease has existed in any building or other place within the city of Oakland, it shall be the duty of the householder or proprietor of such place, or, if such place has ceased to be occupied, then of the owner thereof to immediately and thoroughly fumigate and disinfect said premises in the manner and to such extent as the health department may direct"

Sanitary Inspector Smith's report was then read, the same as has already been printed in these columns

CHINESE SPRAYING OF CLOTHES.

Dr Chamberlain brought up the matter of the Chinese method of spraying clothes with their mouths He moved that the necessary prohibitory ordinance be drawn and presented to the City Attorney for legal examination and be recommended to the Council for passage

Dr Larkey wished to have embodied in the ordinance a clause regulating the care of laundries. He said he had seen Chinamen in laundry houses sleeping upon the laundered clothes. "If any of you will visit the Chinese laundries," he said, "you will see the same thing They take an especial delight in sleeping upon the ironed sheets I think our Health Officer should draw up such an ordinance"

"I'm not in the habit of visiting Chinese houses, myself," remarked Dr. Small

"Wouldn't it be well," asked Dr. Shuey, "to designate what the proper care of a laundry is?"

"You ought first to know just what you want," said Dr. Bradley before I commence to draw up the ordinance If I'd been getting up the spit ordinance it would not have suited Dr. Larkey"

"I think the Health Officer should make a special inspection of all the Chinese houses," said Dr. Bradley, "and then put in the ordinance what he considered necessary"

"Yes, correct any abuses he may find," added Dr Small

Dr Bradley looked disheartened but kept his own counsel for the time being

"I think we ought to have a report on the question anyway, said Dr. Larkey

"Well, if the doctor feels fresh," said Dr Bradley, "there are twenty or thirty pages of my quarterly report which I left out, but which I would just as soon read"

No one seemed anxious to hear the unread pages, however

'This is really a very serious question," said Dr. Chamberlain. "I understand that certain constitutional diseases are prevalent among the class of Chinese we have here and this is a very easy way to transmit disease, as you will all admit A great many of our families will send their clothes to Chinese laundries It is horrible to think of subjecting innocent little children to this disease, and I think some action should be taken. The best thing to do would be to run them out of town, of course, but we can hardly do that This is more serious than we might imagine. I have seen them spraying clothes with their mouths"

'Spray bread sometimes that way," casually remarked Dr Larkey

MOVE THEM FROM TOWN.

"Look here," said Health Officer Bradley "I have an idea of my own in this matter They ought not to be allowed in the center of the city. They should have a quarter of their own. Those foul rookeries in the heart of the city are a blot that should be removed It is a good thing to be brought to the attention of the Council"

"The regulation of the laundry," said Dr Small, 'is one of the most important things the city of Oakland will have to do Two-thirds of our washing is done by Celestials and we know that constitutional diseases are prevalent among them"

"I have in mind a case," said Dr. Shuey, "that could be traced to no other source. It was a very serious one, indeed"

Health Officer Bradley will draw up an ordinance touching the measure.

An ordinance was recommended for passage to the Council, which requires the connection of stables, public or private with the sewers.

City Veterinarian Pierce reported in regard to Jacob Weil the free market butcher who was lately arrested for selling diseased meat The terribly diseased condition of the meat was described and a portion showing unmistakable signs of tuberculosis was exhibited. Dr Pierce explained that he had had Weil arrested time out of mind, but that it had no effect on him, as he did not seem to care about paying a fine. The Judge and attorneys he said, and public at large thought he was persecuting the old fellow

Dr Small said the veterinarian must do his duty in spite of public opinion and Dr Pierce said he had no idea of doing otherwise Dr Shuey thought Weil sold the meat so low that the poor bought, disease or no disease and she thought the fellow ought to be advertised It was explained to her that Weil had had a great deal of advertising

City Veterinarian Pierce also reported that he had inspected twelve dairies with a total of 933 cows, three of which were suffering from tuberculosis and were killed. Of sixteen samples of milk gathered from wagons all were above the required standard.

Assistant Sanitary Inspector Ott reported Premises inspected as nuisances, 10, re-inspections made, 7, nuisances, 5, nuisances in course of abatement, 5; complaints without cause; number of feet of side sewers inspected, 2,410

Dr Larkey introduced the matter of interment of remains He said that deceased bodies might be kept in Oakland indefinitely and he thought some ordinance should be enacted as is in effect in San Francisco, compelling remains to be buried within five days after death

The secretary was directed to look the matter up to see if in San Francisco there was no provision for dissecting clubs.

TUBERCULIN TEST

The following letter, prepared by City Veterinarian Pierce, was ordered sent to the various Health Boards and Health Officers in the county:

"Knowing as we do that tuberculosis is an infectious disease and can so easily be transmitted to the human being through the medium of our milk and meat supply, and that it exists to an alarming extent in our dairy cows, and believing that the tuberculin test is the only reliable and practical method whereby we can absolutely rid the country from bovine tuberculosis, and realizing that our respective cities are depending upon our Boards of Health to regulate and control all measures regarding sanitation, we believe that it becomes our duty to demand that all dairy cows be subjected to the tuberculin test and all those found to be suffering with tuberculosis killed, and that it be made a general law of Alameda County as it is being done in several counties of the State. For instance Santa Clara County has already tested nearly 4,500 cows, Monterey 2,000 and Sacramento 2,000"

Dr Shuey announced that it was the last meeting of her presidency as her year expired on May 1st She thanked the Board for its courtesy toward her and said she felt assured that if the Board could have accomplished what it had tried to accomplish Oakland would be the most healthful city in the world

Dr Small thanked Dr Shuey for her courtesy toward the members of the Board and for her just rulings during the year and the meeting was adjourned

A new president will be elected at the next meeting, the second Friday in May

THE JAPANESE INVASION.

One of the most interesting passages of history during the close of the present century is the wondrous advance of the Japanese race. Thirty or forty years ago they were hemmed in by all the superstitious traditions of an idolatrous religion, and they held themselves aloof from the world so exclusively that it was rarely any of the islanders were seen away from their own kingdom.

Today finds the conditions almost absolutely reversed There has been a wondrous awakening among the little brown men of the Okhotsk Sea, and, having tasted the sweets of contest during their recent war with their ancient Chinese rival, they are now flooding the Western Hemisphere in a manner that is creating alarm among those who have occasion to fear the invasion of such a peculiarly commercial race. For the Jap is distinctively a destroyer of settled ideas as regards wages and prices He will labor cheaper and take less for the results of his toil than any other trader in such matters, and as he has a remarkable faculty of imitativeness and is quick to learn he soon becomes a dangerous foe to organized and well paid labor

The tocsin of alarm over the invasion of this formidable race has already been sounded in this country, though with little effect as yet, and now Hawaii is up in protest on an issue that may possibly bring about a clash of arms between the Sandwich Islanders and the Japanese. Chief Justice Judd of Honolulu summed up the dangers of the situation on his arrival here the other day in the following language. "What we most fear is that the Japanese, when they gain a numerical supremacy, will think they ought to have political supremacy in the islands. According to the census taken in November last there are now in the islands 24 107 Japanese, 21,616 Chinese, 31,019 Hawaiian natives, 8,000 half castes, 5,360 Americans, 2,259 British, 1,432 Germans, 101 French, 378 Norwegians, 15,-191 Portuguese, 455 South Sea Islanders and 600 of other nationalities. The Japanese are increasing rapidly, and if they continue to come in at the rate of 1,500 a week as they did one week recently, it will not be long before they have overrun all the islands."

It will be interesting to watch what will be the outcome of the Hawaiian perplexity. A decided stand will have to be taken by the Dole administration against the entry of the foreign horde, and then we will see to what extent Japan thinks she is able to take a hand in the affairs of other nations.

FROM OTHER PENS.

The Cleveland Judge who punished an editor for contempt of court in venturing mildly to criticise the acts of his Honor is now enjoying the spectacle of mass meetings held to denounce his conduct and processions of citizens marching before the newspaper office and cheering the editor, says the Springfield Republican That paper, as well as other broad-minded sheets throughout the country believes that when the bench attempts to assert its immunity from all public criticism it invites and deserves just such a return.

The Buffalo Express says. "A German servant girl in New York tried to commit suicide because she had become discouraged after eight months' unsuccessful effort to learn the English language She was new to the country. If she had been here a year, she would have known that it was entirely unnecessary for a servant girl to learn English. The Express man must have had Utah in mind, for he says "She could have insisted on her mistress learning German"

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature of Kentucky which provides for branding of convicted burglars on each cheek Kentucky is a State which still permits public executions. Delaware has the whipping-post and nearly every State in the Union has a capital punishment law on its statute books The above is from the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, which follows with this. "So the country is not wholly given over to what advocates of that sort of thing are fond of calling "sickly sentimentalism."

AS OTHERS SEE US.

"A floral society meeting but once a month reminds us of the boy who enjoys a long vacation, and is surprised to be reminded, upon return to school, of things long forgotten, yet once gone over thoroughly. Try and have your society meet twice a month, on different days, as many a person cannot come on Tuesday evening every time. There will be hundreds of topics to talk over, flowers to look at, and the more attraction and the more interest, the more frequent it is to express each others' views The West Oakland Improvement Club is a worthy example of what such clubs can accomplish, and their only sorrow is that they have not organized ere this late hour. Let us Berkeley folk wake up and see attributed to our floral society as that West Oakland Club asserts. We have no Sixteenth street swamps to deal with. But it is far more faulty and far more criminal to ruin the charms of Berkeley the "not beautiful." "Yes, they couldn't agree as to whose name should be first on the wedding invitations"—Puck.

At the University.—"That was a mighty poor report of that cockfight you fellows had," said the common citizen.

"It couldn't be helped,' said the professor-in-chief. "The professor of ornithology was taking what the vulgar call his 'day off,' and we had to send—assign, I mean—the professor of zoology, whose real life work is in the dog fight department."—Indianapolis Journal.

He held his hand tightly over the pit of his stomach. His face was distorted with pain He gasped for breath.

The bride of a month looked at him in mild terror.

"Wh-what is it, George?" she stammered.

"I—I think," he muttered, "it is a heart blow."

PEOPLE AND EVENTS.

Dr. E. Christiansen of Leavenworth, Kansas, wants the Southern States to employ him to deliver stereopticon lectures throughout Europe, with the object of stimulating immigration to the South.

There were fifty-six signers of the Declaration of Independence, and only three had or used a middle name. Robert Treat Paine of Massachusetts, and Richard Henry Lee and Francis Lightfoot Lee of Virginia.

A meeting was held in New Orleans last week to further a project for the erection there of a monument to John J. Audubon, the eminent naturalist, who was born in the vicinity of that city. Mrs. James L Bradford, who wrote a life of Audubon, is president of the association having the matter in charge.

President McKinley's mother's name is Nancy; so was that of the mother of Abraham Lincoln. Of the other Presidents' mothers' given names there are four Elizabeths, three Marys, two Elizas, two Janes, two Annas, and one each of Susanna, Nelly, Abigail, Sarah, Phoebe, Harriet, Sophia, Malvina and Maria.

It has been decided that the monument to Lord Leighton shall take the form of a recumbent sepulchral figure of the late president of the Royal Academy, to be placed in the nave of St. Paul's Cathedral. To Mr. Brock, R. A., has been intrusted the execution of the work, which will be of an ornate character, and in bronze.

Robert H Folger, said to be the oldest practicing lawyer in America, has, at his home in Massillon, Ohio, a treasure in the way of a ship's log kept by his father, Captain Mayhew Folger, of the good ship Topaz. While making his last cruise in the Pacific Captain Folger, in February, 1808, discovered the surviving mutineer of the ship Bounty and his colony on Pitcairn Island.

The late Jules Jony, who wrote many of the most famous songs of the Paris streets, was a Parisian of the Parisians, and had been a copious contributor to comic papers ever since he had taught himself to write, for he received the merest elementary education in youth. He first attracted notice by his ballads at the Chat Noir tavern, and subsequently composed many socialistic and political squibs in verse. He was one of the most determined opponents of General Boulanger.

The Mail and Express (New York) makes this timely but repulsive comparison: Kinetoscopic views of the effect produced on the free trade intellect by the passage of the tariff bill would probably show a series of fantastic writhings like those of a mass of angle worms.

JULY FOURTH.

Lieutenant Vaughn wanted more 4th of July talk in the committee and less of the 19th. He would resign unless a grand Fourth of July celebration was arranged for.

Theo Gier declared that those interested in the 13th were at work while those favoring the 4th were idle. He favored a Fourth of July celebration that would bring all the county into Oakland If the committee did not work for the Fourth of July it could not expect the thing to be a success

W V Witcher favored a strictly military Fourth of July parade with no teams or floats. Considerable discussion followed.

Theo Gier thought that by past experience the committee did not want to pay for floats. Every one would come in and ask for funds. Once they called for $800 for bills which were not paid.

D. Sinclair favored allowing those who would pay for their own float to display one. This met with general approbation and the Parade Committee were instructed to work in accord with this last idea. No one need look for any money for the building of floats.

D. Sinclair moved that no flag but the American flag be allowed in the parade on the Fourth of July and the motion prevailed.

The committee adjourned to meet Friday evening the 23d

Sleep

Induced by the use of coca, opiate or narcotic compounds is bad, decidedly bad. They undermine health and shatter the constitution and the patient is steadily growing into a worse condition—often resulting in the terrible slavery and misery of the cocaine and opium habit. Sleep induced by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla does not perhaps come as quickly, but it comes more surely and more permanently through nature's great restoring and rejuvenating channel—purified, vitalized and enriched blood. This feeds the nerves with life-giving energy and builds up the system and constitution from the very foundation of all health and life—the blood—pure, rich, red blood.

MISS MAY'S LITTLE TALE.

Declares That Frost Was With Her When He Was Beaten.

Her Friend Was the Assailant and He Defies Threats of Arrest.

Miss May Gilligan, the young lady who has figured so conspicuously in the incidents surrounding the peculiar beating of Mr. Frost, manager of the Oakland Lumber Company, has changed her story. She now declares that she was in company with Mr. Frost when he was beaten, and has also produced the little anonymous letter that lead up to the affair. It is as follows.

"Oakland, March 31st.

Miss May Gilligan, 609 Franklin street —Would like to see you this evening at the park on the corner of Sixth and Alice streets at 6:30. ADMIRER."

Miss Gilligan at first denied that she received any letter or was ever near the Ebell on the night that Frost was nearly killed. Last night her memory evidently revived, for she said:

"In response to the letter I received through the mail I kept the engagement. I went to the park at the suggestion of Frank Barbagaleta, a visitor at my home and my friend. It was understood that he should keep near me in order to protect me if I had trouble. My idea was to ascertain the identity of the man who had the assurance to write me such a letter. Mr Frost lives across the street from me and knows me well. When I arrived at the park he walked up and spoke to me. I asked him if he had written the letter, and he said he had. Then he asked me to walk to the Ebell rooms, and I consented, knowing that Mr Barbagaleta was shadowing us. When we arrived at the rooms Frost tried to get me to enter but I refused Then he attempted to drag me into an alleyway, and I screamed. Just then Mr Barbagaleta came across the street and gave Frost an unmerciful beating. He deserved all he got. Miss Lily Barberi received a letter just like mine a few days before, and she went to the park armed with a horsewhip, but as she had another woman with her the man did not approach her. Now, that is all the mystery there is to the case."

"I thumped this man Frost," said Barbageleta, "because he insulted my lady friend I want to say that I gave it to him good and hard. He knows why he was done up, and now he is trying to make a mystery out of the case"

Frost and employer, Mr Reed, stuck to the story that Frost was measuring a window at the Ebell building, but the police do not believe it.

Will Swim for Honors.

Dana Thompson, the champion coast swimmer, is training in this city for a contest he hopes to arrange with Charles Cavill the Australian, who has just arrived in San Francisco

Billy Delaney and Eugene Van Court have Thompson in charge and they expect to get two races with Cavill in smooth water, one to be a quarter and the other a half mile.

Cavill has signified his readiness to meet Thompson.

Picturesque California.

A very entertaining lecture was given by Mrs. Helen Kelleher at the Ebell Society last night, her subject being "Picturesque California." The colored slides were exceptionally fine and took the audience in imagination to all points of beauty and interest in California. It was a journey from San Francisco to the Yosemite in one evening. Miss Kelleher speaks with a certain zest which may be called invigorating, and tells a story to the point. The hall was well filled with an appreciative audience. The speaker was frequently interrupted with applause.

High School Debate.

The date for the debating contest between the Berkeley and Oakland High Schools has been set for May 4th. Yesterday afternoon, after a spirited contest, Ralph Fisher, Jewett J. Earle and Ben W. Reed were chosen as the contestants to represent Oakland. The debate will be held in the O. H. S. gymnasium. The question is: "Resolved, That a system of direct legislation, such as the initiative and referendum, should be adopted in California." The Oakland boys will support the negative side.

THE HULTMAN CONCERT.

The Scandinavian population turned out in force last night to hear Rev. J. A. Hultman's sacred concert in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. The reverend gentleman is a professor of music in North Park College, Chicago, and is at present on a tour through the country, conducting his concerts somewhat after the manner of the popular Sankey. The hall was crowded with interested listeners, and the familiar hymns, rendered with such powerful voice and skilful accompaniment of organ or piano, were applauded as though they had never been sung or heard before Exceptionally good were the solos "God So Loved the World" and "Praise Ye the Lord" Rev Hultman will conduct the services in the Mission Church on Filbert street Sunday night.

WORKING WITH A WILL.

An Enlarged Committee to Secure the Valley Road.

A Proposition Which Will Be Satisfactory to the Directors.

The members of the committee of five who met with the Valley Railroad Directors a few days ago held a meeting yesterday evening and decided to increase the membership of the committee and to find out facts concerning a right of way, so a proposition may be submitted to the directors of the road as soon as possible.

At the meeting Mayor Thomas presided, and the members present were Supervisor Talcott, Councilman Pringle, W. V. Witcher and J. P. Taylor.

The following additional members on the committee were appointed: Frank K. Mott, Dr. George C. Pardee, William R. Davis, E. A. Heron, E. C. Sessions, John A. Britton, John F. Towle, M. J. Keller, Robert Smilie.

This committee will get down to business immediately, and as they are interested in the undertaking it is not likely that many days will elapse before they will be able to lay before the Valley Road people a most satisfactory proposition.

THE CLOSE OF LENT

One Week More Remains of the Season of Sack-Cloth and Ashes.

THE MEANING OF PALM SUNDAY

How the Festival Will Be Observed in Local Churches.

EASTER DAY PREPARATIONS

Subjects Which Will Inspire Resident Clergy Tomorrow.

Holy week begins tomorrow, Palm Sunday, which opens a series of commemorations that culminate in the joyous festival of Easter.

Palm Sunday is the anniversary of the day the Savior triumphant entered Jerusalem. The Bible says that the multitude strewed their garments in the way and cut down branches from the trees and laid them before him as he rode into the city.

The Tenebrae services begin on Wednesday evening. They are merely the Matins and Lauds which are never omitted at any season in the Catholic Church. Their names are derived from the fact that they were sung in the night as they are still sung by the monastic orders. Their charm of pathos and beautiful simplicity is enhanced by the wonderfully sweet music to which they are attuned. They are the lamentations of Jeremiah, the prophet.

Thursday is the commemoration of the institution of the Blessed Eucharist, observed in Catholic and Episcopal Churches. In the former the altars are stripped and the lights extinguished, the watch being kept in a side chapel.

Then comes Good Friday, the anniversary of the day on which, according to Biblical history, the earth trembled, the sun grew dark at mid-day, and the veil of the temple was rent in twain to add emphasis to the crucifixion of the Saviour. All that day the Catholic Church is bare and the altar is left in almost utter darkness.

The California Sunday School Association concluded its thirtieth annual convention Thursday evening in the First Baptist Church of San Francisco. The session was a busy one and occupied three days. Among other important matters considered, Sunday School picnics were regarded as a means of healthful recreation, and religious fellowship and improvement, and the appointment of a Sunday School field worker for the State, to labor under the executive committee, was recommended.

Holy week at St. Francis de Sales Church at Hobart and Grove streets will be conducted on a magnificent scale. Devotions on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday will begin at 9 o'clock. On Holy Thursday a solemn high mass will be celebrated, followed by a procession of the Most Blessed Sacrament. In the evening the devotions will begin at 7:30 o'clock and will include a sermon on the Blessed Sacrament by Rev. J. J. Cull. On Friday evening there will be the devotion of the Way of the Cross and a sermon on the Passion by Rev. Thomas McSweeney. On Easter Sunday morning the cadets of Company N, L. C. C., will approach Holy Communion in a body in full uniform at the 7 o'clock mass. About sixty-five members will attend. At 10:30 o'clock solemn high mass will be celebrated at which a short instruction will be given by the pastor, Rev. Thomas McSweeney. An augmented choir and full chorus will render Mozart's Twelfth Mass assisted by an orchestra of ten pieces.

The North Temescal Presbyterian Church held its annual congregational meeting last Wednesday evening and much interest was manifested in the proceedings. The society is making great progress and now has 112 members, eighteen of whom joined during the year. The contributions to mission and various boards of the church have been quite liberal, and of the $25 pledged to the '97 convention fund nearly all has been paid. The contributions during the year amounted to $2,003, an average of $21 a church member.

Archbishop Riordan will administer the sacrament of confirmation at St. Mary's College Tuesday, May 4th, the feast of Blessed John Baptist de La Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers.

Dr. Joseph F. Berry, the editor of the Epworth Herald of Chicago, is on the coast and will address the Methodist young people of Oakland, East Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, at the First Methodist Church, on Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Dr. Berry is a fine speaker, and will make an address which will be well worth hearing. All young people of all the denominations are invited to attend. During the editorial management of Dr. Berry, the Epworth Herald has attained to a circulation of more than 100,000, which is probably the largest circulation of any religious paper in America.

Thirty-fourth street Methodist—The pastor, Rev. G. H. Jones, will preach from the following subjects: 11 A. M., "A Kingdom of Priests;" 7:30 P. M., "Loved by Jesus; Washed From Our Sins in His Blood."

Fruitvale Presbyterian Church—Rev. E. E. Clark, pastor. Services at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Subject of the morning sermon, "The Triumphal Entry;" subject of the evening sermon, "Religion in the Home."

Pilgrim Congregational Church—Rev. James R. Knodell, pastor. Morning service at 11 o'clock; subject, "The Spirit's Message to the Church;" evening service at 7:30; subject, "The Man With a Vision."

St. Markus German Evangelical Lutheran Church—Filbert street, near Seventh street. Rev. A. Jatho, pastor. Services: Sunday Palmarum, April 11th, 10:30 A. M., confirmation; Maundy Thursday, April 15th, 7:30 P. M., institution of the Holy Sacrament; Good Friday April 16th, 10:30 A. M., The seventh word from Jesus on the Cross. All welcome.

Union street Presbyterian Church—H. D. Brasefield. Divine services 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Subject for the morning, "The How of a Revival." Special Palm Sunday service in the evening, subject, "The Triumphant King."

Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock Dr. Hallock of Mills Seminary is to lecture before the upper classes of the Oakland High School in their assembly room. His subject is "Why the Flag Floats Over Oregon." As the history of the acquisition of that State is one of the most interesting the lecture should be instructive as well as interesting.

A BRIDE OF SIXTEEN.

Antonio Jose Rodrigues, a Centerville farmer, called on County Clerk Jordan this morning and secured a marriage license to wed Maria George Dias, a sixteen-year-old Miss from the same town. Rodrigues brought with him written consent to the marriage from Antonio Cardugo, the girl's guardian. The groom to-be is thirty-four years old.

Doing Away With Bridges.

It is probable that the Board of Supervisors will join with E. R. Lilienthal, representing the Hearst estate and do away with a large portion of the bridges on the upper Dublin road. It is proposed to fill in much of the swamp land with debris excavated from the canal which is being dredged out to the bay. If this is done the question of repairing the big trestles, will be obviated as they can be removed.

The matter will come up for consideration at Monday's meeting of the Board.

Sugrue Infelicity.

Pat Sugrue, the Center-street expressman, was arrested at his home, 729 Center street, last night by Officer Cooney, on complaint of Mrs. Sugrue. The wife has Pat arrested periodically for disturbing her peace, but always relents and refuses to file a complaint. She was not in the Police Court this morning when the case was called and it went over till Monday to see if some means could not be employed to induce her to swear to a complaint.

Quellen's Injury.

Deputy Coroner Henry Quellen has so far recovered from his recent injury that he has been able to remove the bandage from his eye. Quellen's eye was filled with embalming fluid while he was working over a corpse some time ago, and for a week he lay at Fabiola Hospital suffering the most excruciating pain from the effects of the fluid. The eye is still very much inflamed.

The handsomest dressed window in Oakland is that of the Jonas Clothing Company, 1065 Broadway, which is attracting considerable attention these pleasant days.

The window contains an assortment of elegantly tailored suits for men and boys, from the famous makers of first class clothing.

Mr. Jonas deserves credit for his intelligent enterprise in catering to first class trade by buying the very best, and he has been fortunate enough to buy at such discounts off the list that he can actually compete with handlers of cheaper and inferior lines of clothing. The nobby dressers of Oakland will go to the Jonas Clothing Company this spring.

DOINGS OF THE DINNER CLUB.

Friday Meetings Which Have Caused Considerable Pleasure.

MANY MARITAL HAPPENINGS.

Spicy Gossip as Regards the Swell Set at Home and Abroad.

What with preparations for weddings and a round of dinners and teas, holy week does not look like such a dreary, meditative season of penitence after all The dinner club which has dined faithfully on flesh, fowl and fish on every other Lenten Friday, concludes its series of dinners in a fortnight. They wouldn't dine on good Friday after all. Last night's dinner was at Mr and Mrs. George McNear's home and the last one will be two weeks hence at the Pierces

The week has been rather prolific of luncheons and dinners, teas and small affairs There seems to be rather a hurry to pay up social indebtedness before the summer exodus.

* * *

Mrs. Barker gave a charming luncheon on Thursday and Mrs Goodfellow gave a very sumptious and quite out of the ordinary dinner on Thursday evening. There were thirty guests and the big new house of the Goodfellows, which is the old Ford mansion remodeled, was quite transformed with flowers.

* * *

On Friday evening, Dr. and Mrs Edward Von Adelung gave a dinner—very pretty it was too. Among the guests were Mr and Mrs John L. Howard and the Eastern guests they have lately been entertaining.

* * *

Mrs. Frank Brigham gave a very sweet little tea last Tuesday About sixty ladies were present and it was a very pretty and informal affair indeed. Mrs. Brigham is just as pretty and as gracious a hostess as ever, though we see so little of her.

* * *

For the 23d of this shiny month of April another big tea is announced It will be the first opportunity, except for weddings, that we shall have to show our new gowns and newer bonnets. This tea is a sort of symposium composite sort of affair at which Miss Kittredge, Miss Holt and Miss Simmons are to be the hostesses. It will take place at the Holt house and there are to be between 500 and 600 cards.

* * *

Mrs Judge Waymire gave a luncheon on Wednesday and Miss Edna Waymire followed with one on Thursday. One of the prettiest luncheons of the week was given by Miss Blanche Gregory of Tenth avenue, East Oakland It was a pink and green luncheon, even as to gowns and took place on Thursday. The drawing room, library and dining room of the Gregory home were decorated with pink flowering almond and waxen strands of smilax Long streamers of the vine started with the chandeliers and were guided by pink ribbon streamers to the cornice The pink almond blossoms appeared at intervals. The menu cards were painted in water colors on dainty green tea kettles and the pink and green bonbons were in dainty boxes of the same shades. The menus and bonbons boxes were carried away as souvenirs Some amusing little verses apropos of the foibles of each guest were laid at the covers The menu was very nice and the talk so bright that the girl guests lingered until late in the afternoon The guests' names follow: Miss Blanche Hostetler, Miss Carrie Perry Miss Grace Williams, Miss Edith Alexander Miss Theresa Hawley of Michigan, Miss Ida Hammond, Miss Claribel Williams, Miss Eva Margeson, Miss Grace Hostetler, Miss Dolly Sumner, Miss Mabel Daly, Miss Nellie Fearnside, Miss Mabel Thayer.

* * *

On Saturday night Mrs Hampton of Alice street gives a card party, but I do not know much on the tapis for next week.

* * *

The number of weddings in the air is positively appalling. The engagement is announced of Miss Belle Van Amringe and James Gamble of San Francisco Miss Van Amringe is one of the East Oakland girls and a very pretty one, too. She has been a teacher since she left school. An elder sister, married, now resides in San Francisco The Van Amringe wedding will be at the home of the bride's widowed mother, early in May. Mr Gamble is a very nice young man and successful in business

It seems to me that most of the weddings are set for April 21st, the first Wednesday after Easter There is a most charming unanimity of date. Miss Gertrude Peck who has chosen that date for her marriage, will have a very pretty church wedding in Alameda. A choir of young girls will sing the bridal chorus from Lohengrin.

The Kimball wedding at Seminary Park near Mills' College will be an elaborate affair and also on the 21st. The Kimballs are wealthy, have a beautiful home and most charming grounds. The groom is a Honolulu gentleman and also well favored with this world's goods, I am told.

Miss Bledsoe will be the Berkeley bride and the marriage of Miss Minnie O'Neil to Mr. J. J. Baumgartner April 21st I have already mentioned

The wedding presents will be a terrific drain on our purses. Before we have recovered from the April exodus, the June and fall weddings will follow. A little bird has whispered to me that both Jessie Coleman and Jessie Glascock will be brides before the old year dies. Ella Goodal, Amy McKee and Nellie Chabot are selected for Miss Coleman's bridesmaids and other names to be added. Jessie Glascock will have Marguerite Jolliffe, Lucy and Alice Moffitt and some of the younger girls. There is nothing definite about Miss Whitney's wedding or the more recently announced engagement of little Tom Pheby. They will all follow in good time.

* * *

Miss Allyce Thiller and Albert C Aiken will be married this spring at the bride's home in West Oakland. Miss Thiller should make an extremely pretty bride.

* * *

The Macdonough was well filled last night in honor of Georgia Cayvan and her play of Squire Kate. It was an extremely even and satisfactory performance Miss Cayvan's company is all good and she is always the most womanly of women. Every one admires and loves Miss Cayvan for her character as well as her art. I really think she has the most charming neck and shoulders I've ever seen In her company is a little Miss Jerrold, granddaughter of Douglas Jerrold, the famous English wit. Of course you know all about him—you cultured Athenians If you don't, go look it up in your histories. Miss Cayvan also plays tonight. There will be another audience quite as large.

* * *

The closing nights of the opera season have attracted many Oaklanders. Every one who had not heard the company rushed to hear. It was a last chance. If I were not such a good little church girl, I'd go to the performance Monday night. It's La Traviata at popular prices and well worth hearing, even if the great Albers does not sing. How well I remember Patti in Traviata but I'll not bore you with reminiscences.

* * *

Mrs. Olive Reed, assisted by Miss Susie Hobart, recently gave a concert and reading at Sunol, which was very largely attended. How beautifully Mrs. Reed sings every one knows. Miss Hobart is a very talented young woman. She reads very well and has a great many pupils. She is a hard worker, too, and most industrious.

* * *

Tuesday evening, the 20th, the bal masque at Reed's Hall comes off. I understand that the secret committee, one of whom, in mask and domino, unlocks the mysterious postoffice box every day, has not received as many acceptances as it would like. The invited public is a little shy. It is hard up or something. Quite a number of San Franciscans have been asked and have accepted, and a number of the old Mardi Gras costumes will do duty again. The patronesses are Mrs. Brown, Mrs. McNutt, Mrs. Orestes Pierce, Mrs John R. Glascock, Mrs. Mien, and Mrs. Wilson of Berkeley, and Mrs John B. Mhoon. Tickets are quite expensive and as Easter Tuesday comes so soon after the days when gowns and bonnets must be purchased, many of the belles will go in very simple clothes. A number are preparing dominoes, for which I am sorry. They are not original and not effective. Some of the girls, however, will look quite pretty and I have a gown which I flatter myself will prove a complete disguise It is, besides, very chic.

* * *

Mrs. John Shaw of New York, Mrs Isaac L. Requa's sister, has been spending her Saturdays and Sundays at Highlands during her California visit. She leaves for home in a few days. She is stopping at the Palace Hotel.

* * *

I think I have gleaned for you all the small news of the week I know. Society has not been cyclonic, but there have been some good quiet times and a deal of Easter dressmaking and millinery Some of the girls have such pretty hats; they fairly make your mouth water. What a pity it is that the choir girls of St. Paul's cannot blossom out in church in all the glories of spring millinery Well, there is one girl who can, and her name is

THE MEDDLER.

RELIANCE LADIES' NIGHT.

The Reliance Camera Club gave a successful entertainment Thursday evening The audience hall was crowded. The entertainment consisted of a number of stereopticon views reproduced from photographs taken by members of the club. There were capital pictures of the relay riders, the members of the famous Spaghetti Club and a number of jokes on well known club members. Views of Oakland, Blair Park and the Yosemite Valley reproduced from photographs by Dr. Dow, Dr. Clark, Charles Magagnos and others were shown. Dr. Clark displayed the views and B. Y Morris explained them During the evening the Reliance Glee Quartette sang several songs very delightfully The Reliance Club orchestra made its first public appearance and their playing reflected most creditably on the leader, Charles Crist. Other members of the orchestra are Phil Carlton, viola; Wm. Gross and Frank Raynier, cornet, Geo. Lehner, violin; W E. Millwain and Lovell Langtroth, 'cello, Jordan, trombone; Le Noir, flute, Cautin, bass, Boyden, drum A delightful solo was given by Mr. McBride.

THE HAVENS DINNER.

Miss Marietta Havens gave a charming dinner this week to a few of her intimate friends at her home on Vernon Heights. The decorations were entirely in pink, pink carnations and maiden hair fern being the flowers used. LENTEN CLUB.

A Lenten Club is established at Miss Head's school in Berkeley. The clever school journal "Nods and Becks" says of it. "During these Lenten evenings, the older girls meet in Miss Head's room to sew, while she reads to them Wm. Morris' 'News from Nowhere' The younger girls sew in another room and listen to the 'Jungle Book.' The day pupils all have one bit of underwear which they sew on at home, Many of the alumnae will also have ready one article by the end of Lent and thus enable us to have a sale of two hundred hand made pieces of underwear. The proceeds of our sale will go to a fund for a room in the Children's Hospital to be rented for the time being by Miss Head's girls, and to be owned by them eventually. This will give them the privilege of placing any sick and poor child under the best medical hospital care. The sale will take place the Wednesday before Easter."

A NEW BOOK.

HISTORY OF CALIFORNIA, by Hon. Theo. H. Hittell, in four royal octavo vols., 800 pages each. N. J. Stone & Co., San Francisco, publishers.

It will be gratifying to all lovers of high class literature to know that this eminent author and lawyer has written a complete, up to date history of this most wonderful of all the States. This arduous task is one of no small undertaking. It has required about twenty-five years of the best portion of the author's life. When those who know Mr. Hittell realize this fact, they at once expect to find a work of rare value. In this they are not disappointed. Book making in this progressive age is an art, and requires genius of a high order to produce a work that meets the demands of the thinking and cultured reader. That Mr. Hittell is eminently qualified for such a task no one doubts who knows him. That he has succeeded in weaving together in a most fascinating manner the record of the exciting events of the development from savagery to civilization of our Golden State, his critics as well as his admirers unite in encomiums of well done

The charm of the book is that the story is told without any effort of rhetorical display Its composition is simple, yet beautiful, as the story is true. The procession of events that led up to our present attainment of an exalted place in modern civilization is vividly pictured on the mind without wearisome detail.

Mr. Hittell is a gifted legal writer, well known to every lawyer in this State, whose library contains some of his valuable legal writings. When it is known that this eminent author and scholar has spent twenty years of the best of his life in the production of those four volumes, it will be a sufficient guaranty that the history will be one of rare literary merit as well as historical accuracy The universal opinion of those who have read the first two volumes is that it will become a classic often referred to in the library of every private citizen as well as public library A boy of twelve years can read it with enjoyment and profit, for there is no country or State more prolific of romantic lore than California. There is a charm in every page of her history The autnor's familiarity with Latin, French, German and Spanish peculiarly qualify him to tell the story he has undertaken. Californians have reason to be thankful that one so qualified for the undertaking has been disposed to give up the best part of his life to a work of which they are to reap the greater share of the blessings. The work is sold only by subscription, as all the better class of books are, which ensures their more thorough and early introduction. Publishers sell their choicest and most valuable works through agents who go direct to the individual and show the work thoroughly

Every Californian, especially every Pioneer and every Native Son, will want this valuable work for reading and reference.

LEM WILLIAMS

1003 WASHINGTON STREET

Disease makes a man just as helpless as if he were tied with ropes. Weary lassitude makes his muscles useless—sluggish circulation of impure blood fills his brain with useless clogging matter. Effort is distasteful and brings scant results. The trouble usually starts with the digestion. Too much brain work takes needed blood from stomach to head and retards the stomach's work. The body is not fed. The nerves rebel. Sleep becomes a stranger. Loss of appetite is followed by loss of flesh—and all for the want of the right medicine at the right time. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for the man who is losing flesh and vitality. It is for the man whose digestion needs help and whose nerves and brain are overworked. It is the greatest of all tonics. No matter what seems to be your trouble, the "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure it. It cures by making the blood pure, rich and plenty, and by furnishing food for nerves and brain. Nothing has ever been found to equal it, but dishonest druggists sometimes try to make you believe that something more profitable to them is "just as good." Do not be deceived. Get what you ask for.

Constipation if neglected brings with it a train of maladies that unfit the sufferer for either the duties or pleasures of life. Sick and bilious headaches and a multitude of other ills are due to constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation promptly and permanently. Druggists sell them. Nothing else is "just the same."

PARQUET PLEASURES

Miss Cayvan Appears In the Fine Melodrama "Squire Kate."

A VERY HEARTY RECEPTION.

Tonight She Will Render the Role of Mary Pennington.

THE PLAY AT THE OAKLAND.

Strong Attractions Promised at All the Other Theatres.

Miss Georgia Cayvan was given a cordial welcome at the Macdonough Theater last evening when she presented "Squire Kate" after an absence of several years. During the period of enforced idleness, Miss Cayvan has lost none of her admirable art in acting, in fact, she has gained. She acts in the same finished, artistic manner which made her the star in the old New York Lyceum stock company.

"Squire Kate" which was the bill for last evening is a pastoral drama in which Miss Cayvan takes the title role. It is a part which is more dramatic than anything Miss Cayvan has presented before. Miss Cayvan was most excellent in her role and played with the consumated skill which is a characteristic of her art.

Miss Cayvan's support is unusually good and contains many actors and actresses who are familiar to theatergoers. The play moves with a smoothness and ease that indicates study and careful management.

Tonight the company will present "Mary Pennington, Spinster," the play in which Miss Cayvan made her first appearance as a star. It is written by W. R. Walker and is a bright, keen, satire on the new woman. The story deals with a young woman who after completing college decides to enter business life. Her mistakes and the gossiping of the neighbors form the keynote of the comedy. Miss Cayvan has won favor in this role which is admirably adapted to her. Annie Sutherland, Mary Jerrold, George Woodward, Orrin Johnson, Chas. Thropp and other members of the company have excellent roles.

OAKLAND THEATER.

Kiralfy's brilliant ballet, with its scores of pretty women and graceful dancers, closes a week's engagement at the Oakland Theater tomorrow night. The spectacular has had a very successful run. The bill for next week is a comedy-melodrama, "New York Day by Day," which will be presented by the Ellerford Company. It is a comedy with plenty of fun and gayety. It is bright and charming, with plenty of comical situations and clever dialogue. The company is an excellent one, and will present the play exceedingly well. It will run for the entire week.

BALDWIN THEATER.

A double bill, "Merchant of Venice" and "Katherine and Petruchio," will be presented by Otis Skinner and his excellent company of players at the Baldwin Theater this evening. Both plays permit of an opportunity for Mr. Skinner to show his versatility. Next week is the last week of Mr. Skinner's engagement. He will present "Richard III" Monday and Saturday evenings, and the "Lady of Lyons" Tuesday evening and Saturday matinee.

CALIFORNIA THEATER.

The engagement of the French Opera Company, which has been so successful, comes to a close tomorrow evening, when "La Traviata" will be presented with a grand ballet. Tonight the bill includes second act "L'Africaine" intermezzo "Cavalleria Rusticana," third act "La Favorita," overture "William Tell" and for the grand farewell to Foedor, Massenet's lyric gem "La Navarraise."

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

"The Stowaway" at Morosco's is attracting excellent houses, and as the cast is exceptionally good, no doubt it will continue to do so. Miss Thompson, the new soubrette, contributes more than her share to the fun of the play in the three characters she takes—the newsboy, Buttons and the cabin boy. Miss Atwood plays the heroine very prettily, and two of the burglars are intensely business like over the safe cracking and hold the audience in breathless suspense.

THE TIVOLI.

The elaborate spectacular "Don Juan Ad Lib" will be given tonight and tomorrow night at the Tivoli. Next week the bill is the romantic Irish opera "The Lily of Killarney" with new scenery and costumes.

ALCAZAR THEATER.

"Wild Oats," the famous old English comedy, has had a most successful run at the Alcazar Theater this week. It is a charming play and is exceedingly well presented by the stock company at the Alcazar.

THE ORPHEUM.

Titania, the clever toe dancer, is one of the chief attractions at the Orpheum this week. She is one of the most skillful dancers on the stage at present, and is a pretty as well as a graceful woman. The other features of the bill are excellent. Several new attractions are looked for next week.

Kops Cheer. Pure! Non-intoxicating.

ADVERTISEMENTS

A Chapter on Colds

SIMPLE PRECAUTIONS THAT MAY PREVENT SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES.

The Danger of Neglecting a "Common Cold." Serious and Often Fatal Maladies may Result from Carelessness.

From the News, Harrisonburg, La.

In most instances colds are the result of imprudence or a lack of forethought. Even in cases where a sudden change in the weather or an unavoidable exposure is responsible for the first slight cold, fresh and more severe colds may be avoided by observing a little care. But "a mere cold" is such a common thing and causes so little inconvenience that notwithstanding all previous experiences we neglect to take the most simple precautions, in the way of wearing suitable clothing, the avoidance of draughts, etc.

One should always bear in mind the necessity of exercising a constant vigilance to avoid catching cold. When the temperature in the house is higher than that out of doors, never go out without putting on an additional wrap. Never sit in a cold room even though you do not feel chilly. And it is better to suffer a little discomfort from wearing heavy underclothing than to run the risk of a chill.

The following letter from a lady in Sicily Island, La., graphically illustrates the distressing consequences that are liable to follow a simple cold.

"In February, 1896, I had a severe cold which settled on my lungs, resulting in a serious cough. My appetite failed, and I became so weak that I was scarcely able to walk across the room. I weighed only ninety-four pounds, and had given up all hope of recovery when I happened to read an article in a newspaper describing some cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and concluded to try them.

"I commenced using them, and before I had taken half a box I felt like a new creature. My appetite was restored, my cough grew less, and I was able to sleep soundly at night, which I had been unable to do for months before.

"After taking two boxes of the pills I was weighed again and to my astonishment my weight was 113 pounds; a gain of 19 pounds. Previous to taking the pills I had suffered with cold hands and feet, but now have no trouble whatever from that source.

"I can truly say I am now in better health than I have been for years. The effect of the Pink Pills is wonderful, and I can recommend them in all cases of debility and weakness.

MRS. A. L. STAFFORD."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effect of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100), by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N.Y.

Around the Bay There Is Not a Trimmer Craft.

In a quiet little berth in the estuary buoyantly floats at anchor the prettiest pleasure launch of its type on this coast. It is the Augusta, which has just been completed for Frank J. Moffitt by George W. Kneass the renowned San Francisco launch builder.

The Augusta is unlike any gasoline launch ever built in many particulars. Her speed is greater, her lines are finer and her engines are the quietest of any that has ever left the builder's hands. The accommodations are more elaborate and comfortable and the space is more cleverly utilized than that of any other similar craft owned on this side of the continent.

In building the launch the designer evidently had in view one object; it was to get as much accommodation into the boat as was possible without having any suggestiveness of being cramped. In the 33½ feet from stem to stern there is contained a remarkable amount of ease and luxury, such as are the great needs of a pleasure yacht.

FROM STEM TO STERN.

The stem of the boat is a work of art. It is headed by an original carved figure and the scroll work from it follows along either side of the bow for many feet, forming a rail to the forward deck.

Immediately abaft the forward bulkhead is a semi-circular pilot house. By a neat little wheel the pilot handles the craft while being enabled to keep a sharp lookout nearly all around the horizon. Just above his head is a little bell handle by which he can communicate with the engineer and also toot the powerful whistle, which will let the people on the bay know that the boat is afloat, and it will be very necessary for the many slow crafts around the bay to take particular notice of her toot, because with her three-bladed propeller making two hundred and forty revolutions a minute, there will not be any time to lose in getting out of her way.

AN ENGINE LIKE A WATCH.

Next to the pilot house on the starboard side is the engine room in which there is a powerful piece of machinery capable of propelling the craft thirteen miles an hour. The beautiful shining mechanism is the work of Mr. Casey the manager and Bob Darby, the designer of the Union Gas Engine Company. A few years ago this company made a specialty of perfecting gasoline engines and each year they have brought out a new pattern. The engine placed in the Augusta is one of the latest patterns of 1897 with all the improvements and perfections suggested by the engineers who have had experience with that model. As a result, the machinery is almost silent. Of course, with such a rapidly revolving shaft the different parts of the machinery must have a rapid action, but there is practically no gearing or cog-wheel attachment such as used to be the terror of old engines and although a powerful looking piece of mechanism the whole thing when in action resembles more the smooth working of a watch than a marine engine.

Several of these engines are now in use on the bay, but Mr. Casey declares that in this one every little suggestion that experience has developed has been carefully taken advantage of and that the result is as near perfection as any gas engine in the world has been brought up to this date.

EASE AND ELEGANCE.

Abreast of the engine room and on the port side is a very completely arranged toilet room, opening off the salon. This latter compartment is as it should be the piece de resistance of the boat. All around are large windows from which guests can receive the full pleasure of the view without any of the unpleasantness of wind or spray. The windows are hung with pretty curtains which are chosen to match the delicately patterned carpet on the floor and the richly corduroy upholstered cushions which are placed on either side. A pretty shade of olive green has been chosen for the upholstery and it presents a charming harmony of color with the richly polished mahogany wainscotting which is used all over not only the salon but every portion of the boat.

To increase the rich effect every portion of the mahogany work which will admit of it is delicately carved with a lily or a leaf or an exquisite piece of scroll work. At the forward end of the salon is a neat little sideboard also polished mahogany, over which is a large mirror. On opening the top drawer the engineer produced a magnificent pair of powerful marine glasses on which were inscribed the words, "W. W. Foote to my friend, Frank J. Moffitt."

Bright lamps shining like gold are placed where they can be of the most use, and every little detail is arranged so as to be pleasing to the eye and at the same time so that it will add to the comfort of the guests.

In the stern the deck of which is polished till it resembles a wax floor, there is nothing to inconvenience anybody who might desire to be seated there. No clumsy tiller sweeps across and the space is unbroken except a neat little brass flagpole socket at the extreme after part.

The idea of comfort is not confined in many pleasure boats to those who may occupy the salon. The pilot house is just as comfortable and the man who will have the duty of looking out for the safety of those on board is as carefully protected from the elements as the most distinguished guest.

STRENGTH AND BEAUTY.

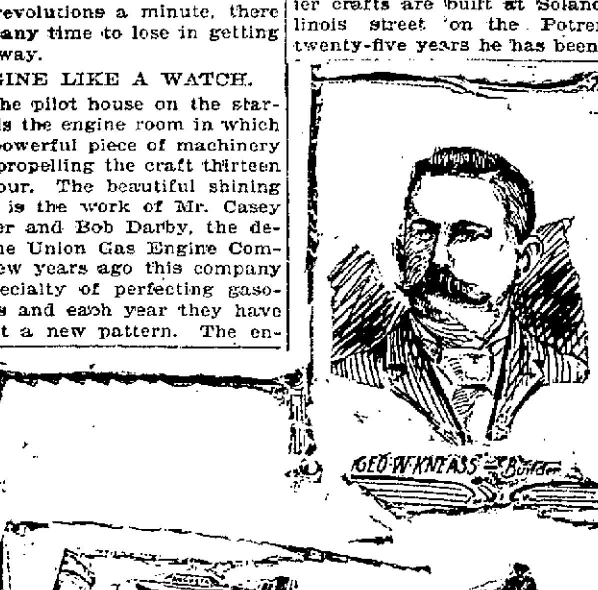

While within all is suggestive of comfort and ease, without everything is indicative of strength and the Augusta could certainly stand a very heavy stretch of bad weather without in any way doing herself any injury or causing any discomfort to those on board.

D. M. Van Wart the designer, is particularly proud of the success which he has attained with Mr. Moffitt's launch. In laying her lines he departed somewhat from the old conservative models and chose a design which experience has suggested is the best fitted for a pleasure craft. The keel is not parallel with the deck line as is usually the case in gasoline launches. There is a drop toward the stern of about a foot and this gives to the launch all the benefit that is derived by a sailing craft from the use of a center board, and on her trial trip she proved that after meeting a sea she could regain her level at once without any of the unpleasant rolling which is usually experienced in ordinary launches.

PRIDE OF HER DESIGNER.

Mr. Van Wart says that she is without doubt the finest boat of her class on the Pacific Coast, and without doubt much the speediest. It is possible for her engines to attain a maximum speed of two hundred and eighty revolutions, and this means nearly fourteen miles an hour.

George W. Kneass, whose office and works are at 718 Third street, San Francisco, also has a yard where heavier crafts are built at Solano and Illinois street on the Potrero. For twenty-five years he has been engaged in boat building, and many of the most notable crafts on the bay are of his construction. The speedy little Mascot, which was built for Mr. Pope, and the pretty Arrow of which Mr. Knight used to be so proud are of Kneass' building. The Hettie B, which is the admiration of sailormen at McNear's Landing in San Pedro, and the big boat Belvedere which is at present in service on San Francisco bay, as well as the large Yolo Belle, which is owned at Sacramento by Mr. Hennessy, are also from the same master constructor.

MR. F. J. MOFFITT'S HANDSOME LAUNCH "AUGUSTA" AND GEORGE W. KNEASS, THE BUILDER.

OTHER SPEEDY MODELS.

There are also the speedly little San Rafael, the Amabel, and many others —all designed and built by the same experienced mind that created the model for Mr. Moffitt's boat.

At the present time Mr. Kneass is engaged on a large sixty-five foot auxilliary schooner for Mexico. She will carry one hundred tons and will be fitted with a gasoline engine of fifty horse power. There is also a novelty in the way of marine construction just designed by Mr. Kneass. It is a gasoline launch containing two large tanks, which will be used for carrying milk in bulk from Sacramento river ranches to the city. It is stated that this system of transporting milk is the cheapest, speediest and most practical yet devised, and will undoubtedly bring about many changes in that trade. This launch is also provided with sails, and between the speed attained by her twenty horse power engines and the four hundred and eighty square feet of canvass which she will spread, this milk launch promises to be a little wonder.

With all the experience attained during these many years of building, it is not surprising that Mr. Kneass and his designer should have been able to turn out such a perfect craft as the Augusta. Viewed from the wharf, when lying at anchor, this handsome craft is seen to be as pretty on the water line as she is neat and complete in all her appointments. The sharp little stem which spreads out above the water gradually and gracefully enable her to meet any ordinary swell in such a manner as to cause the least discomfort to those on board, while the clean runs along the counters show to the experienced mariner that the craft can leave the water behind with as little drag as any craft yet built.

The exact measurements of the Augusta show that the extreme length is 38 feet 6 inches. The beam is 7 feet 6, and the average depth 4 feet 6 inches. The draught of water owing to the novel line on which the keel is laid, is 2 feet 8 inches forward and 3 feet 8 inches aft.

Recently a trial trip was made with a few experts and friends of the builder for a long distance, and everything was found to be perfect. From the griffin that keeps watch at the stem to the last stitch of the stars and stripes which float from the stern the Augusta reflects credit on her builder and designer to as great a degree as she gives pleasure and satisfaction to her owner.

THE REALM OF MUSIC

Successful Concert by the Students of the University.

A MOST VARIED PROGRAMME.

Miss Grace Carroll Will Sing at the Universalist Recital.

FINE EASTER PROGRAMMES.

Eastern Talent Imported for the Coming Y. M. C. A. Entertainments.

A slim audience greeted the University boys' concert at the First Unitarian Church last evening. The audience was largely composed of University students, who were naturally enthusiastic in the welcome they accorded the singers and players. Every number was encored, the typical college songs being especially popular.

Otto F. Wedemeyer certainly carried off the honors of the evening. He has a good voice and managed it very well. His solo work in "Wake Not, But Hear Me, Love," was particularly fine. The Glee Club sang the chorus to the song and it was certainly the best selection given.

C. R. Morse appeared in his comparatively new role, that of a monologue entertainer. He is an exceedingly versatile young man, and his little songs and speeches last night were capital. In fact he is if anything better as a mimic than as a singer. His dialect parts are especially good.

The Mandolin and Banjo Clubs have improved since they were last heard in this city. The Espanita waltzes by the Mandolin Club was an attractive number. The Banjo Club played El Capitan march on their twanging instruments with considerable dash and spirit.

Miss Grace Carroll, contralto, Edna Ritter and Mabel Walker, were among the vocalists on the programme at the Universalist Church Thursday night, when the Y. P. S. C. E. gave an enjoyable entertainment.

Mrs. Carroll-Nicholson gave a pleasing concert last night in Syndicate Hall. Her pupils furnished the talent and made a very creditable showing.

W. B. King, organist of the First Congregational Church, will go abroad shortly to continue musical study.

Miles Bacheller will also leave Oakland in the near future to make his home in the East.

Louis Lisser will give a piano recital at Beethoven Hall this afternoon at which Miss Helen Hagar will make her debut. Miss Caroline Little will sing "Should He Upbraid" and "When the Hand Was White With Moonlight."

* * *

The Unitarian Sunday School orchestra will give its initial concert on next Thursday evening. Llewellyn A. Hughes is the leader of the orchestra, which numbers thirty practiced musicians. Mrs. C. B. Desler, soprano; Miss Georgia Cope, alto, and Miss Lucila Ayers, pianist, will assist.

Huberman, the boy violinist, was recently interviewed for a musical paper. When asked how he liked New York he answered in distinct English, "Very nice," and smiled as though much pleased. "I like much the oyster," he added, voluntarily, "and the terrapin and the soles. We have not oysters at my home. They are very good." And this is the boy who plays 400 different concertos and sonatas and individual compositions from memory.

The paper Von Felszum Meer recently published some of Rubenstein's private memoirs, which the master kept locked in his desk during his lifetime, because he did not want to engage in any controversy by letting his friends see them. Here are some of his opinions: "When musical thoughts are lacking then the lietmotiv comes in handy." "There used to be little concert halls and great artists, now there are great concert halls, but——." "An artist who gives a concert wishes to learn the judgment of the public on his performance. The easiest way would be, instead of charging the public for admission, to ask them at the end for such contributions as they thought he deserved. This would be a test of the applause, and would check the flood of concerts."

The French press hails a coming composer in Gabriel Pierne, whose new lyric drama Vendee has created quite a sensation at Lyons.

Leonora Jackson, a young American violinist, is meeting with striking favor in Berlin, where she is considered a masterly player.

The first production of The Goddess of Reason, Johann Strauss' new operetta, has created quite a sensation in Vienna, for on the banks of the Danube all the compositions of the popular master pass for chefs d'oeuvre. Without going quite so far as to believe that, there seems no reason to doubt that Strauss' new operetta, which is running at the Theater an der Wien, is worthy of most of the flattering things that the Vienna press says about it. Strauss was struck with a strange idea, though, when he sought the motive for gay waltzes in the most sombre period of the French Revolution. The action passes in the year 1793, partly in the camp at Chalons, and partly in a pensionnat. The music from one end to the other of The Goddess of Reason is as full of melody as if Strauss was in the vigor of his days, instead of having passed his seventy-second birthday. There was only one shadow on the brightness of the first night's success—Strauss was prevented by illness from attending the performance.

THE MINER'S SOCIETY.

The regular quarterly session of the Alameda County Miners' Association was held last evening in St. Andrew's Hall. Professor S. B. Cristy of the State University occupied the chair and made a short opening address.

Thomas Mein, the well known South African mine owner, described mining in that country. He said that the Miners' Association of South Africa held monthly meetings, which were attended by all the owners and practical workmen. Ideas and methods were exchanged, and great benefit was derived. Most of the successful work in South Africa, said he, was done by Californians. Capital was more abundant because it was treated more honestly.

BOARD OF TRADE

Next Friday night the annual meeting of the Board of Trade will be held at Exposition Building. The annual reports, which are now being prepared, will show the organization to be in a prosperous condition. It is understood that the presidency and secretaryship will be tendered to the present incumbents, J. P. Taylor and Craigie Sharp respectively.

Don't let that cough hang on any longer; it may make you serious trouble and become constitutional, and possibly lead to pneumonia. You will find that ordinary cough specifics will not reach the seat of trouble; you must take something to build up and reinforce the body. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil will usually do that when every other thing fails, at least that is the verdict of the people as well as the medical profession. It is particularly true of children and all weak, delicate persons.

GREATEST OF ALL PHYSICIANS.

Discoverer of Paine's Celery Compound to Whom Thousands Owe Their Life and Happiness

"Excepting its handful of magnificent statesmen and its military heroes," says the most recent writer upon America, "the people owe more to Dartmouth's physician teacher than to any one man.

"In every walk of life, among the highest office holders at Washington, in the homes of the best people in the large cities, among the every day folks of the country, families in comfortable circumstances, families that 'live from hand to mouth,' and could not, if they wished, afford the services of any but an ordinary physician—everywhere I have met people to whom Paine's celery compound has been a blessing."

The story of the life work of this giant among men has been often told and is familiar to most readers. The likeness above is probably the best portrait of him yet printed.

It was the world-famed discovery by Prof. Phelps of an infallible cure for those fearful ills that result from an impaired nervous system and impure blood which has endeared the great doctor to the world, and made his life an era in the practice of medicine.

Prof. Phelps was born in Connecticut and graduated in medicine at Yale.

His unusual talent soon brought him reputation and prominence among his professional brethren. First he was elected to the professorship of anatomy and surgery in the Vermont University. Next he was appointed lecturer on matera medica and medical botany in Dartmouth College. The next year he was chosen professor of the chair then vacated by Prof. Robby, and occupied the chair, the most important one in the country, at the time when he first formulated his most remarkable prescription.

In view of the overwhelming testimony to the value of Paine's celery compound that has recently appeared from men and women of national reputation, the picture of Prof. Phelps is particularly interesting.

The fact is, Paine's celery compound is not a patent medicine; it is not a sarsaparilla; it is not a mere tonic; it is not an ordinary nervine—it is as far beyond them all as the diamond is superior to cheap glass.

It makes people well. It is the one true specific recognized and prescribed today by eminent practitioners for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system. Prof. Phelps gave to his profession a positive cure for sleeplessness, wasting strength, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, all nervous diseases and kidney troubles. For all such complaints Paine's celery compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

No remedy was ever so highly recommended, because none ever accomplished so much.

Today Paine's celery compound stands without competition for feeding exhausted nerves and building up the strength of the body. It cures radically and permanently. The nervous prostration and general debility from which thousands of women suffer so long that it finally gets to be a second nature with them—all this suffering and despondency can be very soon removed by properly feeding the nerves and replacing the unhealthy blood by a fresher, more highly vitalized fluid. A healthy increase in weight and good spirits follow the use of Paine's celery compound.

Paine's celery compound is the most remarkable medical achievement of this last half of the nineteenth century.

No temperance beverage equals Kops Cheer.
